II.—OFFICES CREATED AND THE SALARIES THEREOF.

[Prepared in the office of the Secretary of the Senate.]

By the act (Chap. X^V) to constitute Shreveport, in the State of Louisiana, a port of delivery

Shreveport, Louisiana, is made a port of delivery within the collection-district of New Orleans; and a deputy collector of customs shall be appointed therefor, whose salary shall be determined by the Secretary of the Treasury—not to exceed $1,500 per annum.

By the act (Chap. XXXI) supplementary to the act entitled "An act to prevent the extermination of fur-bearing animals of Alaska."

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to appoint one agent, at ten dollars per day; one assistant agent at eight dollars per day, and two assistant agents at six dollars per day, while employed, to manage the seal-fisheries in Alaska, and to perform such other duties as the Secretary of the Treasury may assign to them. They shall also be allowed necessary traveling expenses in going to, and returning from, Alaska.

By the act (Chap. XXXVI) to provide for the survey of the harbor and river at Washington, D. C.

The Chief of Engineers of the United States Army, the Superintendent of the Coast-Survey, the engineer in charge of the public buildings and grounds, the governor of the District of Columbia, A. R. Shepherd, and C. P. Patterson are created a board of survey to examine and report the condition of the harbors and landings for vessels from the Anacostia bridge, along the Eastern Branch, on the entire water-front of the cities of Washington and Georgetown, to the head of tide-water, said board to serve without compensation.

By the act (Chap. XLII) to create an additional land-district in the State of Nevada.

An additional land-district is created in Nevada, to be called the Elko land-district, and the President is authorized, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint a register and a receiver therefor, with same compensation allowed like officers in that State, viz, $500 each per annum and fees.

By the act (Chap. XLIII) to create an additional land-district in the State of Minnesota.

The President is authorized to establish an additional land-district in Minnesota, to be hereafter named by the President; and to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a register and a receiver therefor, whose compensation shall be the same as now allowed like officers in said State, viz, $500 each per annum and fees.

By the act (Chap. XLVII) to provide for the designation of a chief medical purveyor.

The President of the United States is authorized to appoint, (by selection from the present assistant medical purveyors of the Army,) by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a chief medical purveyor of the Army to fill the vacancy now existing. No increase of pay is allowed.

By the act (Chap. LXII) authorizing the survey and marking of the boundary between the territory of the United States and the possessions of Great Britain, from the Lake of the Woods to the summit of the Rocky Mountains.

The President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, is authorized to co-operate with the government of Great Britain in the appointment of a joint commission in accordance with the plan and estimates of Brigadier-General A. A. Humphreys, Chief of Engineers, for determining the boundary-line between the United States and the British possessions, between the Lake of the Woods and the Rocky Mountains. Engineers in the regular service of the United States shall be employed exclusively as engineers in the performance of the duties contemplated by this act, and without additional salary. The sum of $50,000 is appropriated to carry into effect the objects of the said joint commission.

By the act (Chap. LXXX) to establish a port of entry and delivery at the city of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

A port of entry and delivery is established at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, subject to the same regulations as other ports of entry and delivery in the United States. No specific offices are named in the act.

By the act (Chap. LXXXII) to provide for the exchange and transfer of two small parcels of land in the city of Saint Louis, Missouri.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to appoint a commission, to consist of two persons, to determine upon a new division-line between the lands of John G. Woerner and the Saint Louis marine hospital tract. No compensation is allowed by the act.

By the act (Chap. CXI) to erect two new land-districts in the State of Nebraska.

Two new land-districts are established in Nebraska, to be known as the Western and the Republican districts, respectively; and the President is directed to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a register and a receiver for each district, who shall receive the same compensation allowed like officers in said State, viz, $500 per annum each, and fees.
