STUDENT TRANSFORMATIVE
LEARNING RECORD

At the University of Central Oklahoma, student learning is tracked through both the academic transcript and Student Transformative Learning Record (STLR). STLR displays the student's progress through successive levels of performance across the Central Six Tenets of Transformative Learning, beyond Discipline Knowledge. Achievement in STLR denotes student gains in employability, communication, and citizenship skills beyond their academic major.

The University of Central Oklahoma and the STLR Program proudly recognize:

Betty Broncho

as having achieved a Transformation on their STLR in the following tenet(s):
