Transformative Learning @ UCO Makes You a Strong Job Seeking Graduate

At UCO, we challenge our students to take their learning beyond the classroom. Learning happens all around you in college - both in class and out of class.

We encourage you to grow in core areas in addition to your major which we call the Central 6 Tenets of Transformative Learning shown below.

Employers tell us they want graduates with skills in these main areas along with expertise in your major (knowledge from your specific discipline).

Discipline Knowledge

Global & Cultural Competencies

Health & Wellness

Leadership

STLR Tracks and Showcases Your Best Skills for Your Future

At UCO, we help you keep track of your grades on your academic transcript while also helping you keep track of these employable skills to make you more marketable for wherever you go.

Your STLR Snapshot displays your STLR learning at UCO, whether it's a class assignment, an internship, a student organization position, or an out-of-class project. Visit stlrnapshot.uco.edu to start building yours.

Your STLR ePortfolio helps you to create your own website to stand out beyond your resume. View an example at: <http://bit.ly/2mESkDg>. Visit eportfolio.uco.edu to get started.

Our Grads and Employers Say STLR Helps Students Stand Out

"Having an understanding of the importance of feedback within the workplace opened my perspective and willingness to take constructive feedback from my peers and leaders." - Julia Buck, UCO Grad 2016

"I was impressed with the student's ability to apply lessons-learned from one experience to another experience." - STLR Employer Advisory Board Member

"These are the most valuable experiences that I have from my college career. This project remained with me because it contributed to a bigger picture. There was a real audience and a real need. I was actually helping others and I found that's the best way for me to learn." - Adison Ketchum, UCO Grad 2016
