The president of the University called attention to the importance of the attendance, by member of the University faculty, upon meetings of scientific societies in connection with their particular departments, and made the following recommendation:

"Recommended that there be set aside in the budget for next year the sum of $4000.00 to pay the traveling expenses upon attendance of such meetings as the President of the University may approve."

It was voted not to set aside the amount suggested in next year's budget, but to defer such action until an appropriation sufficient to cover the amount had been made by the State Legislature.

M. A. Floyd, whose resignation from his position as associate professor of history had previously been requested, was given a hearing as per his request, he having failed to appear for a hearing set for the meeting of March 8. Mr. Floyd requested a reconsideration of the action of the Board and read a statement which he refused to file. He further stated that in his opinion certain affairs of the University might have been better conducted and that within fifteen days he would be able to present a written statement covering these items, which statement he was requested by the Board to present.

It was unanimously voted that the action of the Board, taken at its last meeting, terminating the services of M. A. Floyd, Associate Professor of History, on the first day of July, 1920, be reconsidered.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, by the Board of Regents of the University of Oklahoma, that the services of M. A. Floyd, as associate professor of history, be discontinued as of this date, June 8, 1920.

The president of the University reported with reference to the controversy between the societies known as the D. D. M. C. and the K. K. K., and after consideration the following recommendation by the president of the University was approved:

Recommended, that these organizations be permanently prohibited from the University of Oklahoma; that no student shall belong to any organization, the establishment of which has not been approved by the administrative council; that membership in any organization, the personnel of which is not known to the council, shall constitute a sufficient reason for expulsion from the University.

It was voted that Paul Johnston and George Boyle, and any other members of the D. D. M. C. connected with this episode be indefinitely suspended from the University.

It was further voted that, "for any student to have in his possession, or to carry a firearm contrary to the state law, when proved, shall be sufficient grounds for immediate expulsion from the University."

The president of the University requested that a committee be appointed to confer with the Governor with reference to the
