"The ship's early light"

light
light's last gleaming,
through the perilous fight,
so gallantly streaming?
cannon's bursting in air,
our flag was still there.
or yet wave
one of the brave?

The Land of the Free

"O say, can you see by the dawn's early light"

O say, can you see by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

We Care For Our Clothes And Furniture

IT'S HUMAN NATURE to live in the present—and not worry much about what may happen in a year or two.

But, in times like these, farmers must look to the future. Must take steps to make sure that their tractors, trucks, and other farm machinery will still be operating in 1943...and 1944.

The farmers in this neighborhood take care of their machinery.

The best way to take care of your tractor is to grease it well. The farmers in this neighborhood grease their machinery well.
