PURPOSE

The children of Sacred Heart School, Alva, Oklahoma enter whole-heartedly into the "Schools at War Program" Project. To convert this album into a war bond, to help win this World War II, is our highest aim.

We have entered the front, not the fighting front where our men meet and battle the enemy, but the home front where we must do all we can to help win the war by: (1) preparing ourselves to become good citizens, (2) as good citizens, to serve our country on whatever stage we play, and (3) to help plan for and win a peace useful and suitable for all the corners of the world -- to every nation and individual in the world.

We have already entered the Red Cross Society, the Iron Scrap Drive and now are partaking in the Schools at War Program -- all for VICTORY.

Our adopted motto is: "Save, Serve, Conserve !"

BONDS

Our purpose in buying bonds is to save our country, to liberate other countries, and to win a lasting peace for all nations; in other words, we are helping to fight for democratic freedom in political, social, economical life, and mainly for the preservation of religious freedom in our own country and that other countries may obtain it likewise.

Our school has been selling war stamps and bonds and has had great success. The total amount of money invested in war stamps by the pupils of this school ~~is~~ 1298.50, plus 35 bonds. We are only 35 pupils but we feel we are helping all we can.

We have had several devices to urge on the buying and selling of stamps. Each pupil tries to outdo the other in whipping the Japs, in stamping out Hitlerism and in BUILDING up a CHRISTIAN MORALE for WORLD PEACE.

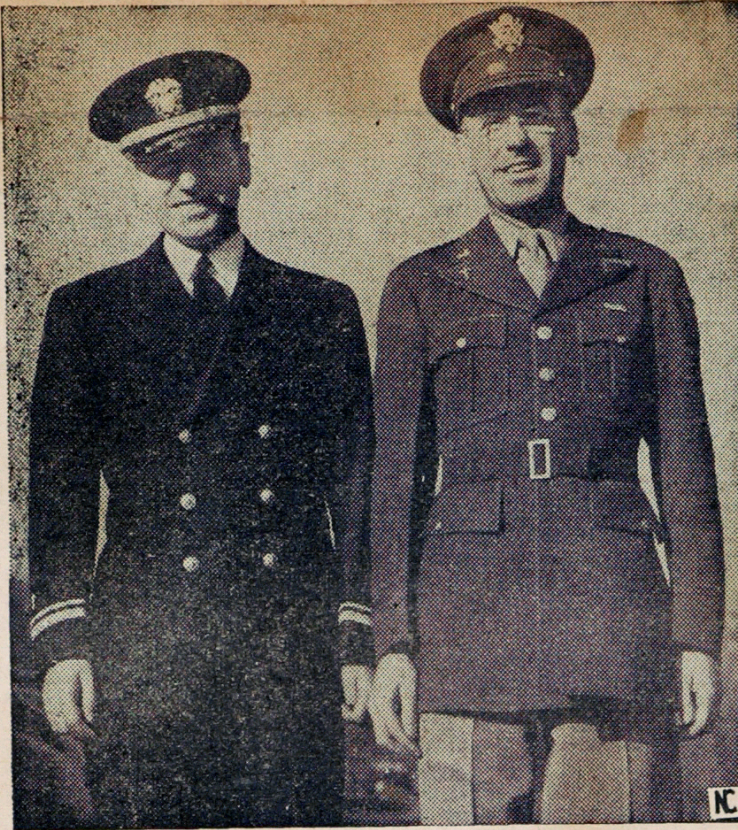

It is not the doing of great deeds that makes a great life— but the doing of our very best with what we have of talent, time and opportunity.

Philippines Leader

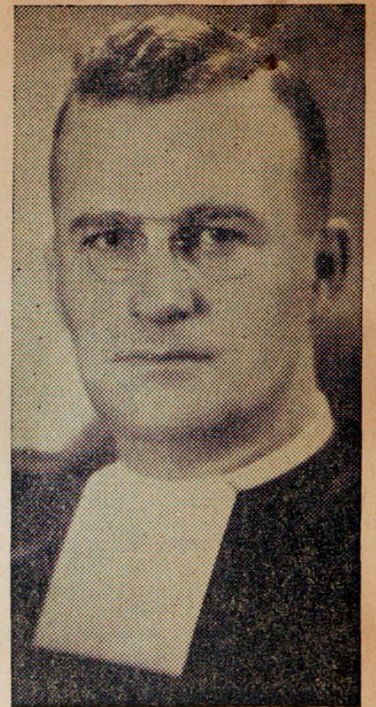

Manuel L. Quezon, President of the Commonwealth of the Philippines, photographed in Washington as he broadcasts a message to the people of the Philippines via short-wave radio, on the first anniversary of the Japanese attack on the Philippine Islands, December 7.

ARMY-NAVY CHAPLAIN BROTHERS

Meet the Army and Navy chaplain-sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Hanna, of Rochester, N.Y., and nephews of the Most Rev. Edward J. Hanna, retired Archbishop of San Francisco. Father Bernard C. Hanna, Lieutenant, U.S.N. (left), is stationed at the Naval Chaplains Schools, Norfolk, Va., and Father Austin B. Hanna, Captain, U.S.A., is at the Army War College, Washington, D.C. Three other Hanna sons are in the armed forces of the country.

WAR CASUALTY

Brother Damian Peter, of Newark, N.J., member of the Baltimore Province of the Brothers of the Christian Schools, who was killed during the fighting in Hong Kong last December, according to word just received. Formerly stationed in Manila, he was attached to the staff of St. Joseph's college, Hong Kong, at the time of his death.

Clippings from the "Southwest Courier" of Oklahoma (Dec.1942-Jan.1943)

CHAPLAIN CITED

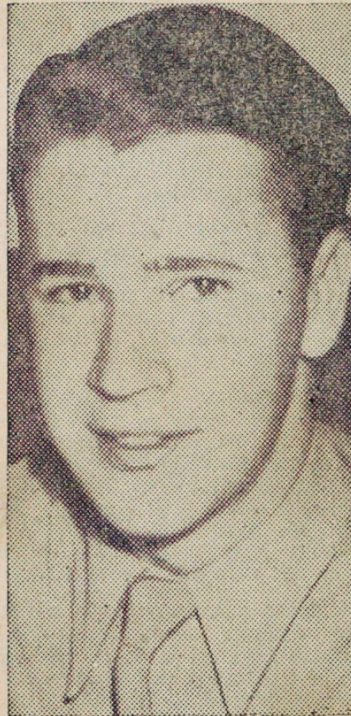

The Secretary of the Navy has awarded the Silver Star Medal to Chaplain Francis J. McManus (above), a priest of the Diocese of Cleveland, for "his heroism and intrepidity in combat and distinguished service during a bombing attack by Japanese bombers, December 29, 1941." Father McManus is presently reported as "missing."

President Honors Him

Lieut. John James Powers, U. S. N., upon whom President Roosevelt conferred the Congressional Medal of Honor during his radio address to the Nation, Sept. 7, was a choir boy in the Catholic Church of the Good Shepherd, New York City, before he entered the U. S. Naval Academy. He made his First Communion in that church and was confirmed there. President Roosevelt cited Lieutenant Powers' heroism and self-sacrificing spirit as an example for the country. Lieutenant Powers is listed as "missing."

Pearl Harbor Hero

Corp. Robert E. Baird of Barry, Ill., has recently received the Purple Heart decoration in recognition of "meritorious acts of essential service" performed during the Japanese bombing raid on Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7. The 19-year-old enlisted man was riding a bicycle to Mass near Pearl Harbor when the Japanese planes attacked. Although wounded himself, he braved Japanese strafing to go to the aid of an officer. It is believed his prompt application of a tourniquet saved the officer's life.

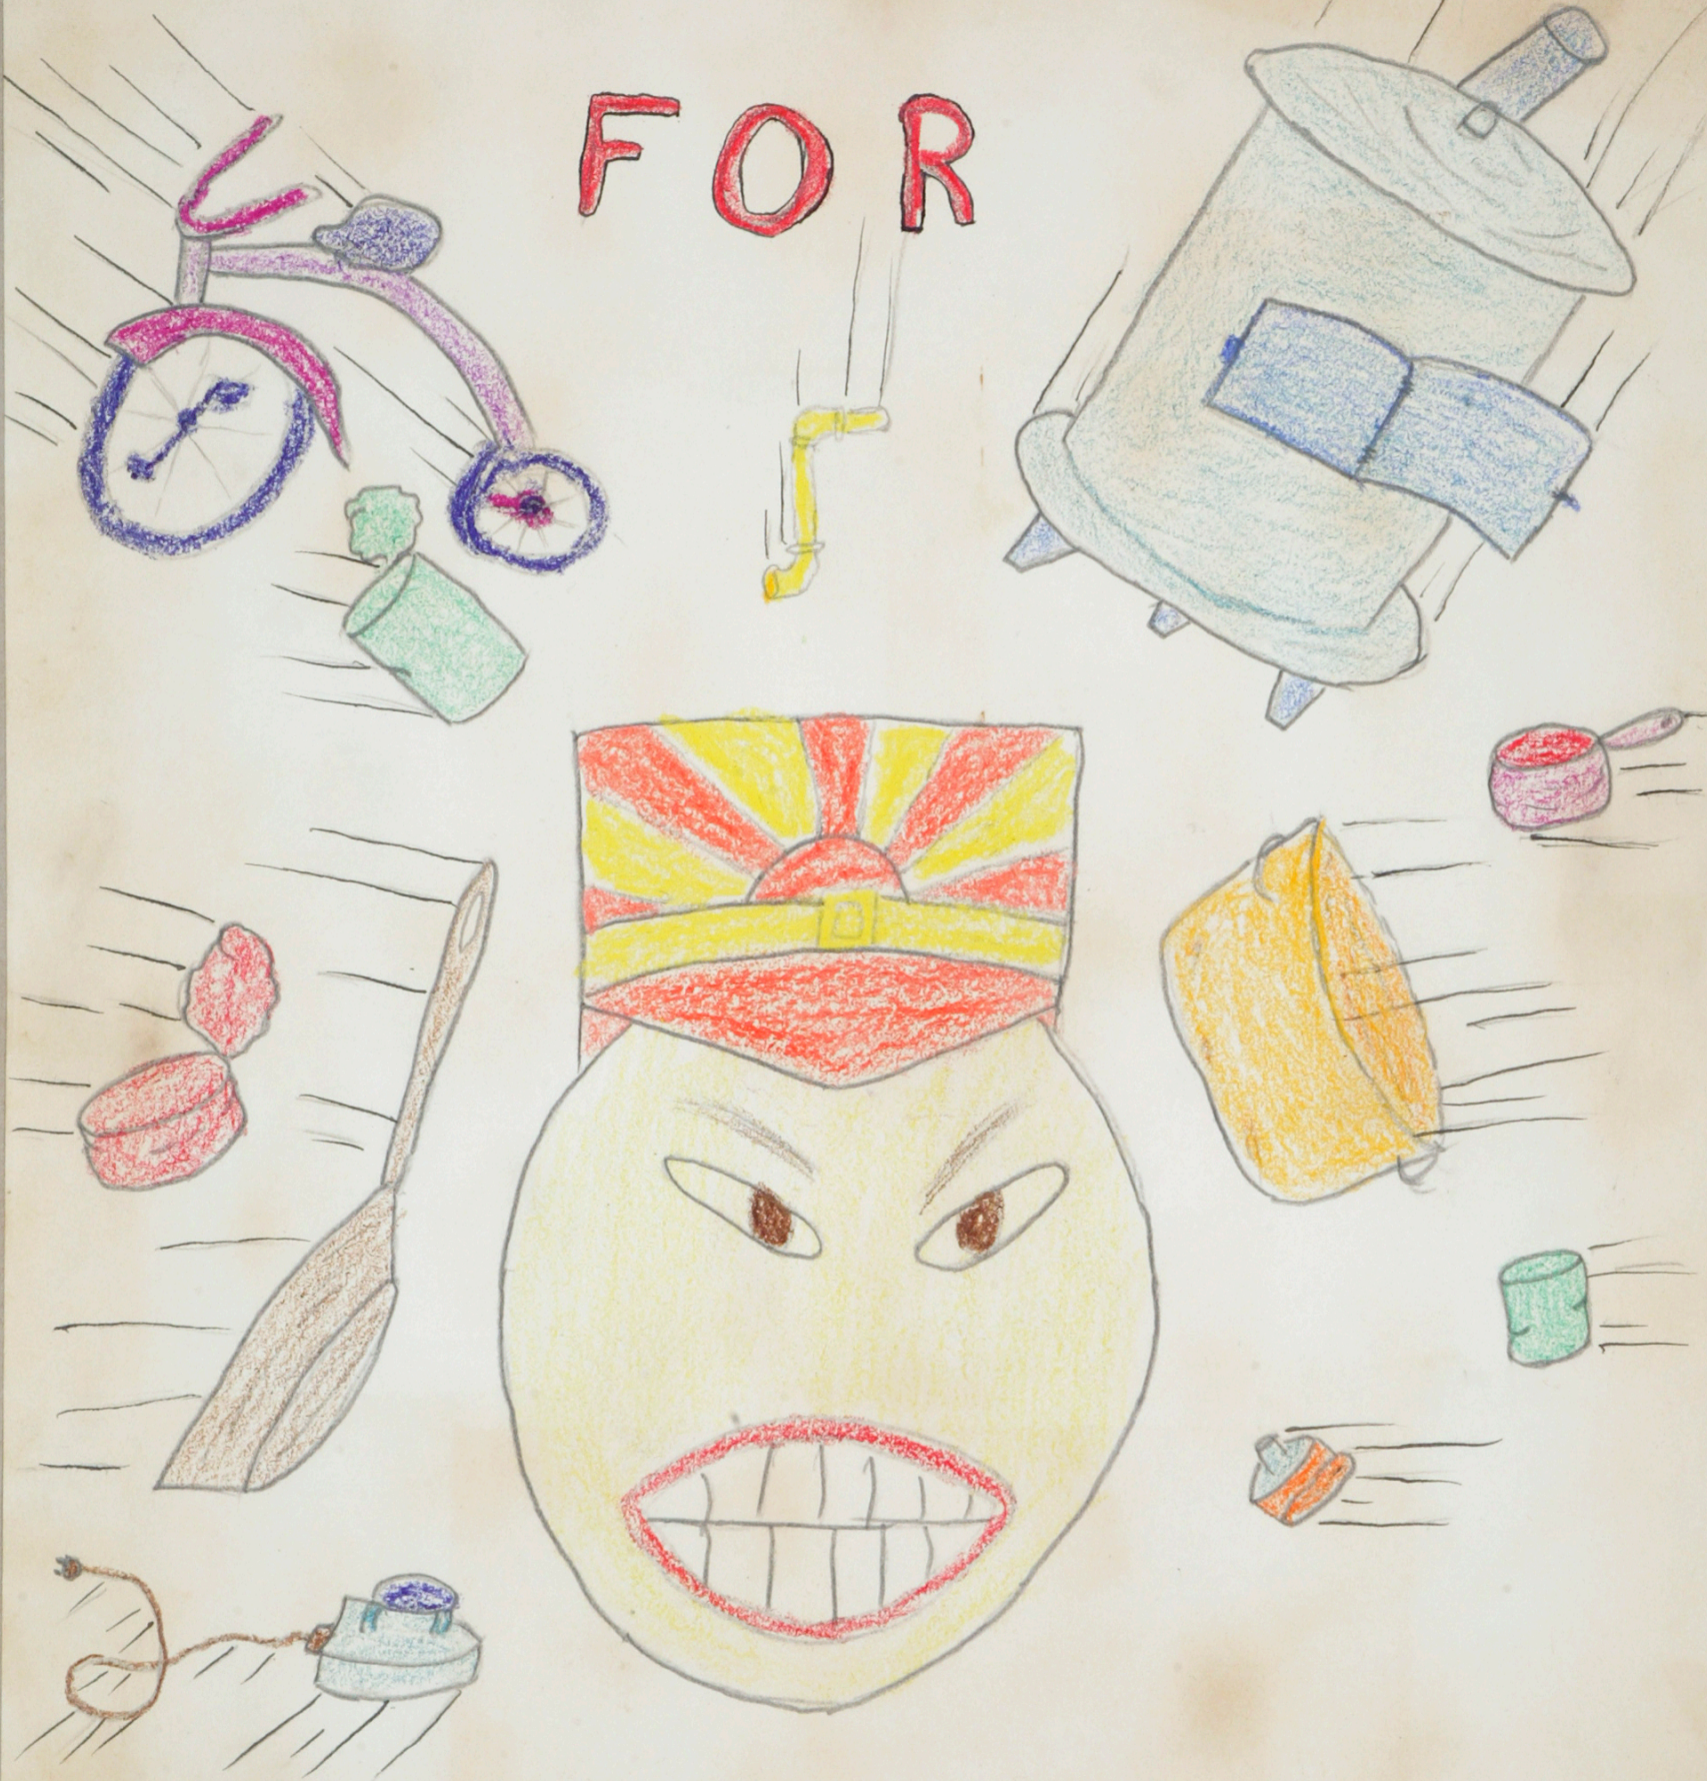

KILLED IN ACTION

First American Catholic Chaplain killed in offensive action on foreign soil, Father Clement M. Falter, of Landeck, O., was killed, Nov. 8, while landing with his troops at Fedhala, French Morocco, North Africa. News of his death was brought to the United States by Father Francis Ballinger, a Navy Chaplain aboard the same transport with Father Falter. An Army Chaplain since February, 1942, Father Falter was a priest of the Society of the Precious Blood, of Collegeville, Ind.

Soldier Asks For Catholic Chaplain

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—(C)—A touching plea for additional Catholic chaplains for the Armed Forces, addressed to the Most Rev. Francis J. Spellman, Military Vicar, has been released by the Military Ordinariate.

"I am a Catholic soldier in the U. S. Army, and I am now located at a certain camp in Florida," the reasons for this letter is that I would like to know in behalf of the many other Catholics in this camp if it would be possible to have a Catholic chaplain here. Speaking for myself and many other Catholic soldiers, we sure would like to have one, so that we could have evening services like other camps, for instance, the Novena of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal and the Holy Hour Novena, and friendly conversations with our Catholic chaplain. We sure do miss that homely feeling of safety and security given by conversation with a Catholic chaplain."

'Ready To Live— And Ready To Die'

SYDNEY, Australia, Sept. 1.—(C)—Preaching the sermon at a requiem Mass in the cathedral for 14 Catholics who died when a ship was sunk off the Solomons, Father Evans, who survived the sinking, announced that all 14 had gone to Confession and received Holy Communion the previous day.

"These fine young men, ready to live and also ready to die, will remain in our minds as examples of courage leading us to victory and peace," Father Evans said.

Father Evans arrived home wearing an American uniform. He praised the treatment given the survivors by their American rescuers. Ordained here in 1930, he became a naval chaplain in 1940.

SWEETNESS IN ADVERSITY

During these trying times we should remember the benevolence of God. It is evidenced in a thousand ways. Too often we forget God's goodness in our time of trial. We magnify our troubles and murmur at our crosses, never realizing how little we deserve God's manifold blessings.

We may find happiness in adversity. Sweet use may be made of it if it bring to the surface the better traits of human nature which are often submerged in prosperity. There are many signs that people are making use of these trying times. Capitalists are showing better appreciation of the rights of the workers and an opportunity to labor, and to receive a just and living wage. Selfishness and greed are giving way to a more generous feeling. There is an awakening to the responsibility and duty owed the poor by those who are more fortunate. Charity is a word heard more frequently in the mouths of men. Giving for charity is the payment of a debt and not a dole. Those who are suffering most show a splendid courage and patience that is admirable. They have not lost trust in God or hope in His Providence. These are soul trying times. To the many who have been touched they are a test and lesson in spiritual and moral values. We believe that there are many passing the test and learning the lesson.

There are those who profess to see no light in the gloom. They see only the gathering of a thicker darkness. We do not believe with them. From the gloom will emerge a finer faith, a stronger hope and a more living charity. The hand of God is upon us. It may rest heavily but it is a loving hand, the hand of our Heavenly Father. Lest our souls be beguiled by the deceits that often lurk in material prosperity, He sends adversities upon us that we may make sweet uses of them.

SPECIAL FLAG DESIGNED

WASHINGTON—In a circular letter to Army chaplains, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William R. Arnold, chief of chaplains, has announced that a change in regulation authorizes a special flag for the Chief of Army Chaplains. The emblem is of dark blue with a Cross and star in white.

Archbishop Leads Prayers For Hero

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—(C)—Speaking at the conclusion of a solemn Military Requiem Mass for Admiral Daniel J. Callaghan, who met death while leading warships under his command into battle in the Solomons, the Most Rev. John J. Mitty, Archbishop of San Francisco, called him "a gallant hero, who made the supreme sacrifice of life for his country and his flag."

His Excellency said that Admiral Callaghan "fought and died to preserve human rights, human dignity, human freedom, human liberty, to keep this a free world and not allow it to become a slave world. For these spiritual ideals, like his Divine Master, he gave his all."

"Today," the Archbishop added, "we humbly offer our prayers for him and for his fellow patriots who willingly, bravely, generously gave their lives for God and country. And with all our fellow citizens throughout the land, we pray that their sacrifices may bring a victory and peace acceptable to God."

Freedom of Religion Primary War Aim, Says U. S. Brochure

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(C)—"The democratic guarantee of freedom of worship is not in the nature of a grant—it is the nature of an admission," it is stated in a brochure issued by the Office of War Information of the United States Government.

This statement is made in the course of a chapter on "Freedom of Religion" in the brochure, which is titled "The United Nations Fight for the Four Freedoms."

"That part of man which is called the spirit and which belongs only to himself and to his God, is of the very first concern in designing a free world," the article says in discussing freedom of religion. "It was not their stomachs but their immortal souls which brought the first settlers to America's shores, and they prayed before they ate. Freedom of conscience, the right to worship God, is part of our soil and of the sky above this continent."

Worth Copying

All national broadcasting stations in Australia pause one minute at noon for silent prayer that God may assist the nation in its trials. This is an example worth copying in all the Allied nations.—Cleveland Universe-Bulletin.

The mess kit is one of the most important items in the Soldier's equipment. It consists generally of a pan, a plastic canteen and cup, a fork, knife and spoon, all in a canvas pack cover. The total cost runs up to about $2.00.

Canteens and other items such as handles on knives and forks, formerly made of aluminum, are now plastic. Alloy has replaced stainless steel. You can buy many of these mess kits for our boys with your purchases of War Bonds and Stamps. Invest in War Bonds or Stamps every pay day and top the quota in your county.

Uncle Sam's lighter 37-millimeter anti-tank guns are dubbed "tank killers." They are attached to the infantry, not the field artillery, and cost approximately $6,500 each. They have proved particularly effective in anti-tank warfare.

They are mobile, mounted on automobile tires and can be rapidly whisked from place to place. Your purchase of War Bonds will help pay the cost of these field pieces so necessary for our Army in this War. Join the Payroll Savings Plan at your office or factory and let's "Top that ten percent" by investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds.

Winter flying jackets for both the Army and Navy Air Corps are regular equipment for our aviators. They cost from $12 to $18 and are made of horsehide leather lined with sheep shearing.

Purchase of one $18.75 War Bond, for which you receive $25 in 10 years, will pay for one of these jackets so necessary for our airmen flying at high altitudes and in northern climes. So you and your neighbors can do your bit by investing every pay day in War Bonds to help pay the cost of this equipment for intrepid American flyers. Join the parade, and help top the War Bond Quota in your county.

A scout car is a low-slung motor car armored with heavy steel plate, used to transport troops from one point to another. It is of low silhouette and gives protection against machine gun and other ground fire. A scout car costs $5,000.

You and your neighbors joining together can buy one of these vehicles for the Ordnance Department of our army with your purchase of War Bonds. We need hundreds of them and need them quickly. Put at least ten percent of your wages or income into War Bonds every pay day and help your fellow Americans top the War Bond Quota in your county.

When the Marines get their service pack, there is included therein a bright shiny new shovel cased in a muslin carrier. The shovel costs 68 cents and the carrier 39 cents, or $1.07 for the ensemble.

These intrenching shovels are used by the Marines around camp, digging trenches, setting up barbed wire entanglements and in many other ways. Your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps every pay day can readily equip our forces with these necessary implements for warfare. Invest at least ten percent of your income every pay day. "For these are the lasting, truthful things..."

Reasons
Why

1. By investing in War Bonds you help provide the planes, the tanks, the guns and the ships we must have to survive and conquer.
2. You prove that you are a patriotic American.
3. You aid the morale of our fighting men, by showing them that the entire Nation is behind them.
4. You prove to our enemies that we are a United People.
5. You protect your own financial future, as every $18.75 you invest in a War Bond brings you back $25 in 10 years. You make the world's safest investment, by buying a share in the world's most powerful country.

This is an American soldier.

He goes to war not with any fanatical theories of race superiority, of any special "place in the sun," nor any desire to rule the world by fire and by sword. He fights for something greater. For decency—for his loved ones—for his Country, not as some warlike symbol, but as the one great refuge in this world where the humble, the meek, and the righteous may live and work in peace.

This is why he must win. For these are lasting, truthful things. They are not temporary drugs for the mind, but steadfast things of the heart and the soul. And when the flame of fanaticism finally flickers and goes out, the fires of American decency and honor will still burn.

It is this same sense of decency and honor that has bound us all together. We know we cannot all fight. But there is something we can do—and are doing—to help. We can help provide the guns, the planes, the tanks, and the ships to put might behind the right.

By the tens of millions, Americans are saving for Victory in the War Bond Payroll Savings Plan. Every payday we employees, workers and bosses are putting aside 10% of our pay—a dime from every dollar—and every time these savings amount to $18.75, we get a War Bond. And—because this is the free American way—our money is working double. First it goes in a mighty flow for the instruments of Victory, then—ten years later—it comes back to us, four dollars for every three we've put into War Bonds—$25 for every $18.75.

Now look at the picture again. Then imagine that this soldier were your brother, your son, or your sweetheart.

Would ten percent of your pay, in War Bond savings, be too much to help him win—and live?

REV. GAVAN P. MONAGHAN
DIOCESAN SUPERINTENDENT

TO THE PUPILS OF THE CATHOLIC SCHOOLS OF OKLAHOMA

My dear pupils:

The Treasury Department at Washington asks your cooperation to prevent the hoarding of pennies and nickels. Last Year the Federal Mint used 4600 tons of copper in the production of one-cent pieces. This represents the amount of copper needed in the building of two cruisers, two destroyers, 1245 flying fortresses, 120 field guns and 120 howitzers; OR enough for one and one quarter million shells for our big field guns.

Pennies and nickels are needed in everyday business; but if those that the Government has minted are kept out of circulation, it means that more will have to be minted, thus using copper which is so vitally needed for the War Effort.

Will you please start a campaign to have all idle pennies (and nickels) put back into circulation. Idle coins are those that are lying in piggybanks and in glass jars, etc. They can be put back into circulation by investing them in War Stamps or even by exchanging them at stores or at the Bank or Post Office for coins of a larger denomination. Every small coin lying idle helps the enemy.

From the reports I have received I know that you are nobly shouldering your part of the burden of war. Will you please redouble your prayers and acts of sacrifice in favor of our men in the Service - - assistance at Holy Mass when possible, visits to Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, the buying of War Stamps instead of spending money needlessly on yourselves. No prayer is insignificant; no act of sacrifice too small.

You will soon have posted in your school a copy of a letter written by one of our war heroes - - the late Commander Shea who gave his life to defend our country. Read it often. It will show you what real supermen are and it will encourage you in all your war efforts.

Wishing God's blessing upon you,

Faithfully yours,

Gavan P. Monaghan

Dear Jackie:

This is the first letter I have ever written to my little son, and I am thrilled to know he can read it all by himself. If you miss some of the words I'm sure it will be only because I do not write plainly. Mother will help you in case anything is not clear.

I was glad to hear your voice over the long-distance telephone. It sounded as though I was right in the living room with you. You sounded as though you missed your daddy very much. I miss you, too, more than anyone will ever know.

It is too bad this war could not have been delayed a few more years so I could have grown up again with you and done all the things I planned to do when you were old enough to go to school.

I thought how nice it would be for me to come home early in the afternoon and play ball with you and go mountain climbing with you and see the trees and brooks and learn all about wood craft, hunting, fishing, swimming and other things we've talked about. I suppose we must be brave and put these things off now for a little while.

When you are a little bigger you will know why your daddy is not home so much anymore. You know, we have a big country and we have ideals as to how people should live and enjoy the riches of it—and how each is born with equal rights to life, freedom and the pursuit of happiness.

Unfortunately, some of the countries in the world don't have these ideals and there a boy cannot grow up to be whatever he wants to be, with no limit on his opportunities to become a great man such as a great priest, statesman, doctor, soldier, business man, etc.

Because there are people and countries who want to change our nation, its ideals, forms of government and way of life, we must leave our home and families to fight.

Fighting for the defense of our country, its ideals and homes is an honor and a duty which your daddy has to do before he can come home to settle down with you and Mother.

When it is done he is coming home to be with you always and forever. So wait just a little while longer. I'm afraid it won't be as soon as the two weeks you told me over the telephone.

In the meantime take good care of Mother. Be a good boy and grow up to be a good young man. Study hard when you go to school. Be a leader in everything that is good in life.

Be a good Catholic and you can't help being a good American. Play fair, always. Strive to win, but if you must lose, lose like a gentleman and a good sportsman.

Don't ever be a quitter, either in sports or in business, or your profession, when you grow up.

Get all the education you can. Stay close to Mother and follow her advice always. Obey her in everything, no matter how you disagree: she knows what is best and will never let you down or lead you away from the right and honorable things of life.

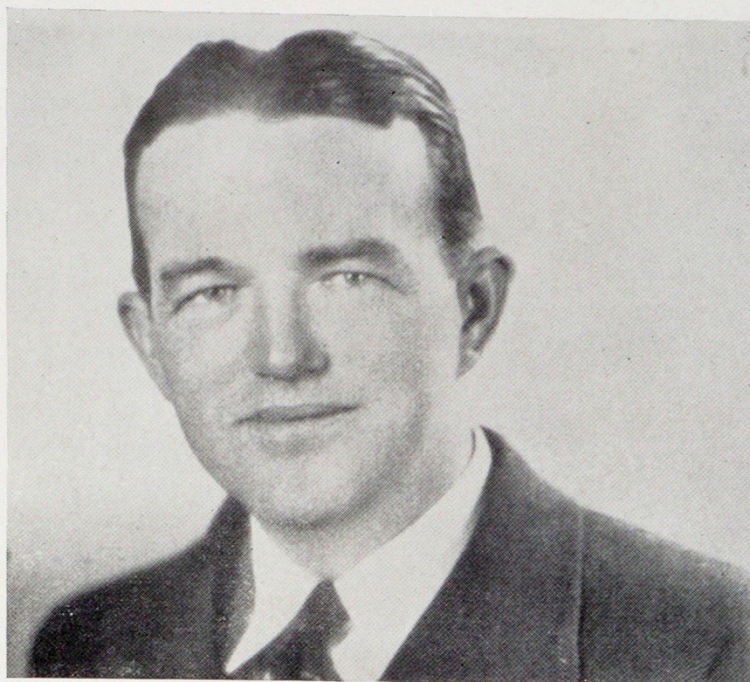

If I don't get back you will have to be Mother's protector because you will be the only one she has. You must grow up to take my place as well as your own in her life and heart.

Love your grandmother and granddad as long as they live. They, too, will never let you down. Love your aunts and see them as often as you can. Last of all don't ever forget your daddy. Pray for him to come back and if it is God's will that he does not, be the kind of a boy and man your daddy wants you to be.

Kiss Mother for me every night. Good-bye for now.

With all my love and devotion for Mother and you.
