“United We Stand”

"In 1942 farmers smashed all production records. But war is a hearty eater. In 1943 even more is needed of the war-vital products. The farmer's war job is to produce them."

Claude R. Wickard
Secretary of Agriculture.

Eat the Right Foods

Based on the U. S. Government's Guide to Good Nutrition

MEAT, POULTRY OR FISH—one or more servings daily.

EGGS—at least 3 or 4 a week, cooked any way you choose or in "made" dishes.

VEGETABLES—Green, Leafy and Yellow—one big helping or more a day—some raw,
some cooked or canned.

MILK—at least a pint a day (more for children)—or cheese or evaporated or dried milk.

ORANGES, TOMATOES, GRAPEFRUIT—
one of these at least once a day.

POTATOES, APPLES, BANANAS — other vegetables and fruits every day.

BREAD AND CEREAL—enriched bread, enriched flour, whole grain products, macaroni, spaghetti.

FATS, SWEETS
and seasonings as you like them.

The foods shown here are on the government's model menu for well-balanced meals, which have so much to do with the health, vigor, morale and efficiency of the nation.

In proper proportion and amount, they combine all of the elements of good nutrition—proteins, vitamins, fats, carbohydrates, iron, copper, calcium, phosphorus and other essential minerals.

These foods are needed in summer, just as they are in winter.

In planning balanced meals with meat, as most housewives do, remember that the thrifter cuts are just as nutritious as the more familiar ones—plus, of course, that good meat flavor. Your meat-man will help you in your selection.

This Seal means that all statements made in this advertisement are acceptable to the Council on Foods and Nutrition of the American Medical Association.

I GAVE FIVE SONS

DAVID W. WEST

When we have our Victory
and we've added to our history;
It will be right there to see--
How sweet and simple life can be.

When the lights go on again
All over the world--
And the boys are home again
All over the world--
And rain or snow is all
That may fall from the skies above,
A kiss won't mean "Good- bye,"
But "Hello" to love;---

When the lights go on again
All over the world
And the ships will sail again
All over the world.
Then we'll have time for things like wedding rings.
And "Free hearts will sing
When the lights go on again
All over the world.
