WE REPORT TO THE NATION

We herewith submit a bird's-eye view report of our SCHOOLS AT WAR Program. It includes factual and pictorial accounts of our War Savings Program and other outstanding war activities. It is tangible proof of the resourcefulness, skills, activities and the will to win of every student, teacher and parent enlisted in our SCHOOLS AT WAR Program.

America's Schools At War Program

The pupils of Lincoln School are glad to have a part in developing a co-ordinated program of the various war activities in which we are capable of participating.

Such a program, we feel, has its educational value to the extent that we have learned to save, to economize, to share, and to be aware of the great responsibilities that confront us.

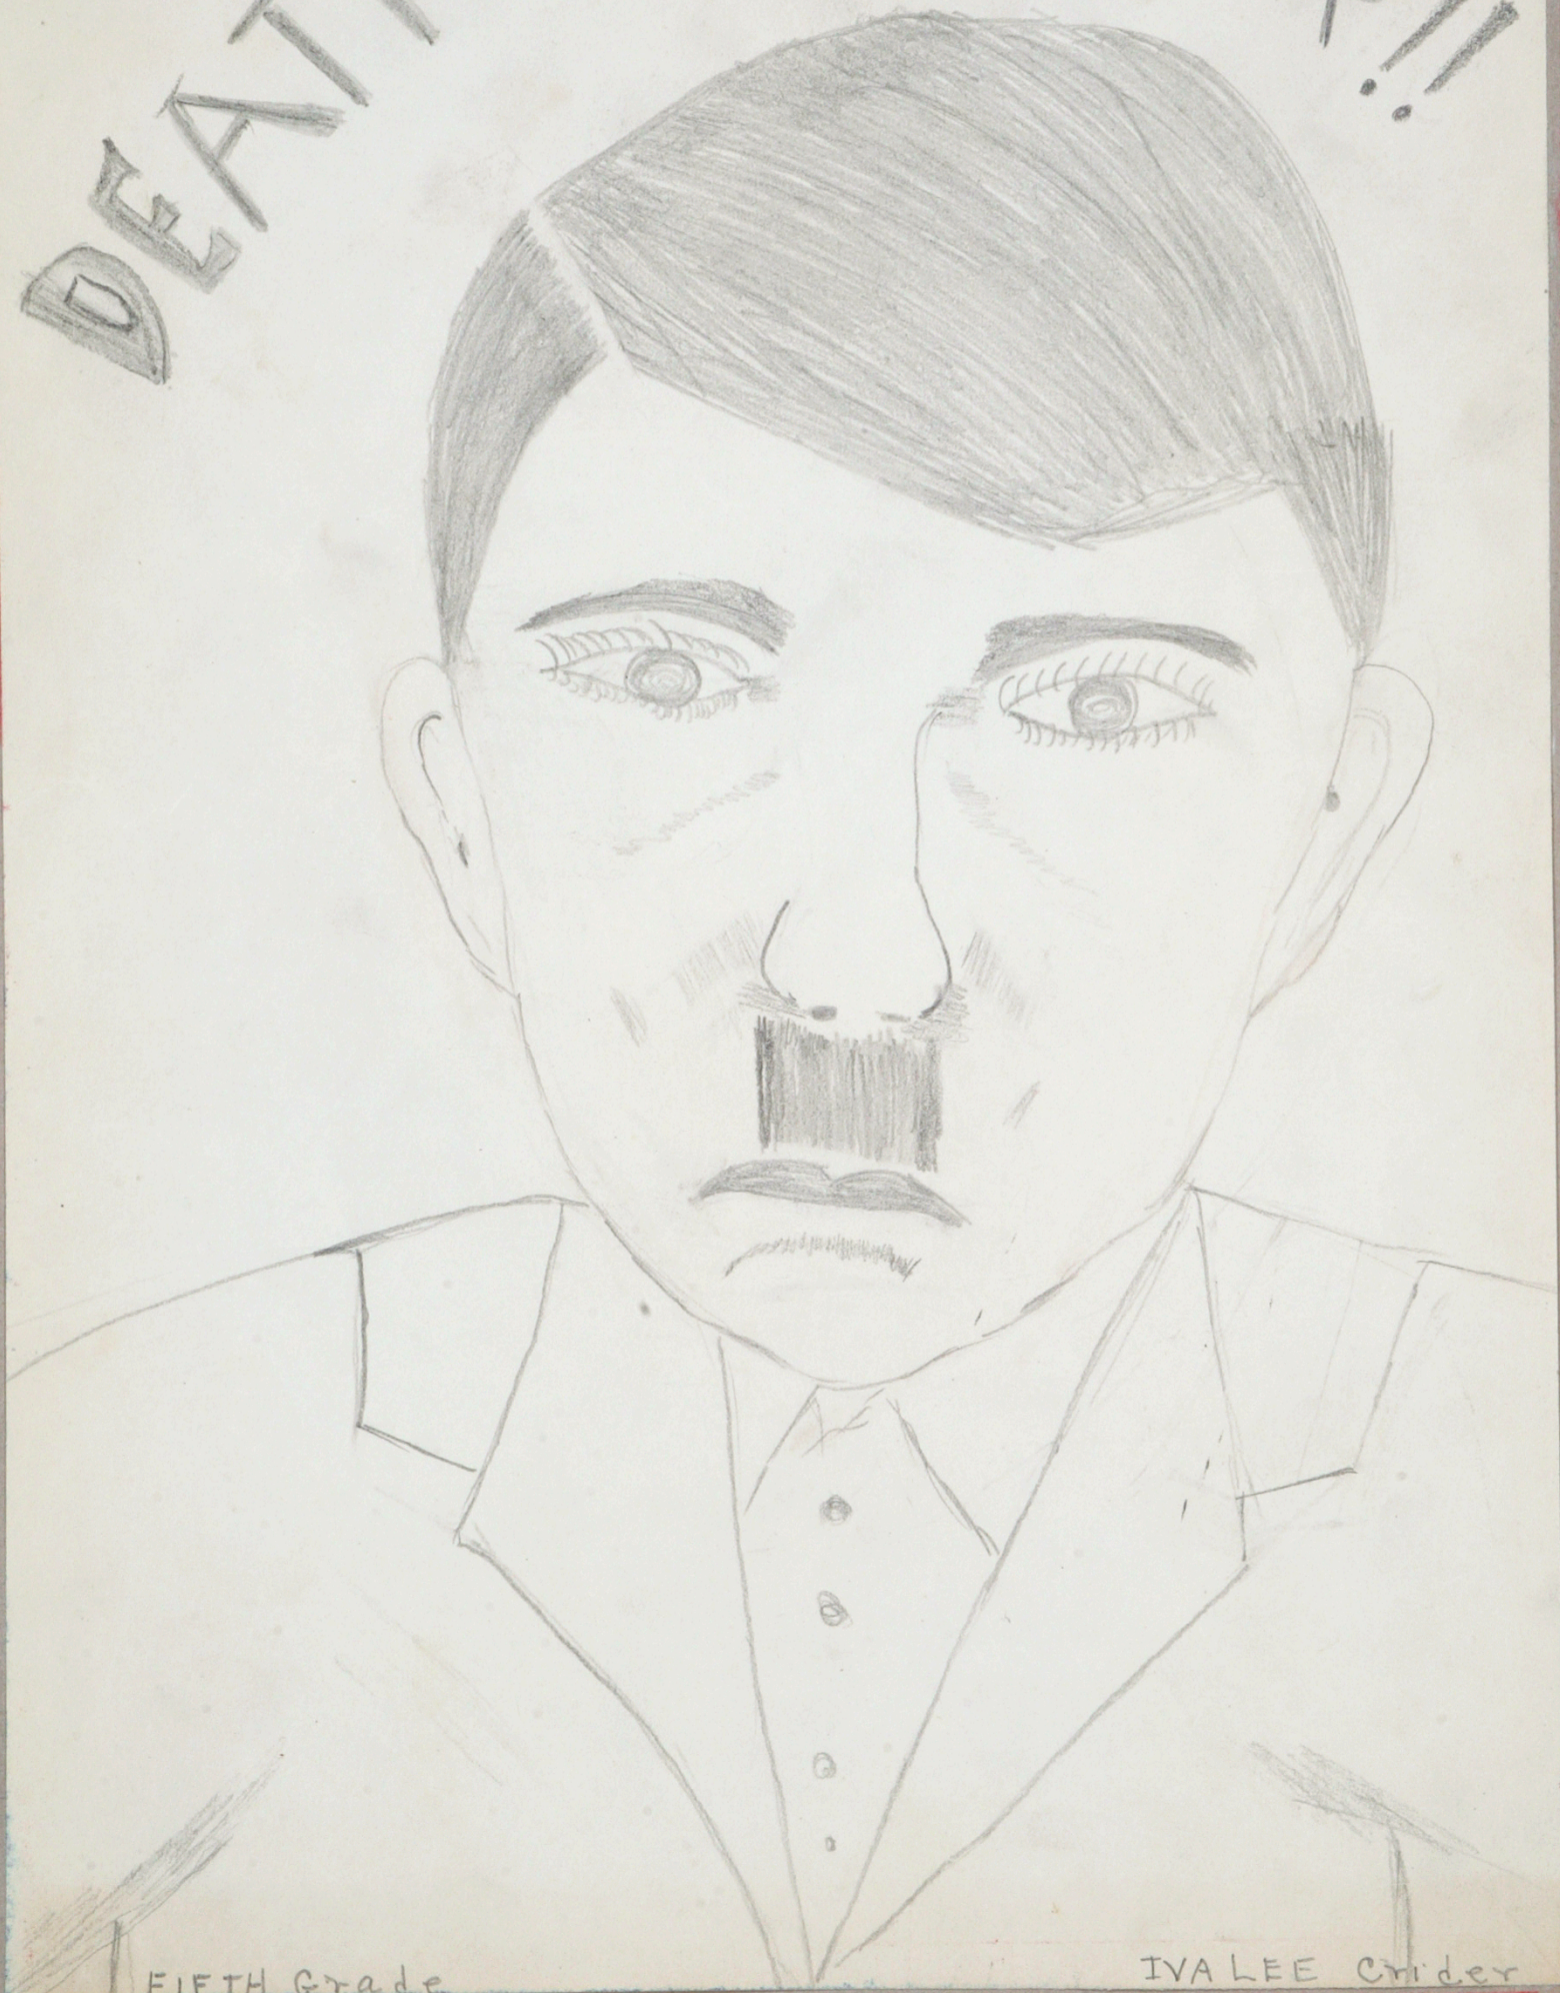

The activities participated in by teachers, patrons, and students have been, namely:

- (1) buying stamps regularly;
- (2) conservation of all kinds of materials;
- (3) collecting of scrap rubber, paper, tin, copper, iron, etc.
- (4) putting pennies into circulation.

During the "Scrap Drive" more than eleven tons of metal, 900 pounds of rubber, and two and one-half tons of paper were turned in by the 225 students enrolled in the school.

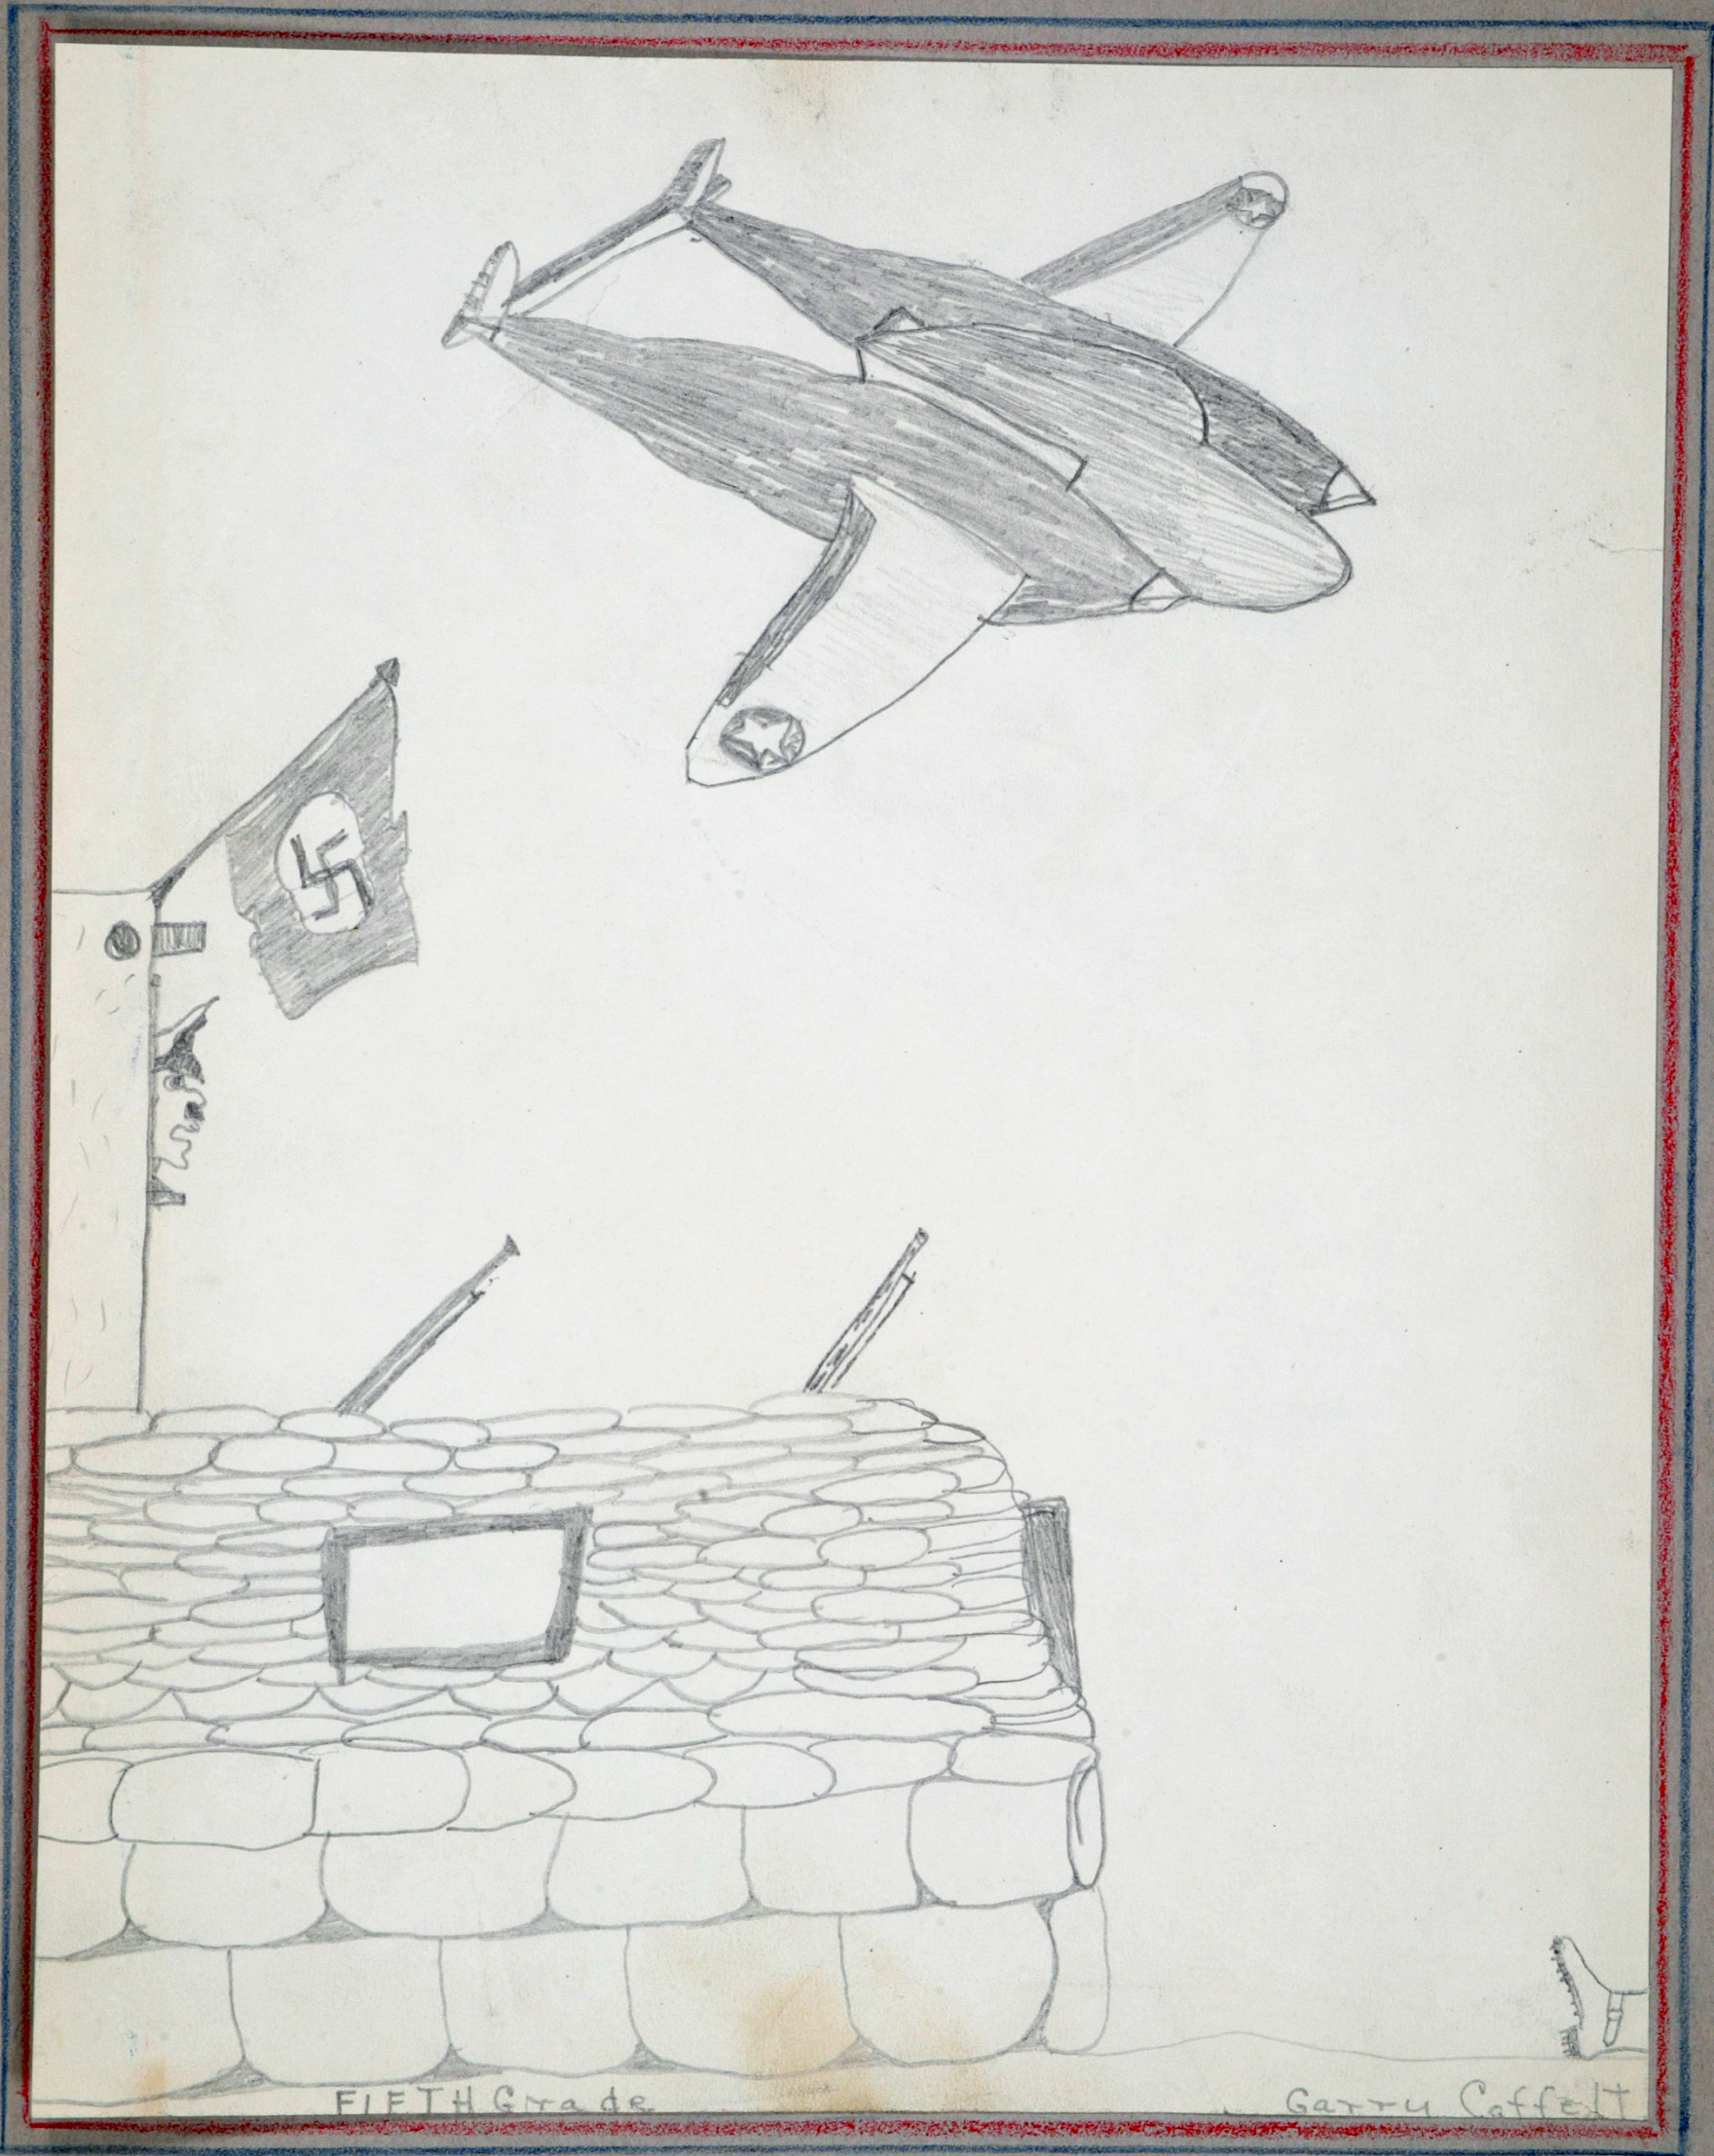

We shall continue to do our part as members of the "Little Army" on the home front, doing its bit for the country we love and enjoy.

PUBLICITY

He Eats a Ton a Year, Does York

World War II has provided occasion to bring the name "Sergeant York" back into national acclaim—not for deeds of heroism performed on the battlefield, but as typifying deeds of heroism, hard work, and sacrifice on the farm front.

Mess Sergeant John R. York, (above) formerly of Blackwell and now stationed with the 191st field artillery, Camp Barkeley, Tex., tries his own cooking:

Corner-beef hash, french fried potatoes, combination salad, G. I.

bread, butter, and milk—a typical filling army meal.

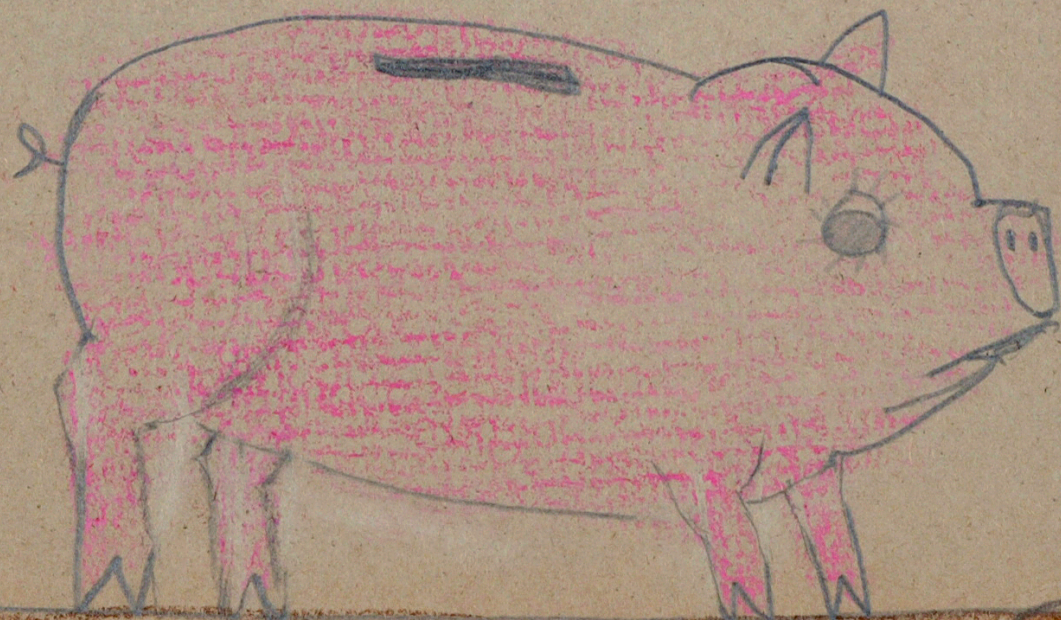

This picture of Sergeant York is being used to adorn the front of a Food for Freedom poster, recently distributed all over the nation by the department of agriculture.

The poster is entitled "He Eats a Ton a Year."

It is intended to exemplify one of the tremendous jobs ahead of farmers for next year—that of providing enough of the right kind of food to supply the millions of fighting men in Uncle Sam's army.

Salute Deciding the old manner of saluting the flag in the pledge of allegiance was to nearly the Nazi method of honoring their leader congress has amended the flag code to provide for holding the hand over the heart throughout the pledge of allegiance. Billy White, shown above, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. White, 1430 Northeast Twenty-seventh street, shows the approved procedure and the method formerly used. Mrs. Fred G. Neff 434 Northeast Fourteenth street, honorary state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution was recently advised of the code revision by congress.

Salute To The Flag In Proper Manner

The pledge of allegiance to the flag, "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all," is rendered by standing with the right hand over the heart; extending the right hand, palm upward, toward the flag at the words "to the flag" and holding this position until the end, when the hand drops to the side. However, civilians will always show full respect to the flag when the pledge is given by merely standing at attention, men removing the headdress. Persons in uniform shall render the military salute.
