~~The Journal of the Senate for November 21, 1949 was approved.~~

With The following corrections, to the October 31, 1949, Journal of the Senate ~~were~~ approved:

Second sentence of the resolution concerning change in the honor point system should read as follows:

"This method shall be effective for all students who matriculate in the University on or after the beginning of the first semester of the academic year, 1950-51."

The dates concerning early final examinations for the spring semester should be changed as follows:

Friday, May 26 through Friday, June 2.

President Cross approved the recommendation of the Curriculum Committee as reported in the Journal of the University Senate of October 31,

"Final examinations for the spring semester of the academic year, 1949-50, will be held from Friday, May 26, through Friday, June 2. The Summer Session final examinations will be held Thursday, August 3, and Friday, August 4, instead of August 4 and 5 as now announced."

Professor Earl Sneed, chairman of the Committee on University Standards, presented a report pertaining to the regulations for eligibility for participation in non-athletic student activities. After consideration of several amendments the following recommendation was approved:

The regulations pertaining to eligibility for non athletic student activities as now appear on page 42 of the University Catalogue for 1948-49 should be rescinded and in lieu thereof the following regulations are recommended to the president for approval.

ACTIVITIES - ELIGIBILITY - NON-ATHLETIC: The rules of eligibility which govern participation in non-athletic student activities are administered by the Dean of Students in conjunction with the faculty sponsor of the student organization concerned. For exceptions applying to local musical and dramatic programs, see under College of Fine Arts.

1. To be eligible for non-athletic co-curricular activities during any semester, a student must be regularly enrolled in at least 12 hours (6 hours in a summer session) with a grade average of C or better in all work undertaken.

2. All students with prior residence, must have successfully completed during the next preceding semester at least 12 hours (6 hours in a summer session) with a grade average of C or better in all work undertaken.

3. The rules set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2 above, insofar as they pertain to organizational activities which are wholly within a school or college, are subject to modification by agreement between the Dean of Students and the faculty of the school or college concerned.

Respectfully submitted,

Fayette Copeland
Harry E. Hoy
William T. Penfound
Earl, Sneed, Jr.- Chairman
