Pride '99 a Huge Success

A huge thank you goes out to the entire community for their support of this year's Pride celebration. Several factors no doubt contributed to the great turnout for this year's events: the 1st Pride Parade in Tulsa; Congressman Barney Frank as the Grand Marshal and Featured Speaker; and the controversy caused by the Tulsa City Council and the usual slate of protestors.

Whatever the reason for the turnout, everyone seemed to have a great time this year. We thought last year's Picnic was a feat to pull off, but this year far exceeded our expectations AND the results from last year. Starting the day with the picnic at 10:00 AM led by Grand Marshal Barney Frank, there were over 40 entries in the parade with scores of walkers. Few of our critics expected the over 1,000 participants in the parade. The finale of the parade was the 18 foot wide by 120 foot long Pride flag carried by a group of walkers. Look for this flag to continue as a fixture for many years to come.

Although the crowd of onlookers was sometimes sparse for the parade as it wound up Peoria to 31st Street to Riverside and ended at Veterans Park, there was a terrific group waiting at the park to welcome the marchers, floats and cars.

There were lots of great entries in the parade, including Best Float winners, the Gay Volleyball League, and Best Marching Unit, the Oklahoma Intercollegiate Gay & Lesbian Alliance.

The Picnic kicked off earlier than planned at 11:00 AM and was in full swing by Noon, when Congressman Frank spoke. The entertainment for the day was phenomenal. The variety of the booths was terrific. Everyone had an opportunity to really enjoy the day. Luckily the weather held out and, although a little muggy, it turned out to be a great day for a picnic. Turnout for this year's picnic is estimated at 2,000 to 2,500.

The Pride weekend kicked off with a showing of "Stonewall" on Thursday night at the Tulsa Gay Community Services Center. More than 30 people turned out for the showing, despite air-conditioning problems and a lack of water early in the evening.

A smaller event was held later Saturday evening for those wanting to get a little dressed up. Co-hosted by TOHR and Cimarron Alliance and billed as "Pride & Power: An Evening with the Honorable Barney Frank," the dinner was preceded by two receptions. An open cash bar was available to everyone starting at 7:00 PM, and hour before the dinner. A VIP reception was also held at 7:00 PM for those willing to pay the extra money, giving those people an opportunity to meet Congressman Frank one-on-one.

If you didn't know... TOHR took 2nd Place in the
OKC Pride Parade
for Best Float!

Attendance at the dinner was estimated at 200, VIP reception attendance at 85.

A final event for the weekend was held at Fellowship Congregational Church on Sunday morning. The Interfaith Prayer Breakfast was co-hosted by TOHR and the Parish Church of St. Jerome. Turnout was good for the breakfast but, unfortunately, Congressman Frank had to leave Tulsa before the breakfast even started, due to a schedule change. The breakfast still allowed the faith communities of Tulsa to come together in a common pursuit.

Again, thank you to the entire Tulsa community for the support of this year's Pride events. If we continue to work together in this way, there is nothing that we can't accomplish.

Thank You's From the President

What can I say? This was an incredible year for Pride. So many people are responsible for so many things that took place during the weekend. I'm sure I will forget someone. If I do, please do not take it personally. Let me know and I will be sure to correct the omission.

First of all, I'd like to recognize the two people to whom awards were given at the Picnic:

TOHR Volunteer of the Year Award for 1998-99 was given to Tim Gillan. Tim has given so much to TOHR over the last year, that there was no question for the board in deciding this award. Thank you, Tim, for all your hard work.

TOHR Pride '99 Volunteer Appreciation Award was given to Jason Reed. Jason put in as much work as any individual to make sure that this year's Pride events were great and he was always willing to do more. Thanks, Jason, for your hard work on the flag, the float, the picnic and parade.

Now to the Pride events:

Thank you to Congressman Barney Frank for being our special guest at this year's events. Congressman Frank was brought the Pride celebration to a new level and provided an incredible draw.

Pride Parade chair Mitchell Savage and Pride Picnic chair

Rick Martin put in a lot of work over many months to make the events happen. I really appreciate everything the two of you did to make this year happen!

Paul Barby came in as chair of the Pride Dinner at a very late date and helped to organize a great evening. Thanks for all your hard work!

Father Rick Hollingsworth took over as chair of the Interfaith Prayer Breakfast less than a month before the event and organized an outstanding event. Your hard work is greatly appreciated!

Kris Kohl deserves so much recognition for organizing the entertainment for the Picnic. It was not an easy task, but Kris came through with style and flair. Thank you Kris!

TOHR Board Members Greg Gatewood and Kerry Lewis deserve a lot of credit for the work they put in on the Pride events this year. Without their efforts, a lot of things would not have gotten done, including the TOHR float. Thanks guys, for all the time and effort you put in. You went well above and beyond in everything that you did!

TOHR Board Members Lynn Mostoller, Kathy Dales and Ken Draper also gave a lot of themselves to make sure that everything went without a hitch. I appreciate all of your hard work!

Others making a tremendous contribution to the Picnic and Parade were (in no particular order): Robin Leach, Melody Wittman, Mark Barnard, Michael Davies, Troy McGoveran, Fernando Este, Mark Humes, Michael Smith, Kathy McKnight, B. J. Medley and Walt Rockabrand.

Another set of people were instrumental in pulling off the Dinner: Martha Hardwick, Jack Wallace, Ken Southard, Mitchell Savage and Terry Gatewood.

Thank you to the members of the Council Oak Men's Chorale. Your participation in every phase of this year's Pride events went above and beyond what was expected.

Other contributors to this year's events included: Triangle, Tulsa Family News, The Storm and Pepsi-Cola/Dr. Pepper Bottling Co. of Tulsa

The Pride Picnic and Parade would not have been successful without the help of our sponsors for this year. Bud Light, as our rainbow sponsor, provided so much to make this year's event a success. Our other corporate sponsors were: Cimarron Alliance, Council Oak Men's Chorale, MCC United, PFLAG Tulsa, and Parish Church of St. Jerome.

Again, thank you to all that helped with this year's Pride. Without your help, it would not have happened.

Congressman Frank Has Much to Say

Congressman Barney Frank spoke at both the Pride Picnic and the Black-Tie (optional) Dinner that followed on Saturday evening. Congressman Frank had much to say at both events. but there are a couple of points that are most important. First of all, he made the point at both events that the one thing of utmost importance is that we all be registered to vote, first of all, and that we follow through and actually vote in every election. That is the way that we make our voices heard most effectively. And the voting doesn't just count once every other year or every four years. We have to vote in each and every election from the City Council all the way to the Presidency.

The second point is very much related to the first. We must become active participants in the legislative process. We have to be organized and actively contact our legislators and other elected officials. Other groups, including the National Rifle Association (NRA) and the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) have already recognized this importance and are know for organizing and executing effective letter-writing and phone call campaigns to influence legislation. Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender people have the same ability and opportunity to effect change in the country. If we all work together, along with our family and friends, we can change the oppressive attitude in this country.

Now is the time for the GLBT Community in Tulsa to pull together. TOHR is an organization serving the entire community regardless of any differences. By working together, we can change the attitudes in Tulsa, the state of Oklahoma and the United States; we can improve our Community Center and provide service to the entire community; we can fight for equal rights for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender people. Please work with TOHR by joining us in our fight for equal, not special, rights.

Men Attracted to Men

A psychology doctoral student who is studying at the Illinois School of Professional Psychology is conducting a research project and needs your help. He is investigating the attitudes and feelings of gay men toward their appearance and body. This project is intended to help gain a better understanding of the role of appearance and body image in lives of gay men. This study is his doctoral dissertation. He is asking self-identified gay males who are at least 18 years of age, to participate in his study. Complete confidentiality is assured.

Should you decide to participate, you will be mailed a demographic information sheet and 4 additional short questionnaires which will take about 25 minutes to complete. Participants in the project will have the opportunity to have their names entered into a raffle to win $100 for their time. However, you should understand that you will receive no guaranteed financial benefit from this research. Upon completion of the project, a summary of the results will be made available to individual participants, if they so desire. The directions to obtain the results are included in the survey package.
