
IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

DECEMBER 23, 1890.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. TURPIE, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany H. R. 12395.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill granting a pension to Mrs. E. J. Baldy, widow of W. H. Baldy, of Spaulding County, Ga., late a private in the Creek Indian war of 1836, have examined the same and report:

That, from the facts stated in the House report, which is hereto attached and approved, we believe this to be a meritorious measure, and therefore recommend its passage.

[House Report No. 3266, Fifty-first Congress, second session.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 12395) granting a pension to Mrs. E. J. Baldy, have considered the same and report:

The claimant's late husband, William H. Baldy, was a private in Capt. Elijah Byne's company of Maj. J. C. Alford's battalion, Second Brigade Georgia Volunteers, and served for three months and twenty-one days in the Creek Indian war of 1836.

It is reliably shown that Mrs. Baldy lost all her possessions by the results of the late war, except a dwelling house of but little value. Since 1868 the family has been greatly afflicted. Two of the children are now in the insane asylum and another is totally blind. Mrs. Baldy (who resides at Griffin, Ga.) is eighty years of age and almost helpless. The family has no income and is dependent upon others for support. Mrs. Baldy has been a widow since before the war; she is a very worthy woman.

Your committee believe this case to be very meritorious, and the bill is therefore returned with a favorable recommendation.

Amend so as to allow a pension at $20 per month.
