DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, D. C., January 26, 1871.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit herewith, for the consideration and action of Congress, under the provision of the 4th section of the act of 15th July, 1870, making appropriations for the Indian service, the claim of Bligh E. Wood for the value of two steers and one cow, belonging to him, and which were killed and made use of by the Yancton Sioux Indians in February, 1869.

The letter of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs in relation to said claim is also herewith transmitted.

Very respectfully,

C. DELANO,
Secretary.

Hon. JAMES G. BLAINE,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
Washington, D. C., January 6, 1871.

SIR: I have the honor to submit herewith, for your consideration and decision, the claim of Bligh E. Wood for a depredation by Yancton Indians upon his property on the 1st day of December, 1868. The claimant makes affidavit that a number of Yancton Indians killed and carried off two steers belonging to him, worth $25 a head; also, that on the 15th day of February, 1869, a Yancton Indian went into his cow-yard and killed a valuable cow worth $75. Claimant further says the chiefs in council agreed to pay for the cow, they to have her carcass, she being in good condition; that the carcass was delivered to, and made use of by them. P. H. Conger, late agent for the tribe, certifies that he knows the statement of Mr. Wood to be true, and the price put on the cattle to be reasonable; he also makes affidavit to the same effect on the 21st July, 1869. Frank Vasser testifies, under oath, August 3, 1869, that he was herder for Mr. Wood, and that two of his steers, worth $25 each, were killed and carried off by Yancton Indians, on the 1st of December, 1868. This man Vasser being present afterward when Agent Broatch made demand for satisfaction of the Indians in council, stated in presence of the chiefs that these two steers were not the property of Mr. Wood. Agent Broatch expresses no opinion upon the conflicting statements offered by him. The first statement is the only one which appears to have been made under oath.

The Indians acknowledge the claim for the cow to be good, and are willing to pay for it, but deny that any of their people killed the steers. Although the testimony of Frank Vasser, under oath in 1869, may be doubted and have but little weight, because of his subsequent contrary evidence, yet I think the testimony of late Agent Conger sustains the charge. Governor Burbank, ex-officio superintendent of Indian affairs, recommends the payment of the claim. In my judgment it should be allowed in the sum of $125, and I respectfully submit that it be laid before Congress, with a request for a special appropriation therefor, under the 4th section of the act making appropriation for the Indian Department, approved July 15, 1870.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

E. S. PARKER,
Commissioner.

Hon. C. DELANO,
Secretary of the Interior.
