By the act making appropriations for the naval service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1883, and for other purposes.

For the pay of the Navy, for the active-list, namely: For one Admiral, one Vice-Admiral, twelve rear-admirals, eight chiefs of bureaus, twenty-four commodores, forty-nine captains, eighty-nine commanders, eighty lieutenant-commanders, two hundred and eighty lieutenants, one hundred and one masters, one hundred ensigns, eighty-two midshipmen, fifteen medical directors, fourteen medical inspectors, fifty surgeons, seventy-nine passed assistant surgeons, ten assistant surgeons, two assistant surgeons not in the line of promotion, who shall, after fifteen years' service, be entitled to receive, as annual pay, when at sea, $2,100; when on shore duty, $1,800, and when on leave or waiting orders, $1,600; twelve pay directors, thirteen pay inspectors, fifty paymasters, thirty passed assistant paymasters, twenty assistant paymasters, sixty-nine chief engineers, one hundred passed assistant engineers, thirty-five assistant engineers, seventy-three cadet-engineers (graduates), twenty-four chaplains, twelve professors of mathematics, ten naval constructors, seven assistant naval constructors, ten civil engineers, one hundred and ninety-one warrant-officers, forty-one mates, two hundred and one cadet-midshipmen (on probation), one hundred and two cadet-engineers, one hundred and thirty cadet-midshipmen (not graduates); in all

Provided, That hereafter there shall be no appointments of cadet-midshipmen or cadet-engineers at the Naval Academy, but in lieu thereof naval cadets shall be appointed from each Congressional district, and at large, as now provided by law for cadet-midshipmen, and all the undergraduates at the Naval Academy shall hereafter be designated and called "naval cadets," and from those who successfully complete the six years' course appointments shall hereafter be made as it is necessary to fill vacancies in the lower grades of the line and Engineer Corps of the Navy and of the Marine Corps: And provided further, That no greater number of appointments into these grades shall be made each year than shall equal the number of vacancies which has occurred in the same grades during the preceding year; such appointments to be made from the graduates of the year, at the conclusion of their six years' course, in the order of merit, as determined by the academic board of the Naval Academy; the assignment to the various corps to be made by the Secretary of the Navy upon the recommendation of the academic board. But nothing herein contained shall reduce the number of appointments from such graduates below ten in each year, nor deprive of such appointment any graduate who may complete the six years' course during the year 1882. And if there be a surplus of graduates, those who do not receive such appointment shall be given a certificate of graduation, an honorable discharge, and one year's sea pay, as now provided by law for cadet-midshipmen; and so much of section 1521 of the Revised Statutes as is inconsistent herewith is hereby repealed.

That any cadet whose position in his class entitles him to be retained in the service may, upon his own application, be honorably discharged at the end of four years' course at the Naval Academy, with a proper certificate of graduation.

That the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe a special course of study and training at home or abroad for any naval cadet.

That the pay of naval cadets shall be that now allowed by law to cadet-midshipmen; and as much of the money hereby appropriated as may be necessary during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1883, shall be expended for that purpose.

That the active list of the medical corps of the Navy shall hereafter consist of fifteen medical directors, fifteen medical inspectors, fifty surgeons, and ninety assistant and passed assistant surgeons.

That the active list of the pay corps of the Navy shall hereafter consist of thirteen pay directors, thirteen pay inspectors, forty paymasters, twenty passed assistant paymasters, and ten assistant paymasters.

That the active list of the engineer corps of the Navy shall hereafter consist of ten chief engineers with the relative rank of captain, fifteen chief engineers with the relative rank of commander, forty-five chief engineers with the relative rank of lieutenant-commander or lieutenant, sixty passed assistant engineers, and forty assistant engineers, with the relative rank for each as now fixed by law; and after the number of officers in the said grades shall be reduced as above provided, the number in each grade shall not exceed the reduced number which is fixed by the provisions of this act for the several grades.

That no officer now in the service shall be reduced in rank or deprived of his commission by reason of any provision of this act reducing the number of officers in the several staff corps: Provided, That no further appointments of cadet-engineers shall be made by the Secretary of the Navy under section 3 of the act of 1874.

That as vacancies shall occur in any of the grades of the medical, pay, and engineer corps of the Navy, no promotion shall be made to fill the same until the number in said grade shall be reduced below the number which is fixed by the provisions of this act for such grade.

For pay of the retired list, namely: For forty-two rear-admirals, twenty commodores, twelve captains, ten commanders, fifteen lieutenant-commanders, eight lieutenants, eleven masters, five ensigns, two midshipmen, twenty-two medical directors, two medical inspectors, two surgeons, five passed assistant surgeons, seven assistant surgeons, nine pay directors, two pay inspectors, three paymasters, two passed assistant paymasters, one assistant paymaster, nine chief engineers, nineteen passed assistant engineers, twenty-five assistant engineers, nine chaplains, seven professors of mathematics, three naval constructors, ten boatswains, five gunners, thirteen carpenters, and ten sailmakers; in all 697,925 00

Hereafter only one-half of the vacancies in the various grades in the line of the Navy shall be filled by promotion until such grades shall be reduced to the following numbers, namely: rear-admirals, six; commodores, ten; captains, forty-five; commanders, eighty-five; lieutenant-commanders, seventy-four; lieutenants, two hundred and fifty; masters, seventy-five; ensigns, seventy-five; and thereafter promotions to all vacancies shall be made, but not to increase either of said grades above the numbers aforesaid. Hereafter there shall be no promotion or increase of pay in the retired list of the Navy, but the rank and pay of officers on the retired list shall be the same that they are when such officers shall be retired: And provided further, That whenever on an inquiry had pursuant to law, concerning the fitness of an officer of the Navy for promotion, it shall appear that such officer is unfit to perform at sea the duties of the place to which it is proposed to promote him, by reason of drunkenness, or from any cause arising from his own misconduct, and having been informed of and heard upon the charges against him, he shall not be placed on the retired list of the Navy; and if the finding of the board be approved by the President, he shall be discharged with not more than one year's pay.

For pay to petty officers, seamen, ordinary seamen, landsmen, and boys, including men in the engineers' force, and for the Coast Survey service, not exceeding eight thousand two hundred and fifty in all 2,490,000 00

For two secretaries, one to the Admiral and one to the Vice-Admiral, clerks to paymasters, clerks at inspections, navy-yards, and stations, and extra pay to men enlisted under honorable discharge; commission and interest, transportation of funds, exchange, mileage to officers while traveling under orders in the United States, and for actual personal expenses of officers while traveling abroad under orders; and officers of the Navy traveling abroad under orders hereafter issued shall travel by the most direct route, the occasion and necessity for such order to be certified by the officer issuing the same; and shall receive, in lieu of the mileage now allowed by law, only their actual and reasonable expenses, certified under their own signatures and approved by the Secretary of the Navy; and for the payment of any such officers as may be in service, either upon the active or retired list, during the year ending June 30, 1883, in excess of the numbers of each class provided for in this act, and for any increase of pay arising from different duty, as the needs of the service may require 300,000 00

And all officers of the Navy shall be credited with the actual time they may have served as officers or enlisted men in the regular or volunteer Army or Navy, or both, and shall receive all the benefits of such actual service in all respects in the same manner as if all said service had been continuous and in the regular Navy. Provided, That nothing in this clause shall be so construed as to authorize any change in the dates of commission or in the relative rank of such officers. And should the sums appropriated for the pay of the officers on the active and retired lists of the Navy be insufficient, then and in that case, the Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized to use any and all balances which may be due or become due to "pay of the Navy," from the other bureaus of the department, for that purpose.

Provided, That no part of this sum shall be applied to the repairs of any wooden ship when the estimated cost of such repairs shall exceed 30 per centum of the estimated cost of a new ship of the same size and like material: Provided, Nothing herein contained shall deprive the Secretary of the authority to order repairs of ships damaged in foreign waters or on the high seas, so far as may be necessary to bring them home. Any portion of said sum not required for the purposes aforesaid may be applied toward the construction of two steam cruising vessels of war, which are hereby authorized, at a total cost, when fully completed, not to exceed the amount estimated by the late Naval Advisory Board for such vessels, the same to be constructed of steel, of domestic manufacture, having as near as may be a tensile strength of not less than sixty thousand pounds to the square inch, and a ductility in eight inches of not less than 25 per centum; said vessel to be provided with full sail-power and full steam-power. One of said vessels shall be of not less than five thousand nor more than six thousand tons displacement, and shall have the highest attainable speed, and shall be adapted to be armed with not more than four breech-loading rifled cannon, of high power, of not less than eight-inch caliber, or two of ten-inch caliber, and not more than twenty-one breech-loading rifled cannon, of high power, of not less than six-inch caliber; one of said vessels shall be of not less than four thousand three hundred nor more than four thousand seven hundred tons displacement, and shall have the highest attainable speed, and shall be adapted to be armed with four breech-loading rifled cannon, of high power, of not less than eight-inch caliber, or two of ten-inch caliber, and not more than fifteen breech-loading rifled cannon, of high power, of not less than six-inch caliber. The Secretary of the Navy is hereby empowered and directed to organize a board of naval officers and experts for his advice and assistance, to be called the "Naval Advisory Board," to serve during the period required for the construction, armament, and trial of the vessels hereby authorized to be constructed, and no longer. Said board shall consist of five officers on the active list of the Navy in the line and the staff, to be detailed by the Secretary of the Navy, without reference to rank and with reference only to character, experience, knowledge, and skill, and two persons of established reputation and standing, as experts in naval or marine construction, to be selected from civil life, and employed for this sole duty by the Secretary of the Navy, and to be paid such sum, out of the appropriation hereby made, not exceeding $11,000, as he may direct: Provided, however, That no person shall be a member of said board who has any interest, direct or indirect, in any invention, device, or process, patented or otherwise, to be used in the construction of said vessels, their engines, boilers, or armament, nor in any contract for the same. It shall be the duty of said board to advise and assist the Secretary of the Navy, in his office or elsewhere, in all matters referred to them by him relative to the designs, models, plans, specifications, and contracts for said vessels in all their parts, and relative to the materials to be used therein and to the construction thereof, and especially relative to the harmonious adjustment, respectively, of their hulls, machinery, and armament; and they shall examine all materials to be used in said vessels, and inspect the work on the same as it progresses, and have general supervision thereof, under the direction of said Secretary. But said board shall have no power to make or enter into any contract, nor to direct or control any officer of the Navy, the chief of any bureau of the Navy, or any contractor. Neither of the vessels hereby authorized to be built shall be contracted for or commenced until full and complete detail drawings and specifications thereof, in all its parts, including the hull, engines, and boilers, shall have been provided or adopted by the Navy Department, and shall have been approved, in writing, by said board, or by a majority of the members thereof, and by the Secretary of the Navy; and after said drawings and specifications have been provided, adopted, and approved as aforesaid, and the work has been commenced or a contract made for it, they shall not be changed in any respect, when the cost of such change shall in the construction exceed $500, except upon the approval of said board, or a majority of the members thereof, in writing, and upon the written order of the Secretary of the Navy; and, if changes are thus made, the actual cost thereof and the damage caused thereby shall be ascertained, estimated, and determined by said board; and in any contract made pursuant to this act it shall be provided in the terms thereof that the contractor shall be bound by the determination of said board, or a majority thereof, as to the amount of the increased or diminished compensation said contractor shall be entitled to receive, if any, in consequence of such change or changes. The Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized to cause the said cruising vessels of war aforesaid to be provided with interior defective steel armor, if the same, upon full investigation, shall seem to be practicable and desirable, and if the same shall be approved by said board, or a majority thereof, in writing. Before any of the vessels hereby authorized shall be contracted for or commenced, the Secretary of the Navy shall by proper public advertisement and notice, invite all engineers and mechanics of established reputation, and all reputable manufacturers of vessels, steam-engines, boilers, and ordnance, having or controlling regular establishments, and being engaged in the business, all officers of the Navy, and especially all naval constructors, steam engineers, and ordnance officers of the Navy, having plans, models, or designs of any vessels of the classes hereby authorized, or of any part thereof, within any given period, not less than sixty days, to submit the same to said board; and it shall be the duty of said board to carefully and fully examine the same and to hear any proper explanation thereof, and to report to the Secretary of the Navy, in writing, whether, in their opinion, any such plan, model, or design, or any suggestion therein, is worthy of adoption in the construction of said vessels, their engines, boilers, or armament; and if in such construction any such plan, model, design, or suggestion shall be adopted, for the use of which any citizen not an officer of the Navy would have a just claim for compensation, the contractor shall bind himself to discharge the government from all liability on account of such adoption and use: Provided, That said Naval Advisory Board herein provided for shall, under the direction of the Secretary of the Navy, prepare plans, drawings, and specifications for vessels, their machinery, and armament, recommended by the late Naval Advisory Board not herein authorized to be built.

That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy, as soon as may be after the passage of this act, to cause an account to be taken of the stock of stores and supplies pertaining and belonging to the several bureaus of the Navy Department, in which account shall be stated the original cost of each article and the date of purchase, so far as the same is known, and cause an appraisal of the present value of such stores and supplies to be made and entered in such account; and said appraised value, when so entered, shall hereafter be the price at which they shall be charged in accounting with the several bureaus. Such appraisal shall be made by boards of officers of the Navy to be designated by the Secretary; and all such stores and supplies as shall be found by boards of appraisers to be unserviceable for use in the Navy shall be condemned and sold in the manner hereinafter provided for the sale of old materials, and the proceeds thereof, after deducting the cost of such appraisal, condemnation, and sale, shall be paid into the Treasury. And no old material of the Navy shall hereafter be sold or exchanged by the Secretary of the Navy, or by any officer of the Navy, which can be profitably used by reworking or otherwise in the construction or repair of vessels, their machinery, armor, armament, or equipment; but the same shall be stored and preserved for future use. And when any such old material cannot be profitably used as aforesaid, the same shall be appraised and sold at public auction after public notice and advertisement shall have been given according to law under such rules and regulations and in such manner as the said Secretary may direct. The net proceeds arising from the sales of such old materials shall be paid into the Treasury. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy annually to report in detail to Congress, in his annual report, the proceeds of all sales of materials, stores, and supplies, made under the provisions of this act, and the expenses attending such sales. It shall also be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy, as soon as may be after the passage of this act, to cause to be examined by competent boards of officers of the Navy, to be designated by him for that duty, all vessels belonging to the Navy not in actual service at sea, and vessels at sea as soon as practicable after they shall return to the United States, and hereafter all vessels on their return from foreign stations, and all vessels in the United States as often as once in three years, when practicable; and said boards shall ascertain and report to the Secretary of the Navy, in writing, which of said vessels are unfit for further service, or, if the same are unfinished in any navy-yard, those which cannot be finished without great and disproportionate expense, and shall in such report state fully the grounds and reasons for their opinion. And it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy, if he shall concur in opinion with said report, to strike the name of such vessel or vessels from the Navy Register and report the same to Congress.

No officer of the Navy whose pay is appropriated for in this bill shall be employed on any shore duty after October 1, 1882, unless the Secretary of the Navy shall determine that the employment of an officer on such duty is required by the public interests, and shall so state in the order of employment, and also the duration of such service, beyond which time it shall not continue.

That the Secretaries, respectively, of the Departments of State, of the Treasury, War, Navy, and of the Interior, and the Attorney-General, are authorized to make requisitions upon the Postmaster-General for the necessary amount of official postage-stamps for the use of their departments, not exceeding the amount stated in the estimates submitted to Congress; and upon presentation of proper vouchers therefor at the Treasury, the amount thereof shall be credited to the appropriation for the service of the Post-Office Department for the same fiscal year.

That the pay of assistant messengers, firemen, watchmen, and laborers provided for in this act, unless otherwise specially stated, shall be as follows: For assistant messengers, firemen, and watchmen, $720 per annum each; for laborers, $660 per annum each.

That no civil officer, clerk, draughtsman, copyist, messenger, assistant messenger, mechanic, watchman, laborer or other employé shall after the first day of October next be employed in any of the executive departments, or subordinate bureaus or offices thereof at the seat of government, except only at such rates and in such numbers, respectively, as may be specifically appropriated for by Congress for such clerical and other personal services for each fiscal year; and no civil officer, clerk, draughtsman, copyist, messenger, assistant messenger, mechanic watchman, laborer, or other employé shall hereafter be employed at the seat of government in any executive department or subordinate bureau or office thereof or be paid from any appropriation made for contingent expenses, or for any specific or general purpose, unless such employment is authorized and payment therefor specifically provided in the law granting the appropriation, and then only for services actually rendered in connection with and for the purposes of the appropriation from which payment is made, and at the rate of compensation usual and proper for such services, and after the first day of October next section 172 of the Revised Statutes, and all other laws and parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this act, and all laws and parts of laws authorizing the employment of officers, clerks, draughtsmen, copyists, messengers, assistant messengers, mechanics, watchmen, laborers, or other employés at a different rate of pay or in excess of the numbers authorized by appropriations made by Congress, be, and they are hereby, repealed; and thereafter all details of civil officers, clerks, or other subordinate employés from places outside of the District of Columbia, for duty within the District of Columbia, except temporary details for duty connected with their respective offices, be, and are hereby, prohibited; and thereafter all moneys accruing from lapsed salaries, or from unused appropriations for salaries, shall be covered into the Treasury: Provided,

That the sums herein specifically appropriated for clerical or other force heretofore paid for out of general or specific appropriations may be used by the several heads of departments to pay such force until the said several heads of departments shall have adjusted the said force in accordance with the provisions of this act; and such adjustment shall be effected before October 1, 1882. And in making such adjustment the employés herein provided for shall, as far as may be consistent with the interests of the service, be apportioned among the several States and Territories according to population: Provided further, That any person performing duty in any capacity as officer, clerk, or otherwise in any department at the date of the passage of this act who has heretofore been paid from any appropriation made for contingent expenses or for any contingent or general purpose, and whose office or place is specifically provided for herein, under the direction of the head of that department may be continued in such office, clerkship, or employment without a new appointment thereto, but shall be charged to the quotas of the several States and Territories from which they are respectively appointed and nothing herein shall be construed to repeal or modify section 166 of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

That from and after the 1st day of July, 1882, and of each year thereafter, the Secretary of the Treasury shall cause all unexpended balances of the permanent and indefinite appropriations for collecting the revenue from customs which shall have remained upon the books of the Treasury for two fiscal years to be carried to the surplus fund and covered into the Treasury. And it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to include in his next estimates to Congress, and annually thereafter, a statement specifying in detail the number and class of officers and employés of every grade and nature, with the rate of compensation to each, that may in his judgment be necessary to properly conduct the business of collecting the revenue at each port of entry in the United States, together with an estimate of the amounts required for contingent expenses at each of said ports, and for such additional expenses of the service as cannot be otherwise specifically provided for.

That so much of the funds appropriated by this act for the contingent expenses of the Surgeon-General's and the Adjutant-General's offices respectively as are or may be necessary to provide stationery, blank-books, furniture, and other articles for the use of the clerks and others engaged in those offices on work relating to the settlement of applications for pensions, may be used, all or in part, under the orders of the Secretary of War, in either of said offices as in his judgment the best interests of the service may require.

The fourth story and attic of the south wing of the State, War, and Navy building, except such portion as is now within the library of the State Department, are assigned to the War Department for such uses of the department as in the judgment of the Secretary of War they may be best fitted, and the sum of $1,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated, out of any money not otherwise appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of State, to enable the depart-

SIGNAL SERVICE.

For the observation and report of storms: For expenses of the observation and report of storms by telegraph and signal for the benefit of commerce and agriculture throughout the United States; for manufacture, purchase, and repair of meteorological and other necessary instruments for telegraphing reports; for expenses of storm-signals announcing the probable approach and force of storms; for continuing the establishment and connections of stations at life-saving stations and light-houses; for instrument shelters; for hire, furniture, and expenses of offices maintained for public use in cities and ports receiving reports; for river reports; for maps and bulletins to be displayed in chambers of commerce and boards of trade rooms, and for distribution; for books, periodicals, newspapers, and stationery; and for incidental expenses not otherwise provided for	280,000 00

Provided, That the work of no other department, bureau, or commission authorized by law shall be duplicated by this bureau: Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall restrict the performance of all duties of the Signal Service Bureau prescribed by existing laws.

For the construction, maintenance, and repair of military telegraph lines: For the construction and continuing the construction, maintenance, and use of military telegraph lines on the Indian and Mexican frontiers and in the Northwest; for the connection of military posts and stations, and for the better protection of immigration and the frontier settlements from depredations, especially in the States of Texas and Nevada and the Territories of New Mexico, Arizona, Dakota, Washington, Montana, Idaho, and Wyoming, and the Indian Territory, under the provisions of the acts approved March 3, 1875, and June 20, 1878	40,000 00

Provided, That the construction of new lines of telegraph shall be under the supervision and direction of the several military commanders, subject to the approval of the Secretary of War.

And it is provided that to support the Signal Service no money shall be expended except such as is appropriated by this act and the act making appropriations for the legislative, executive, and judicial expenses of the government for the fiscal year 1883, and such sums as are specifically appropriated for said service in the act making appropriations for the support of the Army for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1883, and for other purposes; and the further sum of $300,000, payable from the respective appropriations in said last-named act, similar to those heretofore drawn upon for its support, which sum, or so much thereof as may be necessary, the Secretary of War may apply to the support of said service from said appropriations: and it is further provided that at the next session of Congress the Secretary of War shall submit to Congress a detailed statement of the force required for the Signal Service for the fiscal year commencing July 1, 1883, of the officers and other employes that will be necessary, and their compensation, respectively, and the amount that should be appropriated for labor when the employes cannot be specifically estimated for, and for material, and for rent of offices, and for any other objects that he may deem necessary, each separately stated.

That hereafter the appropriations for "observation and report of storms," and for the Signal Service, shall be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War.

And this sum shall be expended at such places on said headwaters of the Mississippi River and its tributaries as the Secretary of War shall determine: Provided , That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and empowered to enter upon, purchase, take, and hold any lands or premises, and any materials of stone, timber, or other kinds, that may be necessary and proper for the construction of said works. And in case the owner of such lands, premises, and materials and the Secretary of War cannot agree as to the value of the lands, premises, and materials taken or to be taken for said use, then the value thereof shall be determined by the appraisal of three disinterested commissioners, who may be appointed upon application by either party to the judge of the United States district court for the district in which such land, premises, or materials may be situate; and said commissioners, in their assessment of damages, shall appraise such lands, premises, and materials at what would have been the value thereof if said works had not been constructed, and upon return into said United States district court of such appraisement and upon the payment into the same of the estimated value of said land, premises, and materials so taken and appraised as aforesaid, said land, premises, and materials shall be deemed to be, and shall become, the property of the United States, which shall thereby acquire full title to the same. And either party feeling aggrieved at said appraisement may, within thirty days after the same has been returned into said court, file an appeal therefrom and demand a trial by jury in said court to estimate and ascertain the damages sustained: Provided further , That the money hereby appropriated shall be used solely for the improvement of the navigation of the Mississippi River and its tributaries, and no part thereof shall be expended with the view to the improvement of private property. And the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and directed to ascertain what, if any, injury is occasioned to the rights of any friendly Indians occupying any Indian reservation by the construction of any of the said dams, or the cutting or removing of trees or other materials from any such reservation for the construction or erection of any of said dams, and to determine the amount of damages payable to such Indians therefor; and all such damages to private property and to friendly Indians, when ascertained and determined in the manner herein directed and provided, shall be paid by the United States: Provided, however , That such damages shall not exceed 10 per centum of the sums hereby appropriated for the construction of said reservoirs.

For continuing the practical test of the flume invented by M. J. Adams, the said test to be made under the supervision and direction of said Adams	8,000 00
That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to survey and locate a canal from a point on the Illinois River at or near the town of Hennepin, by the most practicable and convenient route, to the Mississippi River at or above the city of Rock Island, with a branch canal or feeder from the most practicable and convenient point on Rock River to the most practicable and convenient point on the main line of said canal. Said canal and said branch shall not be less than 70 feet wide at the water-line, and not less than 7 feet in depth of water, with locks not less than 150 feet in length and 21 feet in width, and with a capacity for vessels of at least 280 tons burden; and for that purpose the Secretary of War shall have power and authority, by engineers and agents employed by him, to enter upon any lands for the purpose of making the necessary preliminary examinations and surveys; and the cost of construction, the annual cost of maintenance, and economy of use of said canal, when completed, shall be estimated and accompany the said surveys; and the Secretary of War shall cause to be made by skillful engineers of the Army a survey of the Illinois and Michigan Canal connecting the Illinois River with Lake Michigan at Chicago, and estimates of the cost of enlarging the same so as to correspond in dimensions with the proposed canal between Hennepin and the Mississippi River, and to report to the next session of Congress the cost of enlarging said canal, and the construction of the canal between Hennepin and the Mississippi River and the right of way therefor; and for the purposes of this paragraph the sum of	30,000 00
Or such much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated. Provided , That nothing herein shall be construed to commit the government to proceed with the construction of the said improvement.
Improving Mississippi River: That the sum of $4,123,000 be, and is hereby, appropriated, or so much thereof as may be necessary, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the improvement of the Mississippi River from the Head of the Passes to Cairo, including the harbors of New Orleans, Natchez, Vicksburg, Memphis, a lock at the mouth of Bayou Plaquemine, Louisiana, and the rectification of the Red and the Atchafalaya Rivers at the mouth of Red River; $600,000 from Cairo to the Illinois River, including Alton Harbor, on which a sum not exceeding $35,000 shall be expended; and $200,000 from the Illinois River to the Des Moines Rapids, including a stone and brush revetment at or near Quincy; which said sums shall be expended by the Secretary of War in accordance with the plans, specifications, estimates, and recommendations of the Mississippi River Commission, created by the act approved June 28, 1879, or according to such plans, specifications, and estimates of the Engineer Department of the Army which, having been approved by the Secretary of War, may be adopted by the said Mississippi River Commission for such parts of the said river as the said commission may not have completed the survey of	4,923,000 00
Provided , That no portion of this appropriation shall be expended to repair or build levees for the purpose of reclaiming lands or preventing injury to lands by overflows: Provided, however , That the commission is authorized to repair and build levees if in their judgment it should be done as a part of their plan to afford ease and safety to the navigation and commerce of the river and to deepen the channel: Provided , That the Secretary of War shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary to secure a judicious and economical expenditure of said sums, and shall cause to be made and submitted to Congress annual reports, on or before January 1, giving detailed statements of the work done, the expenditures made, and the effect of such work, together with such recommendations as he may deem it proper to lay before Congress. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to apply the money herein appropriated for improvements, other than surveys and estimates, in carrying on the various works, as far as can be without actual detriment to the interest of the government, by contract. Where such works cannot be done by contract without injury to the public interest, they may be prosecuted by hired labor. Where said works are done by contract, such contract shall be made after sufficient public advertisement for proposals, in such manner and form as the Secretary of War shall prescribe; and such contracts shall be made with the lowest responsible bidders, accompanied by such securities as the Secretary of War shall require, conditioned for the faithful prosecution of the work according to such contract, and for the proper payment of all liabilities incurred in the prosecution thereof for labor and material.
That whatever balance there may be on hand for the improvement of the mouth of Red River shall be expended by the Secretary of War according to the plans and recommendations of the Mississippi River Commission; and they are hereby authorized to expend so much of said balance as may be necessary in purchasing or constructing a dredge boat or boats, and in maintaining a navigable channel through the mouth of the Red River into the Mississippi River.

That the power and authority granted to the Secretary of War under and by virtue of section 4 of the act of Congress approved June 14, 1880, relating to wrecks and sunken vessels be, and the same are hereby, enlarged so that the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, sell and dispose of any such sunken craft, vessel, or cargo, or property therein, before the raising or removal thereof, according to the same regulations that are in the said act prescribed for the sale of the same after the removal thereof; and all laws and parts of laws inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

That no tolls or operating charges whatsoever shall be levied or collected upon any vessel, boats, dredges, craft, or other water-craft passing through any canal or other work for the improvement of navigation belonging to the United States.

That authority is hereby given to the Secretary of War to expend the money appropriated by the act approved March 3, 1879, in the construction of a harbor of refuge at Port Orford, on the Pacific coast, if in his opinion it be deemed judicious to do so.

That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized and directed to settle the claims of Charles McCafferty and D. and C. P. Dull, contractors for locks numbered 4 and 5 on the Great Kanawha River, under contracts made in 1874 and 1875, and subsequently for work done by reason of changes in the contracts and for losses caused by such changes, and by extra work and other losses incurred from such and other causes beyond their control, and report what amount, if any, he finds to be due to said contractors at the next session of Congress.

That the unexpended sums heretofore appropriated for an ice-harbor at Saint Louis, Mo., be, and the same are hereby, transferred and appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War, for the improvement of the channel of the Mississippi River opposite the city of Saint Louis, Mo., by repairing and raising the present low dam across the channel east of Arsenal Island, known as Cahokia Chute, and by the construction of such other works in or near said Cahokia Chute as may be deemed advisable to accomplish the same purpose.

That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, directed to ascertain and report to the next Congress upon what terms the franchise and property of the Little Kanawha Navigation Company, in West Virginia, can be obtained and conveyed to the United States.

 constituting the contingency, he may direct that purchases may be made in open market in amount not exceeding $3,000.

That so much of the appropriations herein made as may be required to pay for goods and supplies, and for transportation of the same, for the year ending June 30, 1883, shall be immediately available; but no such goods or supplies shall be distributed or delivered to any of said Indians prior to July 1, 1882, and the Secretary of the Interior, under the direction of the President, may use any surplus that may remain in any of the said appropriations herein made for the purchase of subsistence for the several Indian tribes, to an amount not exceeding $25,000 in the aggregate, to supply any subsistence deficiency that may occur: Provided, however, That funds appropriated to fulfill treaty obligations shall not be so used: And provided further, That any diversions which shall be made under authority of this section shall be reported in detail, and the reasons therefor, to Congress, at the session of Congress next succeeding such diversion.

That when not required for the purpose for which appropriated, the funds herein provided for the pay of specified employes at any agency may be used by the Secretary of the Interior for the pay of other employes at such agency, but no deficiency shall be thereby created, and, when necessary, specified employes may be detailed for other service when not required for the duty for which they were engaged; and that the several appropriations herein made for millers, blacksmiths, engineers, carpenters, physicians, and other persons, and for various articles provided by treaty stipulation for the several Indian tribes, may be diverted to other uses for the benefit of the said tribes respectively, within the discretion of the President, and with the consent of said tribes, expressed in the usual manner; and that he cause report to be made to Congress, at its next session thereafter of his action under this provision.

That the President may, in his discretion, consolidate two or more agencies into one, and where Indians are located on reservations created by executive order he may, with the consent of the tribes to be affected thereby, expressed in the usual manner, consolidate one or more tribes, and abolish such agencies as are thereby rendered unnecessary; and preference shall at all times, as far as practicable, be given to Indians in the employment of clerical, mechanical, and other help on reservations and about agencies.

That it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to cause to be compiled and printed for the use of Indian agents and inspectors the provisions of the statutes regulating the performance of their respective duties, and also to furnish said officers from time to time information of new enactments upon the same subject.

That the Secretary of the Interior shall cause such Indians as are now being subsisted, in whole or in part, by appropriations not required in discharge of treaty obligations to be notified that he will recommend to Congress, at its next session, a diminution of such appropriation, and that in consequence thereof their future support will depend more upon their own exertions.

II.—NEW OFFICES CREATED AND THE SALARIES THEREOF.

(Prepared in the office of the Secretary of the Senate.)

By the act (No. 19) to provide for certain of the most urgent deficiencies in the appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1882, and for other purposes.

PATENT OFFICE.

To enable the Secretary of the Interior to increase the clerical force of said office for the remainder of the current fiscal year $4,769 51 is appropriated: Provided, That the compensation of the additional clerks herein authorized shall not exceed a greater rate than $1,200 per annum for each clerk.

GENERAL LAND OFFICE.

To enable the Secretary of the Interior to increase the clerical force of the General Land Office for the remainder of the current fiscal year, twenty-five thousand dollars: Provided, That such additional force shall be employed to expedite the issue of patents to mineral, agricultural, and other land entries now in arrears, and at a compensation to be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior, but in no case at a rate greater than one thousand two hundred dollars per annum for each clerk.

SENATE.

To pay the clerk to the superintendent of the document room, under resolution of the Senate of December twenty-first, eighteen hundred and eighty-one, from the first day of January to the thirtieth day of June, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, at the rate of one thousand four hundred and forty dollars per annum, seven hundred and twenty dollars.

To pay the assistant clerk to the Committee on Pensions, under resolution of the Senate of January thirtieth, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, from the twentieth of February to the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, five hundred and twenty dollars.

To pay the seven messengers of the Senate, under resolution of the Senate of February fifteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, from February fifteenth to June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, at the rate of one thousand four hundred and forty dollars per annum, three thousand seven hundred and eighty dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

To enable the Clerk of the House to pay the second assistant doorkeeper of the House, under resolution of December 21, 1881, $1,059 78, or so much thereof as may be necessary.

By the act (No. 20) to establish a port of delivery at Denver, in the State of Colorado.

Denver, in the State of Colorado, is constituted a port of delivery, and there shall be appointed a surveyor of customs to reside at said port, who shall receive a salary to be determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, not exceeding $1,500 per annum.

By the act (No. 30) to amend section 5352 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, in reference to bigamy, and for other purposes.

All the registration and election offices of every description in the Territory of Utah are hereby declared vacant, and each and every duty relating to the registration of voters, the conduct of elections, the receiving or rejection of votes, and the canvassing and returning of the same, and the issuing of certificates or other evidence of election in said Territory, shall, until other provision be made by the legislative assembly of said Territory as is hereinafter by this section provided, be performed under the existing laws of the United States and of said Territory by proper persons, who shall be appointed to execute such offices and perform such duties by a board of five persons, to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, not more than three of whom shall be members of one political party, and a majority of whom shall be a quorum. The members of said board so appointed by the President shall each receive a salary at the rate of three thousand dollars per annum, and shall continue in office until the legislative assembly of said Territory shall make provision for filling said offices as herein authorized.

Under the act making appropriations for the legislative, executive, and judicial expenses of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1883, and for other purposes, approved August 5, 1882, the salaries of the members of the above-named board were increased to $5,000 per annum each.

By the act (No. 32) to create two additional land districts, and to change the boundaries of the Watertown land district in the Territory of Dakota.

All that part of the Territory of Dakota bounded as follows, to wit: Commencing at the southeast corner of township one hundred and nine north, range fifty-nine west of the fifth principal meridian; thence west along the second standard parallel north to the Missouri River; thence up and along the east bank of said river to a point where the fifth standard parallel north intersects said river; thence east along said standard parallel to the northwest corner of township one hundred and twenty north, range fifty-nine west; thence south to the southwest corner of township one hundred and thirteen north, range fifty-nine west; thence east to the southeast corner of said township; thence south to the place of beginning, be, and the same is hereby, constituted a new land district, the office of which shall be located at such place as shall be designated by the President of the United States. And all that part bounded as follows, to wit: Commencing at the northwest corner of township one hundred and twenty north, range fifty-nine west of the fifth principal meridian; thence west along the fifth standard parallel north to the Missouri River; thence up and along the east bank of said river to the south line of township one hundred and thirty north; thence east along said line to the northeast corner of township one hundred and twenty-nine north, range fifty-nine west; thence south to the southeast corner of township one hundred and twenty-nine north, range fifty-nine west; thence east along the seventh standard parallel north to the northwest corner of township one hundred and twenty-eight north, range fifty-nine west; thence south to the place of beginning, be, and the same is hereby, constituted a new land district, the office of which shall be located at such place as shall be designated by the President of the United States.

The registers and receivers authorized by the above act are to receive $500 per annum each, and fees.

By the act (No. 53) to amend section 2569 of the Revised Statutes, in relation to appraisers at the port of New Orleans, Louisiana.

One assistant appraiser is added at the port of New Orleans at a salary of $2,500, while one appraiser at a salary of $3,000 is discontinued.

By the act (No. 55) to establish distinct United States courts, with distinct officers, in the northern and southern judicial districts of the State of Georgia.

The President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint for the northern district in said State a district judge who shall have all the powers and perform all the duties held and performed by the other district judges of the courts of the United States, and shall receive a salary of three thousand five hundred dollars a year. And the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint a district attorney and marshal of said southern district, and when the term of the present district attorney and marshal hereby assigned to the northern district shall expire the President of the United States, by and with the consent of the Senate, shall appoint a district attorney and marshal for the said northern district, with the same powers and duties as in other cases, and with the same compensation and emoluments as are provided for the district attorney and marshal by existing laws for said districts.

By the act (No. 56) to amend sections 2586 and 2587 of the Revised Statutes of the United States by creating the collection district of Yaquina, in the State of Oregon, and authorizing the appointment of a collector therein.

There are in the State of Oregon and Territory of Washington five collection districts, the second being the district of Yaquina, to comprise all the waters and shores lying north and east of the north bank of the Siuslaw River to the north bank of the Salmon River, and west of the summit of the Cascade Range of mountains; in which Yaquina shall be the port of entry and Newport a port of delivery. In this district there shall be a collector, who shall reside at Yaquina, and who shall receive a salary of one thousand dollars a year, with the fees allowed by law, and a commission on all customs money collected and accounted for by him, such salary, fees, and commissions not to exceed the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars per year.

By the act (No. 63) to authorize the appointment of an ordnance storekeeper in the Army.

The President is authorized to nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint an ordnance storekeeper in the ordnance department of the Army with the rank of captain. No compensation is mentioned in the act.

By the act (No. 67) to promote the efficiency of the Life-Saving Service, and to encourage the saving of life from shipwreck.

There is created the twelfth district, embracing the coasts of California, Oregon, and Washington Territory, and with a superintendent at one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum.

By the act (No. 77) to provide for the appointment of a commission to investigate the question of the tariff.

A commission is created to be called the "Tariff Commission," to consist of nine members.

The President of the United States shall, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint nine commissioners from civil life, one of whom, the first named, shall be the president of the commission. The commissioners shall receive as compensation for their services each at the rate of ten dollars per day when engaged in active duty, and actual traveling and other necessary expenses.
