II.—OFFICERS CREATED AND THE SALARIES THEREOF.

By the act (Chap. V) to facilitate the discharge of disabled soldiers from the army and the inspection of convalescent camps, approved December 27, 1862.

There shall be added to the present medical corps of the army eight medical inspectors, with the rank, pay, and emoluments of a lieutenant colonel of cavalry.

By the act (Chap. XXII) to increase the clerical and other force of the Quartermaster General's office, and for other purposes, approved February 7, 1863.

There shall be added to the clerical and other force in the Quartermaster General's office, four clerks of class four, at $1,800 per annum each.

Ninety clerks of class one, at $1,200 per annum each.

Thirty copyists and six laborers, at an annual compensation of $600 each.

By the act (Chap. XXIII) to authorize the raising of a volunteer force for the better defence of Kentucky, approved February 7, 1863.

The governor of Kentucky is authorized, under the direction of the President, to raise and organize into regiments a volunteer force not exceeding twenty thousand rank and file, to serve for the term of twelve months within the limits of Kentucky. The regimental and company officers to be appointed by the State of Kentucky, to be entitled to pay when the regiments and companies are filled and in actual service; the officers and men to be placed upon the same footing as to pay and allowances, except bounty, as other volunteers in the service of the United States, while actually employed.

By the act (Chap. XXIX) to promote the efficiency of the commissary department, approved February 9, 1863.

There shall be added to the subsistence department of the army one brigadier general, who shall be commissary general of subsistence; one colonel and one lieutenant colonel, to be assistant commissaries general of subsistence; and two majors. The pay of these officers is not stated in the act.

By the act (Chap. XXXIV) to establish the office of register of deeds for the District of Columbia, approved February 14, 1863.

There shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a register of deeds for the District of Columbia. Compensation, fees.

By the act (Chap. XXXVII) for the relief of persons for damages sustained by reason of depredations and injuries by certain bands of Sioux Indians, approved February 16, 1863.

The President is authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, three commissioners for the purpose of distributing the appropriation contained in the act, who shall receive for their services and expenses the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars each.

By the act (Chap. XLIV) to provide for the appointment of an Assistant Register in the Treasury Department and a Solicitor for the War Department, and for other purposes, approved February 20, 1863.

The President is authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for the term of one year, an Assistant Register of the Treasury, at an annual salary of two thousand dollars.

The President is also authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a Solicitor of the War Department, at an annual salary of twenty-five hundred dollars.

By the act (Chap. LII) to annex a part of the State of New Jersey to the collection district of New York, and to appoint an assistant collector, to reside at Jersey City, approved February 21, 1863.
