

WILLIAM STUBBLEFIELD.

MAY 4, 1846.

Read, and laid upon the table.

Mr. SEAMAN, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of William Stubblefield, report:

That the petitioner asks for a pension in consideration of services rendered by him during the several campaigns against the Indians in the years 1791 and 1794. The only evidence offered is that of two persons, who certify that the petitioner was in those campaigns, as alleged in his petition; but as his name is not found upon any of the pay-rolls, or any other papers in the War Department connected with those campaigns, it is more than probable that he did not enlist, even if he performed the service; and is, therefore, not entitled to a pension.

The committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the prayer of the petitioner ought not to be granted.
