II.—OFFICES CREATED AND THE SALARIES THEREOF.

[Prepared in the office of the Secretary of the Senate.]

By the act (Chap. X) authorizing an increase of the clerical force in the Post Office Department approved February 16, 1866.

The Postmaster General is authorized to appoint and employ four clerks, at a salary of twelve hundred dollars per annum each; seven clerks, at fourteen hundred dollars per annum each; fourteen clerks, at sixteen hundred dollars per annum each; and four clerks, at eighteen hundred dollars per annum each, until 30th June, 1866.

By the act (Chap. XXVIII) making additional appropriations, and to supply deficiencies in the appropriations for sundry civil expenses of government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1866, &c., approved April 7, 1866.

SECTION 7. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to increase the clerical force in the office of the assistant treasurer at Philadelphia, and the aggregate salaries of the said clerks shall not exceed the sum of nine thousand dollars.

By the act (Chap. XLIV) to establish the collection district of Port Huron, the collection district of Michigan, the collection district of Montana and Idaho, and to change the name of collection district of Penobscot, approved April 13, 1866.

A new collection district, to be called the district of Port Huron, is established in the State of Michigan, embracing the mouth and entire shore of St. Clair river, and counties of St. Clair, Lapeer, Tuscola, and Saginaw, and all the territory and waters of the State of Michigan north of said counties and east of principal meridian, and a collector to be appointed, to reside at Port Huron, to receive, a similar compensation as is provided for the collectors at Pembina, Chicago, and certain other ports; and a collection district, to be called the district of Michigan, embracing the territory and waters of the State of Michigan lying west of principal meridian, and not included in the district of Michilimackinac, is established, and a collector to be appointed, at a compensation similar to that allowed the collector of Port Huron, to reside at Grand Haven.

SECTION 2. The Territories of Montana and Idaho are made a new collection district, to be called the district of Montana and Idaho, and a collector, at a salary similar to that provided for collectors of Port Huron and Michigan, to be appointed, to reside at the port of entry in said district to be designated by the Secretary of the Treasury.

By the act (Chap. XLVI) to reimburse the State of Missouri for moneys expended for the United States in enrolling, equipping, and provisioning militia forces to aid in suppressing the rebellion, approved April 17, 1866.

Three commissioners, to be appointed by the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate, to ascertain the amount of moneys expended by the State of Missouri in enrolling, equipping, subsisting, and paying State forces called into service in said State since August 24, 1861, &c., to receive such compensation for their services as determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, not exceeding ten dollars per day for each day of actual service. The commission authorized to employ a clerk, at rate of compensation not exceeding $1,500 per annum.

By the act (Chap. LXXII) to provide for the better organization of the pay department of the navy, approved May 3, 1866.

The active list of the pay corps of the navy is to consist of eighty paymasters, forty passed assistant paymasters, and thirty assistant paymasters. Paymasters to be promoted from passed assistant paymasters, and passed assistant paymasters from assistant paymasters. The annual compensation of passed assistant paymasters to be, at sea, fifteen hundred dollars; on other duty, fourteen hundred dollars; on leave or waiting orders, twelve hundred dollars.

By the act (Chap. CXXXI) explanatory of the foregoing act, it is directed how the appointments and examinations of paymasters, passed assistant paymasters, and assistant paymasters may be made.

By the act (Chap. LXXXIV) to amend "An act to establish the grade of vice-admiral in the United States navy," approved May 16, 1866.

The vice-admiral is allowed a secretary, with the rank, sea pay, and allowances of a lieutenant in the navy.

By the act (Chap. C) to authorize the appointment of an additional Assistant Secretary of the Navy, approved May 26, 1866.

The President is authorized, with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint an additional Assistant Secretary of the Navy, to perform like duties and receive like salary as present Assistant Secretary of the Navy, the term of office to expire in six months after approval of act.

By the act (Chap. CXXVI) to authorize the Commissioner of Patents to pay those employed as examiners and assistant examiners the salary fixed by law for the duties performed by them, approved June 18, 1866.

The Commissioner of Patents is authorized to pay those employed in the Patent Office from April 1, 1861, until August 1, 1865, as examiners and assistant examiners of patents, at the rates fixed by law for these respective grades, the compensation to be paid out of the Patent Office fund.

By the act (Chap. CXXVIII) to reimburse the State of West Virginia for moneys expended for the United States in enrolling, equipping, and paying military forces to aid in suppressing the rebellion, approved June 21, 1866.

The President to appoint three commissioners, immediately after the passage of the act, to ascertain the amount of money expended by West Virginia in enrolling, supplying, equipping, transporting, and paying such State forces as had been called into the service in said State since June 20, 1861, to act with United States forces to suppress the rebellion against the United States. The commissioners to receive such compensation as may be determined by the Secretary of the Treasury.

By the act (Chap. CXXIX) to establish a hydrographic office in the Navy Department, approved June 21, 1866.

A hydrographic bureau is created and attached to the bureau of navigation in the Navy Department for improvement of means of navigation by providing accurate and cheap nautical charts, sailing directions, &c., for use of all vessels of the United States, and for the benefit of navigators generally. No officers or compensation provided for.

By the act (Chap. CXL) to provide for the revision and consolidation of the statute laws of the United States, approved June 27, 1866.

The President of the United States is authorized, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint three persons, learned in the law, as commissioners, to revise, simplify, arrange, and consolidate all statutes of the United States, general and permanent in their nature, which shall be in force at the time said commissioners may make their final report to Congress.

The compensation of commissioners to be, each, five thousand dollars per annum, with reasonable expenses of clerical and other incidental expenses, not to exceed two thousand dollars annually.

By the act (Chap. CXLIV) to establish a land office in the Territory of Idaho, approved June 27, 1866.

The public lands within the Territory of Idaho, to which the Indian title is or may be extinguished, is constituted a new land district, to be called the Idaho district, to be located at Boise City; and the President is authorized, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint a register and receiver of public moneys for said district, to have the same powers, duties, and compensation as are or may be prescribed by law for land offices of the United States in other Territories.

By the act (Chap. CLV) amendatory of the organic act of Washington Territory, approved June 29, 1866.

SECTION 2 provides that each house of the legislature be authorized to elect an enrolling clerk, in addition to the officers now allowed by law, who shall each receive five dollars per day. The chief clerks to receive six dollars per day, and other officers elected by the legislature to receive five dollars per day each.

By the act (Chap. CLVI) to create the office of surveyor general in Idaho Territory, approved June 29, 1866.

The President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, is authorized to appoint a surveyor general for Idaho at an annual salary of three thousand dollars, whose power, authority, and duties shall be the same as those of surveyor general of Oregon, and with allowances for clerk hire, office rent, and fuel not exceeding what is allowed, for same purposes, the surveyor general of Oregon.

By the act (Chap. CLXIV) to create an additional land district in the State of Oregon, approved July 3, 1866

The President is authorized to establish an additional land district in the State of Oregon, and appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a register and receiver for said district, whose compensation and fees shall be respectively the same per annum as now allowed by law other land offices in said State.

By the act (Chap. CLXVI) concerning certain lands granted to the State of Nevada, approved July 4, 1866.

SECTION 4. The President is authorized, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint a surveyor general for the State of Nevada, at a compensation of three thousand dollars per annum, whose duties, powers, obligations, allowances for clerk hire, office rent, fuel, and incidental expenses shall be the same as those allowed the surveyor general of Oregon.

By the act (Chap. CLXXXII) granting aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from the town of Folsom to the town of Placerville, in the State of California, approved July 13, 1866.

Section 3 authorizes the President of the United States to appoint three commissioners to examine the railroad and telegraph line contemplated by the act, and if it appear that ten miles thereof have been completed, in a good and substantial manner, and in all respects as required by the act, they shall so report to the President, and patents for the land shall be issued to the company, &c.; and whenever ten additional miles shall have been constructed and completed said commissioners to report to the President, and patents for the land to be issued to the company, as aforesaid. The commissioners so appointed to be paid by the company ten dollars each per day for the time actually employed, and ten cents per mile for the distance actually and necessarily travelled each way.

By the act (Chap. CLXXXIV) to reduce internal taxation, and to amend an act entitled "An act to provide internal revenue to support the government, to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes," approved June 30, 1864, and acts amendatory thereof, approved July 13, 1866.

The act of June 30, 1864, as amended by the act March 3, 1865, is amended in section 22 by providing that there shall be allowed and paid to the several assessors a salary of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, payable quarterly; and, in addition thereto, where the receipts of the collection district shall exceed the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, and shall not exceed the sum of four hundred thousand dollars annually, one-half of one per centum upon the excess of receipts over one hundred thousand dollars. Where the receipts of a collection district shall exceed four hundred thousand dollars, and shall not exceed six hundred thousand, one fifth of one per centum upon the excess of receipts over four hundred thousand dollars. Where the receipts shall exceed six hundred thousand dollars, one-tenth of one per centum upon such excess; but the salary of no assessor shall in any case exceed the sum of four thousand dollars. And the several assessors shall be allowed and paid the sums actually and necessarily expended, with the approval of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, for office rent; but no account of such rent shall be allowed or paid until it shall have been verified in such manner as the Commissioner shall require, and shall have been audited and approved by the proper officers of the Treasury Department. And the several assessors shall be paid, after the account thereof shall have been rendered to and approved by the proper officers of the treasury, their necessary and reasonable charges for clerk hire; and that there shall be allowed and paid to each assistant assessor four dollars for every day actually employed in collecting lists and making valuations, the number of days necessary for that purpose to be certified by the assessor, and three dollars for every hundred persons assessed contained in the tax list, as completed and delivered by him to the assessor, and twenty-five cents for each permit granted for making tobacco, snuff, or cigars; and assistant assessors may be allowed, in the settlement of their accounts, such sum as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall approve, not exceeding three hundred dollars per annum, for office rent; and assistant assessors, when employed outside of the town in which they reside, in addition to the compensation now allowed by law, shall, during such time so employed, receive one dollar per day; and the said assessors and assistant assessors, respectively, shall be paid, after the account thereof shall have been rendered to and approved by the proper officers of the treasury, their necessary and reasonable charges for stationery and blank books used in the discharge of their duties, and for postage actually paid on letters and documents received and sent, and relating exclusively to official business, and for money actually paid for publishing notices required by this act: Provided, That the compensation herein specified shall be in full for all expenses not otherwise particularly authorized: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Treasury shall be, and he is hereby, authorized to fix such additional rates of compensation to be made to assessors and assistant assessors in cases where a collection district embraces more than a single congressional district, and to assessors and assistant assessors, revenue agents, and inspectors in Louisiana, Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama, Florida, Texas, Arkansas, North Carolina, Mississippi, Tennessee, California, Nevada, and Oregon, and the Territories, as may appear to him to be just and equitable, in consequence of the greater cost of living and travelling in those States and Territories, and as may, in his judgment, be necessary to secure the services of competent officers; but the compensation thus allowed shall not exceed the rate of five thousand dollars per annum. Collectors of internal revenue acting as disbursing officers shall be allowed all bills of assistant assessors heretofore paid by them in pursuance of the directions of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, notwithstanding the assistant assessor did not certify to hours therein, or that two dollars per diem was deducted from his salary or compensation before computation of the tax thereon.

Section 29 provides that the Secretary of the Treasury shall appoint an inspector for every distillery established according to law, who shall take an oath faithfully to perform his duties as therein prescribed, and said inspector shall not engage in any other business while employed as an inspector, and shall be paid five dollars per day for the time during which he is engaged: and the amount of compensation thus paid for inspection shall be assessed by the assessor upon the distiller, and returned to the collector monthly for collection; and in addition to the above compensation, such inspector shall receive such fee as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for each and every proof gallon of distilled spirits inspected by him and removed to the bonded warehouse, which shall be paid by the distiller or owner of the spirits; but no compensation shall be allowed to such inspector for more than one inspection of such spirits. And in case the duties of such inspector shall be greater at any time than he can perform, upon the joint application of the inspector and owner of such distillery, the Secretary of the Treasury may appoint an assistant inspector; and upon the refusal of the distiller to join in such application, the collector shall decide as to such necessity; and such assistant inspector shall qualify in the same manner and be subject to the same penalties as the inspector, and he shall be paid in the same manner as the inspector, at a rate not exceeding the sum of three dollars per day while so employed; and in case of absence by sickness, or from any other cause, of such inspector or assistant, the collector may designate a person to take temporary charge of such distillery and warehouse, who shall during such absence perform the duties, receive the same rate of pay, and be paid in the same manner as said inspector or assistant for the time he may be so employed.

Section 30 provides that there shall be appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury, in every collection district where the same may be necessary, one or more general inspectors of spirits, who shall be entitled to receive such fee as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for each and every proof gallon gauged and proved by him, to be paid by the owner of the spirits.

Section 64 provides that the office of Commissioner of Internal Revenue be reorganized so as to include—

- One Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with a salary of six thousand dollars; and
- One deputy commissioner, with a salary of three thousand five hundred dollars;
- Which offices are already created, and the duties thereof defined by law; and to authorize, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, the employment of the following additional officers and clerks, and with the salaries hereinafter specified, namely:
 - Two deputy commissioners, each with a salary of three thousand dollars;
 - One solicitor, with a salary of four thousand dollars;
 - Seven heads of divisions, each with a salary of two thousand five hundred dollars;
 - Thirty-four clerks of class four; forty-five clerks of class three; fifty clerks of class two; and thirty-seven clerks of class one;
 - Fifty-five female clerks; five messengers,
 - Three assistant messengers, and fifteen laborers; and a sum sufficient to pay the additional salaries of officers, clerks, and employes herein authorized is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated; and this section shall take effect from and after the thirtieth day of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-six.

Section 66 provides that the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to appoint an officer in his department who shall be styled "Special Commissioner of the Revenue," whose office shall terminate in four years from the thirtieth day of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, at an annual salary of four thousand dollars, and the travelling expenses necessarily incurred while in the discharge of his duty.

By the act (Chap. CC) to continue in force and to amend "An act to establish a Bureau for the relief of Freedmen and Refugees," and for other purposes, approved July 16, 1866.

Section 3 provides that the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint two assistant commissioners, in addition to those already authorized, who shall give like bonds and receive the same annual salaries as provided by act of which this is amendatory. The commissioner, under the direction of the President, if in his judgment necessary, may appoint such agents, clerks, and assistants for more efficient and economical administration of the affairs of the bureau. Each agent or clerk not heretofore authorized by law, not being a military officer, shall have an annual salary of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than twelve hundred dollars.

Section 4 provides that officers of the Veteran Reserve Corps, or of the volunteer service, now on duty in the Freedmen's Bureau as assistant commissioners, agents, medical officers, or in other capacities, whose regiments have been or may be mustered out of service, may be retained in service in the bureau and receive same compensation as now provided by law for their respective grades of service.

By the act (Chap. CCI) further to prevent smuggling, and for other purposes, approved July 18, 1866.

Section 7 provides that the Secretary of the Treasury shall make such allowance as he may deem reasonable and just, upon the certificate of the judge before whom the prosecution was had, to the district attorney for expenses incurred and services rendered in prosecutions for fines and personal penalties under the act.

By the act (CCVIII) making appropriations for the legislative, executive and judicial expenses of the government for the year ending June 30, 1866, and for other purposes, approved July 23, 1866.

It is provided in the first section that for compensation of temporary clerks in the Treasury Department, and for additional compensation to officers and clerks in the same department, one hundred and sixty thousand dollars: Provided, That the temporary clerks herein provided for may be classified according to the character of their services. Provided further, That so much of the appropriation of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, granted by act approved March second, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, for compensation of temporary clerks in the Treasury Department and for additional compensation to clerks in the same department, as remains unexpended, shall be divided as follows, viz: one hundred dollars each shall be paid to the clerks in said department of the first and second classes, who have not received any additional compensation out of said appropriation, and who shall have served in said capacity for one year previous to July first, eighteen hundred and sixty-six. And one hundred dollars shall be paid to each person employed in said department appointed by the Secretary, at an annual salary amounting to less than twelve hundred dollars, and who shall have served under such appointment for one year previous to July first, eighteen hundred and sixty-six. And if the balance of said appropriation remaining unexpended shall be insufficient to pay said clerks and appointees the sum of one hundred dollars each, as herein provided, the deficiency shall be supplied and paid out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

For compensation of additional clerks in the General Land Office, under the act of third of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, granting bounty land, and for laborers employed therein, fifty-eight thousand six hundred and forty dollars: Provided, That the Secretary of the Interior, at his discretion, shall be, and he is hereby, authorized to use any portion of said appropriation for piece-work, or by the day, week, month or year, at such rate or rates as he may deem just and fair, not exceeding a salary of twelve hundred dollars per annum.

For salary of additional clerks in the office of the assistant treasurer, at Philadelphia, six thousand five hundred and eighty-five dollars.

For salaries of the clerks and messengers in the office of the assistant treasurer at Boston, twenty-five thousand two hundred dollars: Provided, That in lieu of the clerks heretofore authorized, the assistant treasurer of the United States at Boston is hereby authorized to appoint, with the approbation of the Secretary of the Treasury, one chief clerk, at a salary of three thousand dollars per annum; one clerk, at a salary of twenty-five hundred dollars per annum; one clerk, at a salary of two thousand dollars per annum; two clerks, at a salary of eighteen hundred dollars per annum each; two clerks, at a salary of fifteen hundred dollars per annum each; six clerks, at a salary of twelve hundred dollars per annum each; one clerk, at a salary of one thousand dollars per annum; two clerks at a salary of eight hundred dollars per annum each; one porter, at a salary of seven hundred dollars per annum; and one watchman, at a salary of six hundred dollars per annum.

Section 4 provides that the President is hereby authorized to appoint a private secretary, at an annual salary of three thousand five hundred dollars; an assistant secretary, at an annual salary of twenty-five hundred dollars; a shorthand writer, at an annual salary of twenty-five hundred dollars; a clerk of pardons, at an annual salary of two thousand dollars; and three clerks of the fourth class; and a steward of the President's household, who shall receive an annual salary of two thousand dollars, and said steward shall have the custody of the plate, furniture, and other public property in the President's house, and shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of his trust; and the amount necessary to pay the salaries of the officers and clerks herein provided for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, and also such sum as may be necessary to pay the salaries of said officers and clerks from the date of their appointment to the end of the fiscal year eighteen hundred and sixty-six, are hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Section 5 provides that from and after the thirtieth day of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, there shall be an officer in the Treasurer Department, to be known as the Assistant Solicitor of the Treasury, who shall be appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury, and who shall receive an annual salary of three thousand dollars. And the Attorney General of the United States is hereby authorized to employ in his office, in addition to the present force, a clerk, to be known as the law clerk, at an annual salary of twenty-five hundred dollars. And the amount required to pay the salaries of the officer and clerk herein provided for, for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, is hereby appropriated.

Section 8 provides that the Secretary of the Navy is authorized to appoint in the several bureaus of his department, in addition to their chief clerks, and in lieu of the clerical force now authorized, clerks as follows, viz: In the Bureau of Yards and Docks, one clerk of class four, who shall be the draughtsman, two clerks of class three, two clerks of class two, and one clerk of class one; in the Bureau of Navigation, one clerk of class four, and one clerk of class two; in the Bureau of Equipment and Recruiting, one clerk of class four, two clerks of class three, two clerks of class two, and three clerks of class one; in the Bureau of Ordnance, one clerk of class four, two clerks of class three, and two clerks of class two; in the Bureau of Construction and Repairs, one clerk of class four, two clerks of class three, two clerks of class two, and one clerk of class one; in the Bureau of Steam Navigation, one clerk of class three; in the Bureau of Provisions and Clothing, one clerk of class four, three clerks of class three, six clerks of class two, and three clerks of class one; in the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery, one clerk of class four, and one clerk of class three. And the amount necessary to pay the increase of salaries herein provided for, for the fiscal year ending the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

By the act (Chap. CCXV) to amend the acts approved August 6, 1861, and July 16, 1862, establishing a Metropolitan Police in the District of Columbia, to increase the efficiency thereof, and for other purposes.

It is provided by section 1 that the chief executive officer of the police shall hereafter be styled major; the present sergeants shall be called lieutenants, and the roundsmen called sergeants, and the patrolmen called privates; and that, in addition to the officers and employes the commissioners of the Metropolitan Police, in the District of Columbia, are now authorized by law to appoint, the said commissioners be authorized to appoint one captain, who shall be the inspector of the force, command it in sickness or absence of the major, and perform such other duties as the said commissioners may direct; one clerk in the office of the major, who shall have charge of the records of the sanitary company, and perform such other duties as the major, by direction or with the approval of the commissioners, may prescribe; twenty sergeants, and fifty patrolmen or privates.

By the act (Chap. CCXXXI) to define the number and regulate the appointments of officers in the navy, and for other purposes, approved July 25, 1866.

Section 1 provides that the number allowed in each grade of line officers on the active list of the navy shall be one admiral, one vice-admiral, ten rear-admirals, twenty-five commodores, fifty captains, ninety commanders, one hundred and eighty lieutenant commanders, one hundred and eighty lieutenants, one hundred and sixty masters, one hundred and sixty ensigns, and in other grades the number now allowed by law.

Section 2 provides that of the number of line officers of the navy on the active list, five lieutenant commanders, twenty lieutenants, fifty masters, and seventy-five ensigns may be appointed from those officers who have served in the volunteer naval service for a period of not less than two years, and who are either now in that service or have been honorably discharged therefrom.

Section 3 provides that the Secretary of the Navy shall appoint a board consisting of not less than three naval officers superior in rank to the officers to be thus appointed in the regular navy from the volunteer service, which board, after examination of the claims of all candidates, shall select and report to the Secretary of the Navy the most meritorious in character, ability, professional competency, and honorable service, the number to be appointed and transferred to the several grades mentioned in the second section of this act.

Section 4 provides that the Secretary of the Navy be, and he hereby is, authorized to retain, or to appoint under existing laws and regulations, such volunteer officers in the navy as the exigencies of the service may require.

Section 6 provides that the annual compensation of the admiral of the navy shall be ten thousand dollars a year, and he shall be entitled to the services of a secretary, who shall receive the annual sea pay of a lieutenant in the navy.
