Note.—In the third section of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act, approved March 3, 1873, (17 Stat., 509,) it is enacted that "the salaries of the two chiefs of the diplomatic and of the consular bureaus in the Department of State, and of the chiefs of the bureaus of accounts and of indexes and archives, shall be two thousand four hundred dollars each per annum." Since the passage of this act six clerks have been designated to fill the six offices created, but, although the Department is greatly in need of a larger clerical force, the Secretary of State being uncertain whether it was the intention of Congress by this act to authorize an increase, has not filled the vacancies. If Congress did by that act increase the clerical force of the Department, then the above estimate is correct. If, on the other hand, Congress did not thereby make an addition to the clerical force of the Department, then it will be necessary to decrease the estimate for clerks by six clerks, but from what class the Secretary of State is unable to indicate, as the act referred to repeals none of the laws which authorize ten clerks of class four, nine clerks of class three, three clerks of class two, and eight clerks of class one. The question is therefore submitted for the determination of Congress.

NOTE.—In submitting the above estimate, the Secretary would respectfully call attention to the fact that at the last session of Congress objections were raised to the method, theretofore adopted, of appropriating for the additional compensation to the principal officers of this Department in a single sum. In accordance with the suggestion then made, that Congress would prefer to make the appropriation exactly as it was to be expended, this estimate is submitted, showing the distribution which would be made if Congress continued the additional compensation in the form adopted since 1863. The amount of the estimate is the same as the gross appropriation which has been made for the last four years, except where Congress has increased salaries by legislation, as in the case of the Secretary and Assistant Secretaries, and the amount is very greatly less than the expenses for the same service since 1862.

NOTE.—This estimate provides for the salaries of clerks actually on duty in the office of supervising architect, three clerks, four copyists, and one assistant messenger having been at different times necessarily detailed thereto, to enable the supervising architect to perform the duties devolved upon his office. As their services are now needed in the bureaus from which they are detailed, their withdrawal will necessitate the increased appropriation herein estimated. It will be observed that no estimate is submitted for salary of assistant supervising architect; the salary provided by law being insufficient to secure the services of a competent person, and the office having remained vacant more than a year, and the performance of its duties otherwise provided for, the estimate is dropped. The additional amounts estimated for salaries of chief clerk, two clerks of class four, and one clerk of class three, are in lieu of the same amounts heretofore paid from the appropriations for additional clerks and additional compensation to clerks in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury.

NOTE.—A second assistant receiving teller is made necessary by the act of June 8, 1872, providing for the deposit of United States notes to facilitate bank clearing-house exchanges. The transactions under this act during the past year have been so great that the office has been seriously embarrassed for want of force in handling the money. A fifth watchman is required to make this office secure. There are two floors and a cellar to be guarded. The upper floor is divided into four and the lower into three rooms, not to mention the four vaults. One watchman is needed on duty during business hours, and of course is not available for the night. This leaves but three on duty at night. It is impossible to secure that watchfulness and supervision at night that so large a premises and so great interests require with less than four men. The increase for the two principal interest clerks is justified by the great responsibility attaching to their places, and, so far as regards the present incumbents, the satisfactory manner in which they have performed their duties. Clerks in similar positions at other offices are paid as much or more than is now asked for these gentlemen.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

CHAPTER I

The first part of the history of the United States of America is the history of the thirteen original states. These states were the result of the British colonial system in North America. The British colonies were established in the seventeenth century and grew into thirteen distinct states by the time of the American Revolution in 1776. The states were: New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia. Each state had its own government and laws, but they were all subject to the British crown. The American Revolution was a struggle for independence from British rule, and it resulted in the formation of the United States of America in 1776.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The second part of the history of the United States of America is the history of the westward expansion. The American people were always looking for new land to settle, and this led to the westward expansion of the United States. The first major westward expansion was the Louisiana Purchase in 1803, which doubled the size of the United States. This was followed by the Mexican-American War in 1846, which resulted in the acquisition of California, New Mexico, and Arizona. The westward expansion was also driven by the desire for land and resources, and it led to the discovery of gold in California in 1848. The westward expansion was a major factor in the growth of the United States and the development of the American West.

The third part of the history of the United States of America is the history of the Civil War. The Civil War was a major conflict in the history of the United States, and it resulted in the preservation of the Union. The war was fought between the Union and the Confederacy, and it was caused by the issue of slavery. The Civil War was a turning point in the history of the United States, and it led to the abolition of slavery and the Reconstruction era. The Civil War was a major factor in the development of the United States and the formation of the modern American nation.

Rock Island Arsenal, Rock Island, Ill.—
Continuing work on the wood-working and gun-carriage shop for arsenal	Appropriated	17	525	1	$185,000 00
A new rolling-mill and forging-shop for the armory	Submitted				200,000 00
<small>NOTE.—The second of the large finishing-shops for the armory will be about completed during the present year, but these are not available for use in manufacturing arms until the rolling-mill and forging-shop is completed.</small>
Roofs, floors, doors, and windows, and other work for completing finishing-shop D	Appropriated	17	525	1	80,500 00
<small>NOTE.—This shop is now in process of erection, and will be completed during the present year, except as indicated in estimate.</small>
Permanent brick stables for Government teams and officers' horses	Submitted				22,000 00
<small>NOTE.—There are now no stables at this arsenal, and the temporary wooden buildings now in use for stables are scattered, inconvenient, afford insufficient protection for animals in cold weather, are expensive for care and preservation, and endanger the arsenal by fire.</small>
One block of subaltern officers' quarters	Appropriated	17	525	1	24,750 00
<small>NOTE.—This building is required to meet the immediate and urgent wants of the post for officers' quarters, and is to take the place of temporary wooden buildings now in use for the same purpose. These temporary buildings were badly built, are much destroyed by rot, and cannot be used without expensive repairs. They are unhealthy, cannot be well warmed, and endanger the arsenal by fire.</small>
A stone fire-proof building for offices	Submitted				68,000 00
<small>NOTE.—This building is intended as a general office for both the armory and arsenal, and for all the business of the post. It is to be fire-proof throughout, and to contain vaults for the books, records, and funds of the arsenal. No office has ever been built for this arsenal. For present use, rooms have been temporarily partitioned off in the north end of the west wing of shop B, (one of the finishing-shops of the armory.) This furnishes sufficient office room, but the partitions are of wood, very temporary, and with only temporary heating arrangements. The office is not comfortable in winter, and there is some danger of fire, endangering the loss of a very costly building and the records of the arsenal. As this office must be built some time, there are economical reasons for building it now.</small>
Repairs and completion of stone reservoir, as follows:
A water-tight interior wall, floor, and roof	Submitted				5,100 00
<small>NOTE.—These repairs and roof are much needed. This reservoir furnished the whole supply of water for the arsenal. It has always leaked badly, and the walls are suffering much in consequence. The reservoir can now be only partially filled, and its utility is much diminished for fire protection by the consequent diminished head of water; careful attempts have been made to remedy the defect by cement plastering inside, but without success. It is proposed to build inside an 8-inch brick wall, laid in Portland cement, with a thin stratum of the same cement between the brick wall and the stone, and to cover the floor in the same way. The roof is to protect the water from falling leaves and pollen, and from the seed which induces vegetable growth in the water, and to assist in saving the reservoir from destruction by frost in winter. These leaves and pollen, acted upon by the sun, produce a rapid vegetable growth, which quickly breaks up, and makes the water unwholesome and unfit for use. In consequence of this it has been necessary to draw off all the water and cleanse the reservoir several times every summer.</small>
Water pipe and laying the same	Submitted				5,750 00
<small>NOTE.—This includes the cost of main along West and North avenues, with fire-plugs, and a main from the corner of Fourth street and South avenue to the river, and a filtering reservoir, and setting a pump (on hand) to be driven by the water-power, and supply pipes for shops already built, the latter to be arranged for use in case of fire. This water pipe is required for present use in supplying buildings and for protection.</small>
Rock Island water-power	Submitted				5,400 00
<small>NOTE.—This is required for building a dyke to prevent the overflow of the Moline Water-power Company's land, (in accordance with an agreement between the United States and said company.) A dyke to prevent the overflow of the arsenal grounds above the dam, and for removing the old coffer-dam from the water-power pool, for new pen stocks for water wheels, and for laying a 16-inch cast-iron pipe from the island, through the bottom of the pool, to the tail race. This pipe is to carry the rain fall from a portion of the arsenal the drainage of which has been cut off by the building of the water-power.</small>

Rock Island Arsenal, Rock Island, Ill.—Continued.
Rock Island bridge:
Alterations and repairs and additional machinery for draw, and for care and preservation	Submitted				$23,400 00
Note.—The alterations and repairs required consist of a sheet-copper roof for the upper or railroad deck, and more powerful machinery for working the draw. When the bridge was built there was put on this deck a flat tin roof, with no water-shed except that furnished by the camber of the spans, about 1 inch in 200 feet, and water-shed is prevented by the railroad ties and wheel-guards which are laid on the roof. The water is not shed from the roof; in a few months it rusted and destroyed the tin, and now runs through, and is rotting the timbers of the upper deck and the wagon-road below. As both decks have wooden floor-beams, their destruction is a serious matter, involving the disuse of the bridge while the whole deck is removed. The drip of water continues about three hours after any rain or shower, and not only rots the timbers, but the water, containing iron-rust, grease, and dirt, falls on carriages and people below, who, in fine weather after rains, are unprepared and unprotected, and who, having entered the bridge, cannot turn back. It is not deemed advisable or economical to put any cheaper roof than copper on this deck. In this climate, tin, lead, or galvanized iron can be made to last only from five to ten years in this position, and their renewal is difficult and expensive. The copper should last from thirty to fifty years. The machinery now in use for working the draw is insufficient in power, and has in consequence broken three times in the last four months, with careful management. Also some additional machinery is required for stopping the draw when in motion, and operated upon by high winds. The cost of putting on the new deck would be $23,000. The cost of additional machinery, $3,800. The railroad company or companies using the bridge should, under their agreement, pay one-half of this expense. The estimate for care and preservation includes all ordinary repairs and guard, but is mainly for operating the draw. This requires two sets of hands, each containing an engineer, foreman, and tender.
Sewers, building new roads, care and preservation of water-power, painting and care and preservation of permanent buildings and bridges, building fences and grading grounds, and repairs of and extension of railroad	Appropriated ..	17	525	1	22,000 00
Note.—This work is absolutely necessary in the progress of the work of building the arsenal. The roads are required for immediate use in building operations, and should be so permanently built as to become a permanent part of the arsenal, and this work on roads, grading, and sewers can be done far more economically while other excavations and buildings are going on, and the two kinds of work which are dependent upon each other are combined.
Removing the old railroad embankment of the Chicago, Rock Island, and Pacific Railroad track across the island and in the south channel of the river, and the piers from the same channel	Submitted				22,500 00
Note.—The removal of this embankment is necessary, and was one of the principal objects in view in getting the railroad track of this company removed from its position across a central part of the island. The piers and embankment in the south channel—or sylvan water—taken in connection with the embankments and piers of the two other bridges below, are a serious obstruction to the channel, upon which the water-power is dependent. If it is the intention of Congress that the railroad company should remove these piers and embankments, some action by the Government is required to force the railroad company to remove them.
New machinery and shop fixtures for shops	Appropriated ..	17	525	1	15,000 00	$679,400 00	$554,100 00
Note.—It is proposed to put in the new shops such machinery and shop fixtures as can be used with considerable economy in saving cost of building, and will at the same time form a part of the permanent machinery of the shops for manufacturing purposes hereafter.

Removing zinc from roofs of wing and porches, officers' quarters No. 1, and covering with slate	do				500 00
Removing zinc from roofs of wing and porches, officers' quarters No. 2, and covering with slate	do				500 00
Ordinary repairs of buildings, machinery, shop fixtures, gas and water-works, and pipes, grounds, roads, walks, gutters, fences, and sewers	do				1,000 00	2,750 00
Note.—The sheet zinc was placed on roofs of buildings named from twenty-five to forty years ago; is thin as paper in many places, and full of pin-holes; to walk over it for repair, or replace disturbed sheets, only adds to the damage. These roofs have been repaired more or less every year lately; they leak, and demand new covers, to preserve the buildings and property in them.

Augusta Arsenal, Augusta, Ga.—
Building quarters and cistern for laundresses	Submitted				$2,500 00
Building small-service powder magazine	do				2,275 00
NOTE.—There is at the present time no powder magazine at this arsenal, and one should be erected without delay.
Necessary repairs of subaltern quarters	do				2,800 00
NOTE.—No repairs have been made on the subaltern quarters at this arsenal for many years, and the repairs estimated for are necessary, both for the comfort of those who occupy them and for the preservation of the quarters themselves.
Repairing the entire fence that encloses arsenal grounds, and replacing a part of it	do				1,500 00
NOTE.—The arsenal grounds are enclosed by a wooden picket fence. It was put up seven years ago, and is now giving way in a number of places. Some of the posts have rotted off, and about every third panel should be replaced. The continued heavy rains and winds that prevail here, together with the intense heat of the sun, have warped and injured nearly every part of the fence. If repaired next year, it can be put in condition, with the sum asked for, to last a number of years. If not, the entire fence will have to be replaced by a new one. The number of acres enclosed is about seventy.
Repairs on the building now used for a hospital and dispensary	do				750 00
NOTE.—The building now used for a hospital at this arsenal is 21 by 25 feet. It is the room in the west end of the row of buildings immediately in rear of the commanding officer's quarters. It is one story high, and, although the best for the purpose at the post, is not in many particulars at all suitable. It is not complete in any respect. As it will probably never be used for any other purpose, it is very desirable that it be converted into a complete ward, where the sick can be properly cared for and attended to. The hospital accommodations at this arsenal will then be ample and complete for the present command, and, in case of necessity, for fifty men. As it is, they are about as poor as it is possible for them to be, and unless they are improved the sick cannot be properly cared for.

One blacksmith shop	Submitted				35,000 00
One machine shop	do				45,000 00
One carpenter shop	do				25,000 00
Transferring machinery from present shop-buildings to the new shop-buildings	do				2,375 00
NOTE.—A new storehouse is absolutely necessary, but, instead of erecting one, it is considered more advantageous to use the present shop-building for a storehouse. It is near the wharf and only 32 feet above it. The beach on which it is located has an area of 1½ acres, and on this account it never could be enlarged. There is a beach of land of 10 acres in extent which has been turned over to the Ordnance Department since the present shops were built, and which would afford space for enlarging any shop-buildings which may be erected at present.
Building fire-proof stable for accommodation of public animals	do				28,692 00
NOTE.—A fire-proof stable is always necessary, especially is it so at this post, as a large supply of forage must be kept on hand on account of the comparative high prices demanded for it in winter, and the condition of the adobe roads in the vicinity, which renders hauling forage an absolute impossibility during some portions of the rainy season.
Repairing roads, buildings, sewers, and drains	Appropriated	17	525	1	8,946 00
Grading grounds	do				9,467 00
NOTE.—This amount is required to reduce the surface of the ground into a more comely shape, as nature has left it in a very rough state, the difference of level in some places between different parts being 203 feet.
Continuing boring Artesian well, or, if Artesian water is procured, for putting down permanent iron pipes and turbine wheel, to be run by flow of water to pump up water to reservoir	do				5,047 00

Repairs to officers' quarters	Submitted				5,000 00
NOTE.—These quarters, two sets, require considerable repairs; the outside walls are cracked in several places, and the inside walls are very considerably so. In hard rains they leak, and it seems impossible to prevent it by any ordinary repairs. The floors also need overhauling.

Dredging in front of stone wharf	do				1,000 00
NOTE.—The depth of water in front of the stone wharf is at times inadequate for vessels receiving and discharging ordnance and ordnance stores. No dredging as far as can be ascertained has been done there for years. It is proposed to increase the depth of water, and it is believed that lighterage and other expenses can be saved by a moderate expenditure in dredging.

NOTE.—This expenditure is necessary in order to keep the magazines and roads leading to and from them in good condition. Most of the drains to the magazines are natural underground sewers, which require constant watching in heavy rains to prevent the magazines from being flooded.
General repairs and preservation of public grounds and buildings, putting up new gutters and pipes on buildings around the square, repairing pumping machinery and supply pipes to reservoir, &c.....	Submitted				3,800 00	5,000 00

Surveying Confirmed Private Land Claims in California— At the rates prescribed by law, including office expenses incident to the service	Submitted					$40,000 00
Surveying Confirmed Private Land Claims in Colorado Territory— At the rate not exceeding $15 per lineal mile	Submitted					10,000 00
Surveying Confirmed Private Land Claims in New Mexico— At the rate not exceeding $15 per lineal mile	Submitted					15,000 00
NOTE.—The three foregoing sums are estimated for the reason that the act of Congress entitled "An act for the survey of grants or claims of land," approved June 2, 1862, (U. S. Stats. at Large, vol. 12, p. 410,) which required such surveys to be made, at the cost of the claimants, was repealed February 18, 1871, (U. S. Stats. at Large, vol. 16, p. 416.) Under the circumstances no contracts for the survey of private land claims can be entered into by the respective surveyors general, unless parties interested deposit the necessary funds for the service. This they are in some instances unable or unwilling to do, for the reason that it is not required of them by the existing laws upon the subject. The segregation of the private land claims from the mass of public lands is called for to secure the best interests of the Government as well as the welfare of settlers located often on public lands, but claimed by grantees as confirmed claims.

APPENDIX.

APPENDIX A.

Explanations of the estimate for office of Assistant Treasurer at Baltimore. (See page 20.)

In the estimates for the year ending June 30, 1875, herewith submitted, an increase in the salaries of the cashier and interest clerk is asked and respectfully urged.

The duties performed by the cashier, in this office, are much more in extent and amount than usually attach to the place. He is both receiving and paying teller, and performs an amount of labor so far in excess of what is usual in a similar position elsewhere as to fully entitle him to the advance applied for.

The duties of the interest clerk are also onerous and multiform. He is charged with receiving and examining the gold coin deposited, in addition to the ordinary work indicated by his title, a labor of great care and delicacy under the regulations of the Treasury Department. He also takes charge of and performs the duties of the cashier in case of sickness or necessary absence.

The advance in the pay of the messenger is asked by reason of the necessity of the case—he performs the duties of a clerk when not acting as messenger—and for the additional reason that $900 per year is little enough for the lowest class of service under the Government, which requires the entire time and attention of the employed.

In the case of the vault watchmen an increase of salary is respectfully urged for the reason that the present pay—about $1 95 per day—is wholly inadequate for men to support themselves and families upon. The watchmen of the Customs department here receive $3 per diem. The duties of the watchmen of this office are to guard the money of the United States, a very important trust; the duties of the watchmen of the Customs department, in the same building, are to guard the realty and fixtures, which are in no great peril of being stolen and carried off; yet the former service is paid at the rate of $1 95 per day and the latter at $3. If importance of trust be a reason for better wages, the discrimination ought to be in favor of, and not so grossly against, the watchmen of this office.

I therefore strongly urge, as a matter both of policy and justice, the above small increase in the pay of the particular employes of this office hereinbefore named.

Very respectfully,

PETER NEGLEY,
Assistant Treasurer U. S.

APPENDIX B.

Explanations of the estimate for office of Assistant Treasurer at New York. (See page 22.)

I have the honor to transmit herewith estimates for the salaries of the officers, clerks, and employes of this office, for the fiscal year commencing July 1, 1874, amounting to $153,920.

The appropriation for the present fiscal year is $148,980, making an apparent increase for the next fiscal year of $4,940, as to which I beg leave to submit the following explanation:

And first, in carrying out the new coinage act, it became necessary to organize a separate force of coin weighers. With the approval of the Department, five additional clerks were employed for this purpose, which number has since been reduced to three, and a further reduction to two will be made as soon as practicable. This last number will have to be permanently employed, and I have, therefore, estimated for their salaries at the rate of $1,500 for each weigher, or $3,000 in all, which is not excessive for men possessing the requisite skill and otherwise properly qualified for these positions. The employment of coin weighers, being a necessity imposed in the execution of a new law, the $3,000 estimated for their salaries is not an increase in the rates hitherto paid, and deducting that amount from the apparent increase of $4,940, it reduces the actual increase in the estimates arising from additional compensation (less $1,000 saved by dispensing with one hall-man) to $1,940.

The following statement will perhaps present the explanation in a clearer light:

Estimates for 1874.....	$153,920
Appropriations for 1873	148,980
Difference	4,940
Increase of salary—
Cashier and chief clerk.....	$800
Coin receiving teller	600
Coin paying teller.....	400
Coin certificate clerk	200
Currency receiving teller.....	200
Currency paying teller.....	200
General book-keeper	200
Two chief watchmen	340
Two coin weighers	3,000
	5,940
One hall-man less	1,000
	$4,940

The positions, the salaries of which it is proposed should be increased, as shown in the foregoing statement, are amongst the most important and responsible in this office, and the present incumbents are men of superior intelligence, long experience, and unswerving fidelity to their trusts. The tellers, especially, are without doubt as accomplished experts, in the examination of coin and currency, as can be found anywhere. They have fairly earned this distinction by years of patient and earnest effort, during which the public, as well as the Government, has repeatedly reaped the benefit of their skill, in the detecting of counterfeits, both coins and notes. Notable examples were the discovery recently of the $5 counterfeit gold coins of 1872 and the $500 counterfeit United States notes. In both instances, the counterfeits had passed through the hands of persons of great experience in the detecting of fraudulent coins and bills without suspicion. I may say, further, that the salaries of the tellers employed in this office have never equalled those paid for equal ability by individuals and corporations, and I have no hesitation in recommending that they be increased as proposed.

The cashier and chief clerk, who, as acting assistant treasurer, is invested with all the powers of the assistant treasurer during the absence or disability of the latter, and whose routine duties are arduous and unremitting, is, I think, fairly entitled to the increase in his salary proposed. Few, if any, positions in the civil service require in a greater degree the strictest integrity of character and the most thorough business training. The present salary is not, in my judgment, a fair compensation for the services required, and it is less than what is paid to many of the cashiers of banks in this city. The two chief watchmen, in consideration of the greater responsibility resting on them, are, in my judgment, entitled to some additional compensation, and I have therefore estimated for their salaries at the rate of $900 each, which is an increase of $170. This is not more than is paid to watchmen in other public offices.

May I be allowed to add, as not altogether foreign to the subject, that the expenses of this office have always been regulated with as much regard to economy as seemed consistent with the public interests. And I think I am justified in saying, further, that if the expenses of an office depend in any degree on the amount of business transacted, those of this office are conspicuously low; for, with receipts and disbursements more than three times greater than all the other sub-treasuries and depositories combined, the appropriations for salaries are one-third less.

Respectfully submitting the estimates for the consideration of the Secretary, and hoping they may go to the appropriate committee of Congress with his approval, I am, very respectfully,

THOS. HILLHOUSE,
Assistant Treasurer U. S.

APPENDIX C.

Explanations of the estimates for United States Mints and Assay Offices. (See pages 24 to 26.)

I have the honor to transmit herewith the estimates for appropriations required by this office and the various mints and assay offices of the United States, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1875, and respectfully invite attention to the following statements explanatory of the excess of the appropriations for the current fiscal year:

MINT OF THE UNITED STATES, PHILADELPHIA.

	Estimates, 1875.	Appropriation, 1874.	Excess.
Salaries	$40,500	$37,900	$2,600
Wages of workmen	275,000	250,000	25,000
Contingent expenses	90,300	85,600	4,700
Freight	5,000	5,000
Wastage, melter and refiner's department ..	1,137	1,137
Total	411,937	378,500	33,437

Salaries.—The excess of $2,600 is occasioned by a proposed increase of $500 in salary of superintendent; $500 each in salary of assayer, melter and refiner, and coiner; and the additional $600 being a transfer from appropriation for wages of workmen to that of salaries.

Wages of Workmen.—Excess of $25,000 is caused by the large increase of work in the coinage of the trade-dollar and the recoinage of abraded gold coin, rendering a larger force of workmen necessary.

Contingent Expenses.—Excess of $4,700 is also occasioned by the large increase of work.

MINT OF THE UNITED STATES, SAN FRANCISCO.

	Estimates, 1875.	Appropriation, 1874.	Excess.
Salaries	$31,500	$26,000	$5,500
Wages of workmen	241,000	200,000	41,000
Contingent	75,000	59,545	15,455
Total	347,500	285,545	61,955

Salaries.—The excess of $5,500 is caused by the proposed increase in salaries of superintendent, ($500,) assayer, melter and refiner, and coiner, ($500 each,) cashier, ($500,) and the transfer of the chief clerk from appropriation for wages of workmen to that of salaries.

Wages of Workmen.—The excess of $41,000 is caused by the large increase of gold coinage and the coinage of the trade-dollar.

Contingent Expenses.—The excess of $15,455 arises from the same cause as increase in wages of workmen.

MINT OF THE UNITED STATES, CARSON CITY.

	Estimates, 1875.	Appropriation, 1874.	Excess.
Salaries	$27,100	$19,700	$7,400
Wages of workmen	75,000	67,000	8,000
Contingent expenses	73,100	53,200	19,900
Total	175,200	139,900	35,300

Salaries.—Excess of $7,400 arises from a proposed increase of salary of superintendent, ($1,000,) salary of assayer, melter and refiner, and coiner, ($500 each,) chief clerk, ($500,) cashier, book-keeper, weigh clerk, and voucher clerk, ($200 each,) and the transfer of computing clerk ($2,000) and assayer's clerk ($1,600) from appropriation for wages of workmen to that of salaries.

Wages of Workmen.—The excess of $8,000 arises from the large increase in the work, particularly in the manufacture of bars, and the expected coinage of trade-dollars.

Contingent Expenses.—The excess of $19,900 is caused by the larger quantities of acids, fluxes, materials, &c., required, owing to the large increase in the operations above referred to.

MINT OF THE UNITED STATES, NEW ORLEANS.

	Estimates, 1875.
Salaries	$18,500
Wages of workmen	56,000
Contingent expenses	20,000
New machinery, &c.	50,000
Total	144,500

The above items on account of appropriations for salaries, wages, and contingent expenses, are considered to be the correct sums required to put this mint in operation from July 1, 1874.

The item of $50,000 for new machinery, fixtures, repairs, &c., is considered to be necessary, and requested to be made available as soon as action can be had by Congress, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury.

MINT OF THE UNITED STATES, DENVER.

	Estimates, 1875.	Appropriation, 1874.
Salaries	$10,400	$10,400
Wages of workmen	15,335	15,335
Contingent expenses	5,000	5,000
Total	30,735	30,735

In this institution, the same appropriation is asked for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1875, as for the current fiscal year.

UNITED STATES ASSAY OFFICE, NEW YORK.

	Estimates, 1875.	Appropriation, 1874.	Excess.
Salaries	$47,200	$20,700	$26,500
Wages of workmen	65,000	68,000	3,000
Contingent expenses	45,000	22,000	23,000
Less decrease in wages of workmen			49,500
Total	157,200	110,700	46,500

Salaries.—The excess of $26,500 is occasioned by the proposed increase in salary of superintendent, ($500,) assayer, and melter and refiner, ($500 each,) two clerks, ($300 each,) and $24,400 in the transfer of three clerks and five assayer's assistants, heretofore paid from the appropriation for wages of workmen.

Wages of Workmen.—Whilst the estimate for 1875 shows an apparent decrease as compared with the appropriation for the current fiscal year, yet in reality there is an excess of $24,400, that being the amount transferred from wages of workmen to appropriation for salaries, in the proposed payment of clerks, assistants, &c., heretofore paid from the appropriation for wages of workmen. This increase is deemed necessary, on account of the additional work at that office, especially in silver.

Contingent Expenses.—Excess of $23,000 arises from the increase in business above referred to. It should also be added, that the moneys arising from the sale of by-products of the sulphuric-acid process of refining were, until quite recently, used to defray the incidental expenses, and are now being covered into the Treasury of the United States, according to law. The proceeds from the sale of by-products covered into the Treasury during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1873, were $11,360 91.

UNITED STATES ASSAY OFFICE, BOISE CITY.

	Estimates, 1875.	Appropriation, 1874.	Excess.
Salaries	$6,800	$5,400	$1,400
Wages of workmen	6,000	3,000	3,000
Contingent expenses	3,000	1,500	1,500
Total	15,800	9,900	5,900

Salaries.—The excess of $1,400 is caused by the proposed increase of the salary of the assayer in charge, and the melter, ($700 each.) The present rate of salaries is entirely inadequate.

Wages of Workmen and Contingent Expenses.—The excess in wages of workmen ($3,000) and contingent expenses ($1,500) is rendered necessary by the increase of the work in this institution, requiring additional help, especially during the summer months, and additional materials, chemicals, acids, &c.

UNITED STATES ASSAY OFFICE, CHARLOTTE.

	Estimates, 1875.	Appropriation, 1874.	Excess.
Salaries	$4,300	$2,700	$1,600
Wages of workmen	600	292	308
Contingent expenses	1,500	1,500
Total	6,400	4,492	1,908

Salaries.—Excess, $1,600, is occasioned by the proposed increase of the salaries of assayer, $300, melter, $300, and the employment of a clerk at $1,000.

Wages of Workmen.—Excess of $308 arises from the proposed increase of laborer's compensation from $292 to $600.

The additional duties and responsibilities of the superintendents, by reason of the abolishing of the office of treasurer under the coinage act of 1873, render an increase of compensation necessary and proper. The present compensation of the operative or manipulatory officers of the mints and assay offices is not sufficient, in view of the fact that they must be filled by persons of education and ability. The same remark applies to the principal clerks.

I deem it my duty to respectfully urge upon you the propriety and necessity of the proposed increase of compensation herein estimated for.

I am, sir, very respectfully,

H. R. LINDERMAN, Director.

APPENDIX E.

Explanation of the estimates for Pay of the Army and Pay of Military Academy. (See pages 63 to 67.)

I have the honor to submit herewith the estimates of the Pay Department, U. S. Army, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1875, as follows:

For pay of the Army.....	$12,697,463 00
For pay of the Military Academy.....	254,416 50
Total	12,951,879 50

It will be observed that the amount estimated for pay of the Army is $227,375 less than the amount estimated under same items for the current year.

These estimates have been carefully prepared, the items for salaries of all officers and for pay of enlisted men and employes of the several staff departments being based upon the monthly dues of those actually in service at this date; the items of pay of enlisted men of the Army proper upon the number authorized by existing laws; and the other items upon the actual expenditures of eight months of the last fiscal year.

The excess in the estimate, under the head of "Miscellaneous," over the amount estimated thereunder for the current fiscal year, is due to the inclusion of items of mileage and general expenses heretofore appropriated under separate heads, but embraced in the appropriations for the current fiscal year in one item with pay of the Army.

The excess of $34,037, in the estimate for Military Academy, over the amount estimated for the current fiscal year, is due to the increased number of cadets under the last apportionment of members of Congress, and the increase of salaries to professors and instructors under the act of February 28, 1873.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

CHAS. T. LARNED,
Acting Paymaster General, U. S. A.

To the Honorable the SECRETARY OF WAR, Washington, D. C.

APPENDIX F.

Explanation of the estimates for Regular Supplies, Horses for Cavalry and Artillery, Barracks and Quarters, and Clothing and Equipage. (See pages 67 to 69.)

Regular Supplies.—The appropriation of last year, 1872-'73, has been entirely exhausted, including the deficiency appropriation, and a larger appropriation is necessary to supply the Army.

The Army of late years occupies a country further from the cultivated and timbered regions, and its forage and fuel is more costly than in former years.

Horses for Cavalry and Artillery.—This estimate provides for a renewal of one-third the horses in service. The appropriations of late years have been reduced, and it is probable that a full proportion of the horses will need replacing this year.

Barracks and Quarters.—Many posts are in process of reconstruction. The Army is advancing its posts and taking up new positions to protect the advancing railroads and settlements.

The appropriations for barracks and quarters for several years past have been insufficient, which has led to great inconvenience to the service, personal discomfort and embarrassment to the troops, whom the War Department has not been able to supply with shelter, which, under the laws governing the Army and under the contract of service, they are promised.

Clothing and Equipage.—The new uniform is being distributed to the Army, but the appropriations of the last and present year suffice only to provide a bare supply for the use of the troops. Some stock in depot is needed to meet the contingencies of service and to be en route to the various posts at which it is to be issued. The appropriation asked for will enable the War Department to accumulate a small stock to meet this absolute necessity of service.

Respectfully submitted.

M. C. MEIGS,
Quartermaster General, Brevet Major General, U. S. A.

APPENDIX G.

Explanation of the estimates for Military Academy. (See pages 72, 73, and 140.)

UNITED STATES MILITARY ACADEMY,
West Point, N. Y., September 5, 1873.

SIR: I have the honor to forward herewith, estimate of funds required for the Military Academy for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1874.

The items, as to objects and amounts, are the same as for former years, with slight variations, less for some, more for others, found to be desirable, with exceptions stated below:

CURRENT AND ORDINARY EXPENSES.

1. The item for pay of citizen mechanics and labor for work which cannot be done by enlisted men is placed at $10,500, instead of $8,000. The increase is rendered necessary on account of the increase, relatively, of the cost of labor for a given amount of work under the system of eight hours per day, as compared with that of ten hours per day, on which the estimate was formerly based, and also the increased difficulty of procuring the enlistment of mechanics.

2. The item for compensation of draughtsman, making drawings for use in section-rooms, &c., ($120,) in department of civil and military engineering. The pay of an enlisted man is so much below the compensation usually paid to competent draughtsmen, that an addition is necessary to secure the enlistment of a suitable person. The services of such a man are very necessary in this department of instruction. In case the allowance recommended shall be approved, I would respectfully suggest that a special clause be included in the act of appropriation, granting authority for the payment, in future, when appropriated, as well as for the particular year. It was at one time held by the Comptroller, in reference to the pay of additional compensation to enlisted men here, that such special authority, in addition to an appropriation of the money, was necessary, as, otherwise, the general acts fixing the pay of enlisted men would exclude the additional compensation only authorized by appropriation.

3. The item of $400 for one barge, included in the estimate for the department of practical military engineering. This is asked for to procure a barge to replace one, old and unfit for use; it is necessary in this department of instruction, and will also be necessary for use otherwise in the public service at the post.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS AND INCIDENTAL EXPENSES.

4. The item of $1,000, for renewing furniture for academic section-rooms and offices, is necessary to provide plain furniture for the use stated, and to replace worn-out articles.

5. The item of $60, for papers and periodicals for cadet hospital, is necessary to provide suitable reading-matter for the sick, particularly convalescents. Such provision would be very beneficial in a sanitary point of view and otherwise.

6. The item of $1,200, for hire of a school teacher for instruction of children of enlisted men at the post, is necessary to provide suitable elementary teaching for such children. The number of children of suitable age is sufficient to require the employment, for the whole year, of a competent teacher. In the past, such instruction has been given, as could be, by the detail of enlisted men and temporary employment of civilian teachers; but such means have been found inadequate for the object desired.

7. The item "Printing catalogue for library" is necessary for reprinting the library catalogue. No complete catalogue has been printed since 1853, since which time the library has been greatly increased in number of volumes.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS.

8. The item of $8,000, for the construction and furnishing of a school-house for soldiers' children, is necessary to provide a building suitable for the purpose. At present the only available place, and which is used therefor, is the basement of the soldiers' chapel. It is insufficient as to space, damp, and badly ventilated. The amount asked for will be sufficient to meet present, and all probable future, necessities of the case. It is proposed to construct a plain, one-story brick building, school-room thirty by sixty feet, and entry, with room on each side, eight by ten feet, for cap and cloak-rooms for boys and girls. This would give no more room than necessary for the purpose. The furniture to consist of the usual school desks, seats, and blackboards.

All of which is very respectfully submitted.

THOS. H. RUGER,
Colonel 18th Infantry, Superintendent.

To the Honorable the SECRETARY OF WAR, Washington, D. C.

APPENDIX I.

Explanation of estimate for Building for Treasury Archives and Bureau of Engraving and Printing. (See page 120.)

The files of the Department are increasing annually about nine thousand cubic feet, and this increase has heretofore been supplied by renting and fitting-up temporary buildings contiguous to the office using them.

Those now in use are, the building on the corner of New York Avenue and 17th street, NW.; the building adjoining Winder's building, on 17th street; the Kidwell building, on E street, near 14th; and some temporary wooden buildings on the ground designed for the site of the proposed new building. The garret over the eastern portico of the Treasury building has been fitted up, and is now full. All these buildings are mere fire-traps, and should not be continued in use one day longer than is absolutely necessary to provide safe and fire-proof storage for the papers in them. A fire, fairly started, would consume valuable vouchers and evidence of payment which could not be replaced, and which would cause the Government the loss of millions of money, by duplication of claims, besides the loss of historical data of great importance.

It is designed that the building to be erected shall be of such dimensions as to afford accommodation for the necessities of this Department for the next ten years.

APPENDIX K.

Explanation of estimates for Government Hospital for the Insane. (See page 141.)

Additions to the original plan of the hospital, and the increase in the number of patients under treatment, render it necessary to correspondingly increase the size of the ventilating fan and of the engine that drives it, and to furnish and fit up another kitchen. About one-third of the amount of the last estimate will be needed for those purposes, and the remainder will be required for painting and repairs necessary to preserve the Government property, and for such improvements in the furniture, and fitting up of the wards, and in the facility for the medical and moral management of the patients, as are suggested by experience and the progress of this branch of the healing art.

The river wall has been built on just one-half of the extent of the river front, at a cost of ten thousand dollars; but as the average depth of the water is less along the line of the remainder of the river front, it is estimated that this part of the work can be completed for eighty-seven hundred and eighty-eight dollars; and the cost of raising those portions of the boundary walls that were originally extended into the river and now intersect the front wall, so that the former cannot be scaled from the latter, or from the filling of earth behind it, will be nine hundred and sixty dollars—the two amounts making the sum of eighty-seven hundred and forty-eight dollars.

The centre building of the hospital edifice contains the administrative offices of the establishment, the principal kitchens and storerooms, the general assembly-rooms, and the officers' quarters. The hospital was originally intended to accommodate a maximum of 350 patients, and the present centre was planned for an institution of that size. The number of patients now under treatment exceeds 600, and is increasing, and more room is needed for the assembling of the patients, both for worship on the Sabbath and for lectures, concerts, and exhibitions on other days of the week. The present assembly-room accommodates barely 350 patients and their attendants, and at least 100 of the inmates of the institution whose mental condition is such that they would derive pleasure and benefit from being present on such occasions are now unable to attend the Sabbath services and the entertainments on other days.

Additional room is also much needed for all the other purposes for which the central building is used. It is proposed to add 45 feet to the rear end of the present structure, and, by extending the assembly-room into the addition, nearly double its present accommodations. Below the assembly-room will be two stories and a cellar, which will contain the other rooms that are needed.

The demand for increased accommodations has rendered it necessary to fit up two of the original coal-rooms for dining-rooms and to use the remaining two as workshops, and it has, for some years, been necessary to deposit the most of the coal used for heating the house in an unsightly pile, a short distance outside of the windows of patients' rooms. By using the foundation walls of the house for two sides of the vault, it is estimated that convenient storage room for 500 tons of coal can be secured for the moderate amount of this estimate.

This building was erected in 1856, and accommodates 20 patients, and it is thought that it may be extended so as to comfortably accommodate 44 altogether. The room is needed, and it is thought that it can be properly obtained in no cheaper way, nor in one more advantageous to the classification and treatment of the inmates of the institution.

APPENDIX L.

Explanation of the estimates for Coast Survey Service. (See page 153.)

COAST SURVEY OFFICE,
Washington, D. C., September 18, 1873.

SIR: I have the honor to submit detailed estimates for continuing field and office-work in the survey of the Atlantic, Gulf, and Western coasts of the United States, during the fiscal year 1874-'75.

The small increase asked for, in the two leading items of the estimate, seems unavoidable, on account of continued increase in the cost of supplies required in the field service.

For the geodetic connection my estimate was, for the present fiscal year, fifty thousand dollars, in view of additional demands for the determination of points within the interior States. The appropriation of thirty-six thousand dollars in lieu of the estimated sum has not availed for the requirements of the service, two other States, Wisconsin and Kentucky, having applied within the year for the benefit intended by that item, in prosecuting their geological surveys. The determination in the interior, of points in true relation to the eastern and western coasts, limited as it is to "each State of the Union which shall make requisite provision for its own topographical and geological surveys," now requires an increase of means for extending the provisions of this item in the west, and it is hoped that the increase of the estimate to sixty-five thousand dollars will enable the survey to perform all the work which may be required during the next fiscal year in the several States that are entitled to the service.

In illustration of the detailed estimates, I present, as heretofore, an abstract of the work done between the 1st of November, 1872, and this date, parties being now in the field at the north where the survey will be prosecuted until the approach of cold weather, when they will be transferred to sites of work on the southern coast. The field-work will be recapitulated in geographical order. Parties now on the coast of Maine are engaged in the survey of Mount Desert Island, and the adjacent hydrography; on the shores of Eggemoggin Reach; on the coast near Castine; on the islands in that vicinity, including those of Isle au Haut Bay; and on the Penobscot above Belfast. Supplementary work has been done in the upper part of Casco Bay, and in Portland harbor; points have been determined by triangulation in New Hampshire; special observations are in progress near North Adams, Massachusetts, for the determination of terrestrial gravity; and others, at Cambridge, for finding the longitude of points in the interior of the United States; off-shore hydrography is continued near George's Bank; in-shore soundings, near Nantucket; and tidal observations have been constantly recorded at North Haven, Penobscot Bay, and at the United States Navy Yard, Boston. The harbors between Portland and New York have been further examined for the preparation of final sailing directions. Field-work is advancing on the coast of Rhode Island, west of Point Judith. Special observations in hydrography, including those relating to tides and currents, are in progress in New York harbor. Field-work on the south side of Long Island; on the shores of Raritan River, New Jersey; on the shores of Lake Champlain, with adjacent soundings; and station marks of triangulation in the vicinity of New York, have been examined with reference to their preservation. Determinations have been made for latitude, longitude, and the magnetic elements at Port Jervis, New York. Barnegat light-house has been connected with the primary triangulation which passes from New York to the head of Chesapeake Bay; coast topography has been prosecuted between Barnegat and Absecom; hydrography to the northward of Little Egg Harbor, and in the Delaware River at New Castle. Reconnoissance has been continued westward from Harper's Ferry, Virginia, for points in the geodetic connection between the Atlantic and Western coasts.

The harbors of the Chesapeake have been specially examined with reference to sailing directions; the survey of James River, Va., has advanced above Warwick River entrance; that of Elizabeth River has been completed; latitude has been determined at a station on Knott's Island, Va.; the survey has been continued in Currituck, Pamlico, and Core Sounds, including Pungo and Chowan Rivers, with observations for the latitude of a station near Ocracoke Inlet. Further southward the operations of the year include Cape Fear River, to Wilmington, N. C.; the coast of South Carolina, between Little River and Winyah entrance; the coast south of Winyah Bay; parts of Coosaw River and of Port Royal Island; latitude at St. Simon's Island, Ga.; the survey of Halifax River and the adjacent coasts below Matanzas Inlet, Fla.; and the extension of hydrography in the vicinity of the Florida Reef.

On the Gulf coast the operations of the year include Tampa Bay; the coast between Cedar Keys and Ocilla River, and between St. George's Sound and Dickerson's Bay; the Gulf approaches to Apalachicola; the vicinity of the Atlanta base line, Ga.; Chandeleur Sound, La.; the Mississippi River from Jesuit Bend to New Orleans; the east branch of Galveston Bay; and Espiritu Santo; St. Joseph's and Aransas Bays, Texas.

Points in the geodetic connection between the Atlantic and Western coasts have been occupied in Missouri, Wisconsin, and Colorado, and now each State and Territory of the Union along the belt which includes the 39th parallel has at least one point accurately determined in latitude and longitude.

The plan of field and hydrographic work on the Western coast, and in the prosecution of which parties have been or are now engaged, comprises hydrographic developments in the vicinity of San Diego; the coast of California near Newport and San Juan Capistrano; Catalina Harbor, Point Hueneme, San Buenaventura, Santa Barbara, Santa Rosa Island; the coast north and south of Point Conception; reconnaissance between Santa Barbara and Monterey; the coast between Point Sal and San Luis Obispo Bay; north of Piedras Blancas; San Francisco entrance and approaches; latitude, longitude, azimuth, magnetic elements, co-efficient of refraction, and observations on the tides and currents at stations north and south of San Francisco; deep sea soundings near Falmouth Shoal; development of the Cordell Bank; field-work on the coast north of Mendocino Bay; south of Bear River; soundings between Cape Mendocino and Rocky Point, and off-shore from Crescent City Reef; the coast north of Mack's Arch; soundings off the Orford Reef; extension of the survey of Columbia River and of Shoalwater Bay; Budd's Inlet; Puget Sound; and geographical reconnaissance of the coast, including special surveys of the harbors of Alaska.

The work in the Coast Survey office, embracing the computation of observations, the drawing, engraving, and publication of maps and charts, has kept pace with the operations in the field. Nineteen charts engraved on copper have been completed, twenty-three continued, and six new ones commenced, in addition to which six preliminary charts have been published by means of the photo-lithographic process, which greatly expedites the publication of new material. In the drawing division sixty-three charts have been worked upon, being either completed or brought up to the date of the survey. Fourteen thousand copies of copperplate charts and fifty-three hundred of lithographic charts have been printed, and nearly as many issued to sales agents, and to different departments of the Government, chiefly the Navy and Revenue Marine. Tide tables for all ports in the United States for the year 1874, have been computed and issued. The important matter of reproducing the original topographical maps, which exist only in a single copy, has received continued attention, and satisfactory results have been obtained by the comparatively inexpensive process of photo-lithography. It is proposed to proceed with the reproduction of these maps as fast as the means can be applied to that object. The preparation of a "Coast Pilot" or sailing directions for all the harbors and the coastwise navigation between Eastport, Maine, and Newport, Rhode Island, has been completed and that much-needed work is now ready for publication.

APPENDIX M.

Explanation of the estimate for "Observation and Report of Storms." (See page 154.)

SIR: In submitting these estimates, the chief signal officer invites attention to the fact, that the proper distribution of the reports, to reach directly the farming population, as has been practiced during the past year; the publication of river reports now had upon all the principal rivers; the connection of stations established at life-saving stations and light-houses upon the coast, and the display of signals thereat, as also at the principal ports of the United States, cannot be carried out and maintained with any less sum. The chief signal officer, therefore, ventures to hope that the appropria-ion estimated for will not be reduced by a single dollar. There are now filed in this office applications for one hundred and forty-four (144) stations on the part of influential authorities, boards of trade, and others, representing large communities, which cannot be granted. This latter fact is mentioned as exhibiting a popular appreciation of the work.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

ALBERT J. MYER,

Brigadier General, (Brevet assigned,) Chief Signal Officer of the Army.

To the Honorable the SECRETARY OF WAR.

APPENDIX N.

Explanation of the estimates for "Refunding to States expenses incurred in raising volunteers," and "Horses and other property lost in the military service." (See page 155.)

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter of 21st instant, asking what amounts will probably be required to meet claims settled in this office during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1875, payable from the appropriations "refunding to States expenses incurred in raising volunteers," and "payment for horses and other property lost or destroyed in the military service." In reply, I have to state that the probable amounts required will be as follows: For payment of claims refunding to States expenses incurred in raising volunteers, five hundred thousand dollars, ($500,000;) and for payment for horses and other property lost or destroyed in the military service, four hundred and fifty thousand dollars, ($450,000)—i. e., the amount required for payment of claims for lost horses will be one hundred thousand dollars, ($100,000;) and for steamboats and other vessels, railroad engines, and cars destroyed, three hundred and fifty thousand dollars, ($350,000;) making a total of four hundred and fifty thousand dollars, ($450,000,) as above stated. The second section of the act of March 3, 1849, entitled "An act to provide for the payment of horses and other property lost in the military service," as amended by the fifth section of the act of March 3, 1863, entitled "An act to promote the efficiency of the Corps of Engineers," &c., makes it necessary that this appropriation should now be made, especially as, owing to a misunderstanding, no appropriation was made last year for the payment of steamboats, cars, &c., lost in the military service of the United States.

Very respectfully,

ALLAN RUTHERFORD,
Auditor.

Hon. W. W. BELKNAP, Secretary of War.

APPENDIX O.

Explanation of the estimates for extra pay to officers and enlisted men in Mexican War, and pay of volunteers in Florida and other Indian Wars. (See page 155.)

SIR: I have the honor to request that you will please ask Congress for an appropriation for the payment of the following classes of claims, amounting in the aggregate to seventy-four thousand dollars, ($74,000,) namely:

Claims for three-months' extra pay, under the act of Congress approved July 19, 1848, (the unexpended balances of moneys originally designed for their payment having been covered back into the Treasury,) $60,000, as follows: The amount now due the Soldiers' Home, on settlements made by this office under the act of March 3, 1851, which cannot be paid for want of an appropriation, fifty-three thousand five hundred and forty-one dollars, ($53,541.)

The amount of claims under the act of July 19, 1848, now ready for settlement or liable at any time to be called up and completed, six thousand four hundred and fifty-nine dollars, ($6,459.)

Claims for pay of volunteers in the war with Mexico, now ready for settlement or in process of adjudication, $10,000.

Claims for pay of Florida volunteers of 1857 and 1858, under the act of Congress approved March 3, 1859, $2,000.

Claims for pay of volunteers in the Black Hawk war and other Indian wars from 1818 to 1838, $2,000.

Very respectfully,

E. B. FRENCH,
Auditor.

Hon. W. W. BELKNAP, Secretary of War.

NOTES TO TABLE A.

^a These accounts belong to the class known as "indefinite," and, therefore, no balance can appear. The amounts expended are credited to the accounts at the close of the year.

^b War Appropriations—Forts and Fortifications.—The balance of appropriations for forts and fortifications included in this statement were not limited to fiscal years by the acts making them. The act of February 21, 1873, making the appropriation for this branch of the service for the present fiscal year subjects these appropriations to the limitation imposed by the terms of the act of July 12, 1870.

^c War Appropriations—Rivers and Harbors.—These amounts were appropriated March 3, 1873, and placed to the credit of these appropriations March 29, 1873, and are merged in the balances of June 30, 1873, or have been drawn against, not being limited by law to fiscal years.

^d Interior Indian Appropriations.—These amounts were appropriated February 14, 1873, and placed to the credit of these appropriations April 29, 1873, having been made available for expenditure for 1873 by provision of law, and are merged in the balances of June 30, 1873. By a decision of the First Comptroller, the appropriations made for 1873 and prior years for the Indian service, contained in this statement, are limited in expenditure to the service of those fiscal years, Congress having in the last appropriation act for the Indian service applied the rule as to fiscal years which obtains in other annual appropriations by the act of July 12, 1870.

^e Indians, $26 55.—This item which appears as an apparent overdraft on the appropriation, is not such in fact, the amount having been repaid to the Treasury, but not carried to the credit of the account on the books from which this balance was taken until the following month.

B.—Statement showing the balances of appropriations, July 1, 1873, made for the service of the fiscal year ended June 30, 1871, limited by law to the payment of indebtedness incurred during the year for which they were made; the amount expended for that purpose during the quarter ended September 30, 1873, and the amounts which may be further required or carried to the surplus fund.

Appropriations.	Balances unexpended June 30, 1873.	Net expenditures dur- ing quarter ended September 30, 1873.	Excess of repayments during quarter ended September 30, 1873.	Amounts which may be further required or carried to the surplus fund.

^a These appropriations were made for the service of the fiscal year 1874; but, by special provisions of law, such portions of them as were found to be necessary were made available for the service of the year 1873. They were therefore carried upon the books of the Department with the appropriation accounts of 1873.

^b These items, which appear as an overdraft on the appropriations, are not such in fact, the amounts having been repaid to the Treasury, but not credited to the accounts from which the balances were taken until the following month.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D. C., December 1, 1873.

SIR: In compliance with instructions received from you, I have prepared for publication in the book of Estimates a combined statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Government, by appropriations, exclusive of the principal of the public debt, for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1873, exhibiting the various sources of the revenues; the apparent expenses of each branch of the service under the several Departments, and of each Department, on account of "salaries," "ordinary expenses," "public works," "miscellaneous," and "unusual and extraordinary;" and the actual expenses of the same, and the actual revenues, by deductions from them of those items which appear in both accounts by requirements of law, but which are not actual revenues or true expenditures, and other items on account of branches of the service intended to be self-supporting, the expenses and revenues of which must by law enter into the accounts of the Treasury.
