TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, D. C., January 13, 1873.

SIR: In pursuance of the standing order of the House of Representatives of December 30, 1791, and of the act of August 26, 1841, to define and establish the fiscal year of the Treasury of the United States, I have the honor to transmit herewith an account of the receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1870, prepared in the office of the Register of the Treasury.

I am, very respectfully,

WM. A. RICHARDSON,
Acting Secretary.

Hon. JAMES G. BLAINE,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

AN ACCOUNT
THE RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES
THE UNITED STATES,
FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1870,

Stated in pursuance of the following standing order of the House of Representatives of the United States, passed on the 30th day of December, 1791, viz :

“Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to lay before the House of Representatives, on the fourth Monday of October in each year, if Congress shall then be in session, or if not then in session, within the first week of the session next following the said fourth Monday in October, an accurate statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public moneys down to the last day, inclusively, of the month of December immediately preceding the said fourth Monday of October, distinguishing the amount of the receipts of each State or district, and from each officer therein; in which statement shall also be distinguished the expenditures which fall under each head of appropriation; and shall be shown the sums, if any, which remain unexpended and to be accounted for in the next statement of each and every of such appropriation;”

And of “An act to define and establish the fiscal year of the Treasury of the United States,” passed August 26, 1842.
