

SAMUEL B. HANWAY.

JANUARY 19, 1877.—Laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

Mr. STRAIT, from the Committee on Military Affairs, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany bill H. R. 159.]

The Military Committee, to whom was referred a bill (H. R. 159) for the relief of Samuel B. Hanway, report the same back to the House, with the recommendation that it lie on the table.

This bill provides that the Paymaster-General, United States Army, pay to Samuel B. Hanway, late second lieutenant of Company F, Third Regiment "Indian Home Guards," the pay, allowances, and emoluments of a second lieutenant, from November 11, 1863, to May 31, 1865, deducting therefrom pay and allowances as first sergeant and private in Company H, same regiment.

No proofs of any service rendered have been offered to the committee.
