

LEGISLATIVE, EXECUTIVE, AND JUDICIAL APPROPRIATION BILL.

JUNE 2, 1882.—Committed to the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. CANNON, from the Committee on Appropriations, submitted the following

R E P O R T :

[To accompany bill H. R. 6244.]

In presenting to the House the bill making appropriations to provide for the legislative, executive, and judicial expenses of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1883, the Committee on Appropriations submit the following report:

The estimates upon which the bill is mainly based are to be found on pages 9 to 57, and 60 to 65, and 197 and 198 of the book of estimates. The total amount thereof, added to subsequent estimates submitted by letters from heads of the several departments to Congress or to the committee, aggregate, in all, $21,165,903.65, of which sum the committee, after the most careful investigation possible of the requirements of the service, recommend in the accompanying bill the sum of $19,777,627.90, being a decrease under the estimates of $1,388,275.75.

The appropriations for the current fiscal year for legislative, executive, and judicial expenses amount to $17,040,679.49, to which sum, however, should be added deficiencies already given on account of that service as follows: In the General Land Office, $25,000; in the Patent Office, $43,733; for the Pension Office, $73,900; for stationery, Interior Department, $4,000; for contingent expenses War Department, $4,500; for the expenses of Congress, $31,831. There is also pending before Congress an estimated deficiency on account of salaries and expenses of agents and surveyors and other miscellaneous expenses of the Internal Revenue Service, amounting to $210,000, which will necessarily have to be provided for. Making, in all, the sum of $392,964, or $17,433,643.49 for the appropriations for the current fiscal year.

There are included in the bill for the ensuing year items which have heretofore been carried in the sundry civil and other appropriation bills, and now, for the first time, are included in this bill, aggregating $381,396, which, when deducted, make the total of the bill $19,396,231.90, or $1,962,588.41 in excess of the appropriations for the current year, including deficiencies as stated above.

The material increase of clerical force which is recommended in the bill is on account of greatly increased work in the several bureaus of the departments incident to the settlement of claims for pensions and arrears of pensions, and is made upon the basis of supplying sufficient clerical force to settle up all of the pending claims within a period of three years. In this connection a communication from the Commissioner of Pensions submitted to Congress by the Secretary of the Interior is herein set forth:

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, PENSION OFFICE,
Washington, D. C., March 13, 1882.

SIR: My estimate for salaries, &c., office of Commissioner of Pensions, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1883, which was forwarded in October last, was prepared without any intimation as to what the intention of Congress might be with regard to an increase of the force under my charge. I have been requested by a Joint Subcommittee on Pensions of both houses of Congress to prepare and submit an estimate looking to an increase of force in this office, which in my judgment would be necessary and sufficient, in order to bring about as nearly as possible a settlement of claims now pending, so that within a suggested period of three years the business of the office may be confined to current work.

I have given the matter careful consideration, and beg leave to submit herewith an estimate, based upon the aforementioned request of said committee, upon the conditions aforesaid, for a force which in my opinion, if appointed soon, and properly instructed, and consisting principally of persons of capacity, education, and experience, sufficient for the peculiar work of this bureau, can within the period of three years suggested, say from the first of July proximo, bring up the business of the office so that the great mass of claims shall have been settled, and leaving only the current business, which can be easily kept up, thereafter, in my opinion by a force of 500 persons or less. I respectfully call your attention to the fact that, to secure the best results from so large a body of employes, ample facilities should be provided in the way of buildings, desk-room, &c., adapted to such purposes, and a sufficient force also be given to the office of the Adjutant-General and Surgeon-General of the Army, to promptly furnish the Pension Office with the requisite record evidence in each case, and also that sufficient additional force be given to the office of the Second Comptroller and Third Auditor of the Treasury, to properly audit and settle the accounts of the pension agents, whose quarterly reports will be greatly swollen by the increased payments of pensions, rendered possible by the increased settlements of cases.

I have the honor, therefore, to submit herewith such an estimate, and to request that you will, at the earliest possible moment, forward the same through the proper channel to the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives.

I have the honor to request that, in order to promote the efficiency of the office, in making original appointments, the classes of two and above be filled as far as possible by promotion of experienced clerks from the lower grades, so that original appointments may be confined to the lower classes, thus affording an incentive to faithful and meritorious service by way of promotion.

Very respectfully,

WM. W. DUDLEY,
Commissioner of Pensions.

Hon. S. J. KIRKWOOD,
Secretary of the Interior.

Statement A, which herewith follows, exhibits by offices or bureaus the increase recommended in each on account of pensions, the number, class, or rate of compensation, their aggregate number and total cost, together with incidental or contingent expenses.

New legislation of an important nature is recommended in the bill as follows:

And hereafter no expense for printing exceeding $3,750, including printing laws, journals, bills, and necessary printing of the same nature, shall be incurred for any session of the legislature of any of the Territories.

And the provisions of section 5485 Revised Statutes shall be applicable to any person who shall violate the provisions of an act entitled "An act relating to claim agents and attorneys in pension cases," approved June 20, 1878.

And the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to sell as waste paper, or otherwise dispose of, the files of papers which have accumulated, or may hereafter accumulate, in the office of the Auditor of the Treasury for the Post-Office Department that are not needed in the transaction of current business and have no permanent value; and the proceeds of said sales he shall pay into the Treasury, and make report thereof to Congress.

SEC. 4. That no civil officer, clerk, draughtsman, copyist, messenger, assistant messenger, mechanic, watchman, laborer, or other employé shall hereafter be employed in any of the executive departments, or subordinate bureaus or officers thereof at the seat of government, except only at such rates and in such numbers, respectively, as may be specifically appropriated for by Congress for such clerical and other personal services for each fiscal year; and no civil officer, clerk, draughtsman, copyist, messenger, assistant messenger, mechanic, watchman, laborer, or other employé shall hereafter be employed at the seat of government in any other office, or be paid from any appropriation made for contingent expenses, or for any specific or general purpose, unless such employment is authorized and payment therefor specifically provided in the law granting the appropriation, and then only for services actually rendered in connection with and for the purposes of the appropriation from which payment is made; and section 172 of the Revised Statutes, and all other laws and parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this act, and all laws and parts of laws authorizing the employment of officers, clerks, draughtsmen, copyists, messengers, assistant messengers, mechanics, watchmen, laborers, or other employés, at a different rate of pay or in excess of the numbers authorized by appropriations made by Congress, be, and they are hereby, repealed; and all details of civil officers, clerks, or other subordinate employés from places outside of the District of Columbia, for duty within the District of Columbia, except temporary details for duty connected with their respective offices, be, and are hereby, prohibited; and hereafter all moneys accruing from lapsed salaries, or from unused appropriations for salaries, shall be covered into the Treasury.

SEC. 5. That from and after the 1st day of July, 1882, and of each year thereafter, the Secretary of the Treasury shall cause all unexpended balances of permanent and indefinite appropriations for collecting the revenue from customs which shall have remained upon the books of the Treasury for two fiscal years, to be carried to the surplus fund and covered into the Treasury. And it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to include in his next estimates to Congress, and annually thereafter, a statement specifying in detail the number and class of officers and employés of every grade and nature, with the rate of compensation to each, that may in his judgment be necessary to properly conduct the business of collecting the revenue at each port of entry in the United States, together with an estimate of the amounts required for contingent expenses of the service as cannot be otherwise specifically provided for.

SEC. 6. That the Secretary of War is directed to transfer all the records in the office of the Surgeon-General of the Army from which the evidence is furnished for the settlement of claims for invalid pensions, and also the clerks and others employed upon such records, to the office of the Adjutant-General of the Army, if in his judgment the work of furnishing such evidence will be facilitated, or the number of clerks employed upon such work can be materially reduced in number by such transfer. * * * That the north half of the east wing of the State, War, and Navy building, now occupied by the War Department, except the two rooms on the second story now occupied by the Secretary of War, and the fourth story and the attic of the south wing of the said building now occupied by the Department of State, shall be occupied by the War Department for the storage of records now stored in insecure rented buildings, and for clerical purposes connected with said records. That the partition wall separating the corridor of the fourth story of the east wing from the fourth story of the south wing of the State, War, and Navy building shall be removed, so as to afford easy access from one wing to the other on the fourth story of said building. That the occupancy of the north half of the east wing, except the two rooms aforesaid, and of the fourth story and attic of the south wing of the State, War, and Navy building, by any portion of the War Department, shall cease on the completion and occupancy by the War Department of the west wing and the center wing of the said State, War, and Navy building; and that thereafter the north half of the east wing, and the fourth story and attic of the south wing of said building, shall be controlled and occupied by the Navy Department and the Department of State, respectively.

In reply to the following letters, substantial copies of which were addressed to the heads of the several executive departments, the matter which is included herewith as an appendix to this report was, from time to time, received by the committee.

COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, D. C., February 21, 1882.

SIR: By direction of the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations I have to request that you will, at your earliest convenience, have the goodness to cause him to be furnished with a statement which shall set forth in number, name, class or occupation, salary and wages or pay, information showing what officers, clerks, or other employes, are now in service in your department who are not specifically provided for and appropriated for, but are paid from appropriations made by the government which are not specifically made in the regular appropriation laws, or other laws in terms for such purpose, and, if any such, information as to what fund they are respectively paid from, and the amount paid each per year, month or day, and the authority for such payment.

Also a statement showing, in the same classification and description above indicated, what clerks are detailed under provisions of section 166 of the Revised Statutes, to which bureaus they were originally appointed, and to which detailed.

The chairman directs me to write that he has deemed it better to obtain the information sought in this way rather than by a resolution of the House, and doubts not that his opinion will be coincided in by the departments (to each of which a copy of this letter is addressed), and that they will cheerfully co-operate with the committee in furtherance of its intention to have appropriations specifically made whenever practicable, to which end this communication is written.

A portion of the information sought has been given in the reply of the departments to Senate resolution of May 19 last, but the committee desire to have a statement or exhibit giving simply an answer to the present inquiry.

Very respectfully,

ROBT. J. STEVENS,

Clerk Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives.

HON. CHARLES J. FOLGER,
Secretary of the Treasury.

MARCH 28, 1882.

SIR: By direction of the Committee on Appropriations, I have to request, referring to your letter of the 21st instant, a printed copy of which is herewith inclosed, that you will have the goodness to submit estimates for whatever portion of the force now in service in your department included in said letter, as is deemed absolutely necessary, and that these estimates shall exhibit a classification to conform to the plan of the estimates for 1883 already before the committee, and that the distribution of the force in the additional estimates shall be appropriately placed as in your judgment seems best.

The committee also request that in all cases where in any bureau of your department, under the provisions of section 3 of the act of August 15, 1876 (19 Stat. at L., p. 169), clerks of a lower grade than those provided for in the law are employed, you will, in the case of every such bureau, submit a statement showing in detail what force is allowed by law and what force is actually employed, and how you desire that the appropriations for each of said bureaus shall be made for the fiscal year 1883, should said section 3 be repealed.

Very respectfully,

JAMES C. COURTS,

Assistant Clerk Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives.

HON. ROBERT T. LINCOLN,
Secretary of War.

H. Rep. 1276—3

APPENDIX.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, February 28, 1882.

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the letter addressed to me on the 21st instant by order of the committee, and in answer thereto to say that there are in this department no officers, clerks, or other employés, who are not specifically provided for and appropriated for, but are paid by appropriations made by the government, which are not specifically made in the regular appropriation laws, or other laws, in terms for such purpose, unless the following shall be held to come within that description, viz:

Paid from the appropriation for "contingent expenses, Department of State." Miscellaneous items: J. D. Townley, plumber; M. Durkin, extra laborer; R. H. Wilkinson, extra laborer; Ralph Singleton, extra laborer; John Baltimore, extra watchman.

Paid from the appropriation for "packing the laws," &c.: Albert M. Noyes, packer. And that there are no clerks in this department detailed under the provisions of section 166 of the Revised Statutes.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant,

FRED'K T. FRELINGHUYSEN.

Hon. FRANK HISCOCK,

Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
Washington, D. C., March 4, 1882.

SIR: In reply to your letter of the 21st February, I have the honor to state, for the information of the Committee on Appropriations, that the table marked A contains a list of the employes in the office of the topographer of the Post-Office Department. They are paid out of the sum of $50,000 appropriated for that purpose in the post-office appropriation bill.

In this connection it is proper to say that for the ensuing year these employes have been estimated for specifically in the executive, legislative, and judicial appropriation bill.

Table B contains a list of the employes paid out of what is known as the "temporary" and "lapse" funds. With the exception of the people paid out of the railway mail-service fund, these two lists embrace all the employes in this department who are not specifically appropriated for.

In response to the second paragraph of your letter, I have to say that table C contains, so far as the records of this department show, a list of all clerks who were appointed to one office and are at present employed in another.

I have omitted to send a list of the employes paid out of the railway mail-service fund.

In your letter to the chief clerk of this department, dated March 3, you stated that the enumeration of such officers and clerks was not asked for.

Very respectfully,

T. O. HOWE,
Postmaster-General.

Col. ROBERT J. STEVENS,

Clerk Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives.

NAVY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, February 24, 1882.

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st instant, requesting a statement of the temporary clerks, &c., employed in this department, giving their names, occupation, salary, appropriation from which paid, and authority for such payment.

I inclose herewith a detailed statement giving the desired information so far as the department is able to do so. In the cases of the watchmen who are paid from the appropriations coming under the cognizance of the various bureaus, it is proper to state that before the department moved from the old building into the new quarters, the number of watchmen then allowed by law was insufficient for the care of the building and its protection against fire, from which cause, on several occasions, it came very near being entirely destroyed.

Upon removal into the new building it was found that the present force was absolutely necessary for the protection of the public property in it and in the old building, which is still occupied.

I also inclose a statement showing the number of clerks borne on the rolls of the Bureau of Provisions and Clothing and employed in the office of the Secretary of the Navy and the Bureau of Equipment and Recruiting, as authorized by section 166 of the Revised Statutes.

The distribution of these clerks was found to be necessary and proper for the better dispatch of the public business.

Estimates for the librarian, assistant librarian, and two clerks of the second class in the office of Secretary of the Navy have been submitted with those for the clerical force of the department for the next fiscal year, and are included in the book of estimates prepared by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

WILLIAM H. HUNT,
Secretary of the Navy.

Chairman of Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives.

OFFICE OF PUBLIC PRINTER,
Washington, March 7, 1882.

SIR: In reply to the letter of inquiry from the clerk of the Committee on Appropriations, dated March 4, 1882, I beg leave to make the following statements and suggestions:

The "Office of the Public Printer," as provided for in the legislative appropriation act, is for the following-named force and the salaries paid:

Public Printer	$3,600
Chief clerk	2,000
3 clerks of class 4 (one of whom is disbursing clerk)	5,400
1 clerk of class 2	1,400
1 clerk of class 1, for Congressional Record	1,200
Total	13,600

In addition to the above force there are employed in the "Office of the Public Printer" (and they are actually necessary to carry on the legitimate business of the office) and paid for out of the appropriation for printing and binding, the following-named persons:

W. H. Collins (accounts, &c.), act of June 20, 1878	$1,600 00
M. W. Mitchell (estimates), at $4 per day	1,252 00
A. A. Allison (estimates), at $4 per day	1,252 00
M. W. Chollar (assistant to disbursing clerk), at $4 per day	1,252 00
D. Nicholson (telegraph operator), at $4 per day	1,252 00
I. P. Berthrong (telephone operator), at $4 per day	1,252 00
W. H. Smith (in charge of Record in Senate lobby), at $3.20 per day	1,091 60
A. S. Defrees (messenger to Public Printer), at $3.20 per day	1,091 60
H. K. Collins (recording clerk), at $3 per day	939 00
James Craerin (messenger), at $2 per day	626 00
John Butcher (messenger), at $2 per day	626 00
Total	12,094 20

Making the total disbursements for service rendered in the office of the Public Printer $25,694.20.

In my opinion these should all be provided for in the appropriation for the Public Printer and his clerks, with the following increases, and my reasons therefor:

Salary of the Public Printer	$5,000 00
Chief clerk	2,500 00
1 disbursing clerk	2,250 00
2 clerks of class 4	3,600 00
2 clerks of class 3	3,200 00
3 clerks of class 2	4,200 00
5 clerks of class 1 (2 clerks for Congressional Record, 1 stenographer, 1 telegraph operator, and 1 telephoner)	6,000 00
1 clerk at $1,000 per annum	1,000 00
1 messenger	900 00
1 laborer	840 00
Total	29,490 00

An increase over the amount now paid of $3,796.80.

The bulk of this increase, however, is in the additional compensation asked for for the Public Printer, the chief clerk, and the disbursing officer.

When the office of Public, then Congressional, Printer was first established the salary was fixed at $4,000 per annum, and he was required to give a bond in the sum of $80,000. At this time the disbursements reached about $1,000,000 per annum, and the office was less than one-fourth its present size, and only employed about five hundred people.

In 1876, "in the interests of economy," the salary was reduced to $3,600 per annum and the bond increased to $100,000.

The Public Printer now disburses over $2,000,000 per annum, employs over 2,000 people, and the office is over four times as large as when first established; and as a simple act of justice the salary should be on a par with positions of like trust and responsibility, and placed at least at $5,000 per annum.

The Chief Clerk, like the Public Printer, should "be a practical printer and versed in the art of bookbinding." The duties are very onerous, for the executive work of the establishment devolves on this officer. At present the salary is $2,000 per annum, while subordinate positions, those of Foreman of Printing and Foreman of Binding, each receive an annual compensation fixed by law of $2,100. The Chief Clerk should get $2,500.

The present disbursing clerk has filled the position for 21 years. He is not a bonded officer—the Public Printer being responsible for all moneys disbursed. But as the disbursing clerk makes good any loss, disbursing as he does nearly $200,000 per month, he should receive the same compensation as like positions in the executive departments, namely, $2,250 per annum.

When Congress sent the Congressional Record to the Government Printing Office it provided for one clerk of class one to keep the accounts. In addition to this clerk we have found it necessary to keep an additional clerk at the Capitol, and during night sessions receives no extra compensation. During the time Congress is not in session he assists in the office. He should be made one of the first class clerks included in my estimate of five.

Hoping that the information contained in the foregoing statements are in compliance with the letter of inquiry, and that the suggestions will meet with favorable consideration,

I am, sir, yours respectfully,

A. F. CHILDS,
Chief Clerk.

Hon. FRANK HISCOCK,
Chairman Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,
Washington, D. C., March 8, 1882.

SIR: I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st ultimo, asking to be furnished, for the use of the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, with a statement which shall set forth in number, names, class or occupation, salaries and wages or pay, information showing what officers, clerks or other employes are now in service in this department, who are not specifically provided and appropriated for, but are paid from appropriations made by the government which are not specifically made in the regular appropriation laws, or other laws in terms for such purpose, and if any such, information as to what fund they are respectively paid from, and the amount paid each per year, month, or day, and the authority for such employment. Also, a statement showing what clerks are detailed under the provisions of section 166 Revised Statutes, to which bureaus they were appointed and to what detailed.

In reply, I have to state that I transmit herewith a statement setting forth in detail the information above requested, so far as relates to the department in Washington, with the exception of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, a statement covering which is now being prepared, but owing to the large number of employes therein, who are paid from appropriations in bulk, it will require from a week to ten days to complete it. As soon as completed the statement will be transmitted.

The information concerning other employes of this department employed outside of Washington is also being prepared and will be forwarded at the earliest date practicable.

Very respectfully,

CHAS. J. FOLGER,
Secretary.

Mr. ROBERT J. STEVENS,
Clerk to Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives.

The persons enrolled as assistant operatives are appointed from time to time, as emergencies arise, by the chief of the division, and their compensation is also fixed by the chief, with the concurrence of the Solicitor of the Treasury. These sub-agents bear no commission and carry no document or badge to show that they are in any manner connected with the United States Government, for the reason that they have to consort with the criminal classes, and should their true character be known their work would fail and their lives jeopardized. Their names appear on the secret archives of this office, and can be seen by any person duly authorized to inspect our records.

For the above reasons I have given their number and pay, leaving a blank in lieu of their names. If it is not the purpose of the Committee on Appropriations to publish names, I can see no objection in submitting their names to that committee, as I did recently to a subcommittee of the Senate on investigation of expenditures in the Treasury Department. But if it is designed to make public all names given to said committee, then in the interest of good government and humanity I earnestly entreat you to sustain this office in withholding the names. The duties of these assistant operatives expose them to numerous hardships and great dangers, and so far as may be consistent with the best public policy they should receive protection. Since my connection with the service four of this class have been murdered. (Extract from letter of Chief of Secret Service.)

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
March 14, 1882.

SIR: I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st ultimo, asking to be furnished, for the use of the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, with a statement which shall set forth in number, names, class or occupation, salary and wages or pay, information showing what officers, clerks, or other employes are now in service in this department who are not specifically provided and appropriated for; but are paid from appropriations made by the government which are not specifically made in the regular appropriation laws, or other laws in terms for such purpose, and, if any such, information as to what fund they are respectively paid from, and the amount paid each per year, month, or day, and the authority for such employment; also a statement showing what clerks are detailed under the provisions of section 166, Revised Statutes, to which bureaus they were appointed and to what detailed.

In reply, I have to state that I transmit herewith statements setting forth in detail the information above requested, so far as relates to the employes paid from the following named appropriations:

For pay of custodians and janitors of public buildings; for fuel, lights, and water; for repairs and preservation; for furniture and repairs of furniture; for additional inspectors of customs; for cattle commissioners; and for salaries and expenses of steamboat inspectors, and clerks to local boards, not specifically provided for.

By reason of the vast business interests, extending over the entire country, requiring constant changes in the numbers, station, length of service, and rates of compensation of the employes in the customs, internal-revenue, and light-house services, it is almost impossible in the limited time to furnish a statement covering these branches of the department; but if the honorable committee desire such information it will be furnished as soon as practicable.

Very respectfully,

W. F. FRENCH,
Acting Secretary.

Mr. ROBERT J. STEVENS,
Clerk to Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, March 14, 1882.

Hon. FRANK HISCOCK,
*Chairman Committee on Appropriations,
 House of Representatives:*

SIR: As requested in your letter of the 21st ultimo, I transmit herewith a statement showing number, class, and salary of the employés of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, not specifically provided for in the appropriation laws.

The chief of the bureau in his letter transmitting this information, says:

"In submitting this statement I beg to add that the employment of these persons depends entirely upon the amount of work to be executed from month to month, upon orders received from the Treasurer of the United States, the Comptroller of the Currency, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and the several officers of the Treasury and other departments of the government requiring work.

"If, therefore, this information is asked for by the Appropriation Committee as a basis for legislation, they should also be informed of the fact that, owing to fluctuations in the work, it is frequently necessary during the fiscal year to require the force of the bureau to work from one to two hours beyond the time ordinarily fixed for a working day, and at other times to furlough large numbers of them for want of work. The necessities of business are such that the demand for national-bank notes, internal-revenue stamps, checks, &c., cannot be so regulated as to give steady and uniform employment to a given number of employés in this bureau; and to provide by law for a specific number with a definite amount of pay during the fiscal year would have the effect of cramping the bureau at times, when the demand for work was urgent, by limiting its power to work beyond the hours established for an ordinary day's work, and of compelling it to carry more employés than would otherwise be necessary at times when the work was slack."

The statement covering the employés of the Coast and Geodetic Survey has not yet been completed; it will be forwarded as soon as possible.

Very respectfully,

H. F. FRENCH,
Acting Secretary.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, March 17, 1882.

SIR: In addition to the information heretofore furnished in answer to your letter of the 21st ultimo, I have the honor to state that the following persons are employed in the revenue cutter service, and paid from the appropriation for expenses of said service, to wit:

Edwin Emery, employed as instructor of cadets, under authority of department letter of August 7, 1877, at a compensation of one hundred and sixty-six and $\frac{66}{100}$ dollars per month. This gentleman is employed on the school-ship at New Bedford, Mass., in the work of instructing the cadets in the academical branches of study, his services being necessary in addition to those of the officers of the vessel, who are the instructors in all branches of professional knowledge.

Mr. Charles E. Emery, consulting engineer, is employed under authority of department letter of March 4, 1872, and of April 9, 1878, at a compensation of one hundred and fifty dollars per month. His services are necessary in the designing of new steam machinery for vessels of the service and the work of repairs upon the machinery of vessels already built; also, in consultation upon the general operations of the machinery of vessels.

Mr. Rudolph Steuler, naval architect, is employed temporarily under authority of department letter of March 25, 1881, at a compensation of one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month; his services being essential to the superintendent of construction of revenue vessels in designing the hulls and preparing necessary models and specifications for new vessels and boats.

James D. Slack, with compensation at one hundred and fifty dollars per month, is employed in the office of the superintendent of construction of revenue vessels in New York, in copying specifications for vessels and bids and assisting in the correspondence regarding the construction and repairs of vessels; authority of department letter of December 21, 1881.

Robert Harris, with compensation at sixty dollars per month, and Peter Rogers, with compensation at fifty dollars per month, are employed respectively under authority of department letters of July 9, 1874, at the office in New York, in the necessary work of looking after the shipping of articles purchased at that port for revenue vessels and such other matters as are committed to the office.

Authority of law for the employment of all the foregoing is found under the clause in the annual sundry civil appropriation bill providing, under the head of revenue marine, for instruction of cadets, and labor.

Pilots and other members of the crews of revenue vessels are employed under the provision of section 2749 of the Revised Statutes. The wages of these are changed from time to time, in conformity to law, to correspond with the wages of persons employed in like capacities in the merchant marine.

Very respectfully,

CHAS. J. FOLGER,
Secretary.

Hon. FRANK HISCOCK,
Chairman of Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives.

The pay proper of these men is paid from the appropriation "pay of the Army"; their extra-duty pay, commutation of quarters, and commutation of fuel are paid from the appropriations of the Quartermaster's Department; and their commutation of rations is paid from the appropriation "subsistence of the Army." These several allowances of commutation are granted by authority of the Secretary of War. In addition, they are entitled to commutation for clothing not drawn, varying in amount from $69 to $30 per annum according to period of service, and is paid from the appropriation for "pay of the Army" at the time of final discharge. They are also entitled to "retained pay" at time of discharge, at rates prescribed by section 1281, Revised Statutes.

There are no officers, clerks, or other employes now in service in this bureau, other than the above, who are "not specifically provided for and appropriated for, but are paid from appropriations made by the government which are not specifically made in the regular appropriation laws, or other laws, in terms, for such purpose."

There are no clerks detailed for duty in this bureau under section 166, Revised Statutes.

Respectfully, your obedient servant,

ROBERT N. SCOTT,
Brevet Lieut. Col. U. S. Army.

WAR RECORDS OFFICE, February 27, 1882.

NAVY DEPARTMENT.

[Reply to committee's letter of 28th March.]

NAVY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, March 21, 1882.

SIR: In compliance with the request of the Committee on Appropriations, I have the honor to submit herewith supplemental estimates for the permanent and temporary clerical force of this department.

Sheet No. 1 embraces the clerks, messengers, and laborers required for the inspection, examining, and retiring boards, for the office of the Judge-Advocate-General of the Navy, and for the office of the Secretary of the Navy.

The boards mentioned are continuously in session. The civil employes connected with them have heretofore been and are now paid from contingent of the Navy.

The clerks of the Secretary's office and the Judge-Advocate's office are now employed and paid from contingent of the Navy. The regular clerical force provided for in the annual executive appropriation bill is not sufficient to perform the current work of the department.

The two assistant messengers are now paid as laborers, one at $50 a month, from contingent of the Navy, the other $55 a month, from "ordnance." They are both needed, one of them for the Secretary of the Navy and the other for the chief clerk.

A branch printing-office in the Navy Department is absolutely necessary for the prompt dispatch of business, as much matter cannot well be sent to the Government Printing Office, and again great delay is often avoided by being able to do certain kinds of printing in the department. The amount asked for covers the pay of its employes, now paid by the Public Printer, and contingencies which are now paid from contingent Navy.

The telegraphic office, the library, and the elevator require the services of the persons for which estimates are made. All these are now paid from contingent Navy.

The item extra-clerk hire, copying, and recording is to pay principally the ladies who are employed in indexing back records and answering the calls of Congress. These are now paid from contingent Navy.

Sheet No. 2 embraces estimates for the watchmen, laborers, and charwomen now employed and paid from different appropriations.

They are usefully employed, and during a great part of the next fiscal year the Navy Department expects to occupy the entire east wing of the building.

Sheet No. 3 embraces the force employed in certain bureaus of the department who are not provided for in the annual legislative appropriation act.

The chiefs of these bureaus represent the necessity of this force. No estimates have been submitted for the Signal Office and the Naval Dispensary.

The additional force required by the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery is necessary to facilitate calls connected with pensions, the records of which are on file in that bureau; these calls have greatly increased recently, which require the force asked for.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

WILLIAM H. HUNT,
Secretary of the Navy.

HON. FRANK HISCOCK,
Chairman Committee on Appropriations House of Representatives.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
GENERAL LAND OFFICE,
Washington, D. C., March 30, 1882.

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge receipt, by your reference of 29th instant, of copy of letter of the 28th from the assistant clerk of House Committee on Appropriations, and, in compliance with its request and your directions, to report as follows:

The force authorized by law for this office for the current fiscal year is—

Commissioner, $4,000.
Chief clerk, $2,000.
Law clerk, $2,000.
Recorder, $2,000.

3 principal clerks, at $1,800.
16 clerks of class 4, at $1,800.
30 clerks of class 3, at $1,600.
40 clerks of class 2, at $1,400.
62 clerks of class 1, at $1,200.
30 clerks, at $720.
15 copyists, at $900.
1 draughtsman.
1 assistant draughtsman.
9 assistant messengers, at $720.
6 packers, at $720.
12 laborers, at $720.

Now employed.
Commissioner.
Chief clerk.
Law clerk.
Recorder.

3 principal clerks.
14 clerks class 4.
28 clerks class 3.
45 clerks class 2.
53 clerks class 1.
10 clerks.
48 copyists.
3 copyists, at $840.
10 assistant messengers.
6 packers.
12 laborers.

Under the recent deficiency appropriation of $25,000—

1 clerk of class 1, $1,200.
3 clerks, at $1,000.
16 clerks, at $900.
3 clerks, at $840.

78 clerks, at $720.
1 clerk at $660.
1 clerk at $600.

My estimates for 1883 are as follows:

Commissioner, $5,000.
Deputy commissioner, $3,000.
3 inspectors of surveyor-general and district land offices, at $3,000 each.
Chief clerk, $2,500.
Law officer, $2,500.
Recorder, $2,000.
3 principal clerks, at $2,000 each.
6 chiefs of division, at $2,000 each.
Receiving clerk, $2,000.

Chief draughtsman, $2,000.
35 clerks of class 4, at $1,800 each.
50 clerks of class 3, at $1,600 each.
60 clerks of class 2, at $1,400 each.
55 clerks of class 1, at $1,200 each.
35 copyists, at $900 each.
Chief messenger, at $900.
8 assistant messengers, at $720 each.
6 packers, at $720 each.
12 laborers, at $660 each.

It will be observed that to some extent the appropriations for the higher salaries have been used for the payment of employes in the lower grades. This arrangement was the result of an immense accumulation of approved settlement land entries, awaiting the writing and recording of patents, and other detail work of a low grade connected therewith, and which, without inexcusable disregard of the rights of actual settlers, I was compelled to dispose of at the earliest moment possible, even if it involved the postponement of other business of a high grade, involving large values. This arrangement of salaries is only temporary, however, and as soon as the end of the current fiscal year the same will have been disposed of, and a rearrangement of salaries, and the employment of a different class of clerks, will be as necessary as was the temporary employment of said low-grade copyists.

The only change which I can recommend is to add to my former estimates two clerks, as general examiners, at $2,000; twenty-seven clerks, at $1,000; and five copyists, at $900.

After careful consideration, I can make no other rearrangement whatever, and submit this increased estimate for the following reasons:

1. A present knowledge of larger arrears than had come to my attention when the original estimate was made.

2. The additional force, in disposing of a larger number of cases (perfecting them for patent), will necessitate an additional number of patent writers and recorders, and, as under the specific classification now indicated by the House committee, no adjustment of the clerical force may be possible beyond the class and arrangement of salaries appropriated for, and as the higher clerkships are absolutely necessary in order to a disposition of the more difficult class of work, I am convinced that, without this additional estimate, I would be compelled to ask a deficiency appropriation during the year in order to properly perform the work.

The business of nearly all the divisions of this office has steadily, and, in several of the most important divisions, largely increased over what it was a few years ago. For illustration, I refer to the division having in charge the examination and decision of mineral-land entries, contests, and patenting the same.

On July 1, 1878, said division had 12 clerks.

On July 1, 1879, said division had 14 clerks.

On July 1, 1880, said division had 18 clerks.

On July 1, 1881, said division had 23 clerks.

At this date, March 30, 1882, it has 36 clerks, and its regular work is over one year in arrears, is increasing every month, and will doubtless increase for several years to come, while a larger class of work, aside from the regular disposition of entries, has been almost entirely neglected for some years.

This condition is not chargeable to any neglect whatever. The business presented for disposition has simply increased. In this connection it is not inappropriate to simply call attention to the land legislation of the last few years; to that now pending in Congress, and to the labor which new laws and methods of disposition impose upon this office; to the fact that the titles to two-thirds of all the territory of the United States emanate from this office; that the work resulting from being the custodian of proof and records relating thereto is in itself very large, and that meanwhile the current work on present claims, which, under all the various laws, are pressing for adjustment, increasing in numbers and difficulty, and affecting a large class of citizens, is daily growing in volume.

I merely add that the work cannot be done, and the public and individual interests cannot be served with a less clerical force than I have indicated.

Having thus communicated, in the brief, the necessities of this branch of the service, I have performed my duty, and leave the responsibility with the appropriate committee and Congress.

With reference to the appropriation for contingent expenses, district land-offices, I would state that a certain class of work, like preparing new tract books and transcribing therein the entries, filings, areas, &c., must be done in this office because the original records are here; other work arising from like necessities must be done in this office. It is impossible to foresee just what will be necessary in this class of work, as it is in its nature largely contingent upon future events. If it be necessary to make such estimate now, I would indicate the present number of employes now paid from said appropriation, to wit, one at $1,200, and six at $900 each.

Under the appropriation for swamp-land claims there exists substantially the same difficulty in making specific estimate. A portion of the work is done in the field and a part is done here. The nearest estimate I can make is one clerk at $1,600, and seven at $1,200.

Under the appropriation for depredations on public timber there should be authorized—

1 agent, at	$1,600
1 agent, at	1,500
2 agents, at	1,400
24 agents, at	1,200

and their actual expenses.

I deem it very desirable, however, so far as these last three appropriations are concerned, that authority be given to use the money as the necessities of the service may require.

Copy of letter herewith returned.
Very respectfully,

N. C. McFARLAND,
Commissioner.

Hon. S. J. KIRKWOOD,
Secretary of the Interior.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
Washington, March 30, 1882.

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt, by reference from the department, of a copy of a letter from the Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives, asking in relation to the clerical force of this office, and, in reply thereto, I inclose herewith statement showing the number of employes of the several grades now allowed by law, and the number actually employed at this date. In regard to the request of the committee for information "how you desire that they shall be appropriated for for the fiscal year 1883," I would state that I think it would be for the best interest of the service to make the appropriation for the Indian Office, except in case of the chief clerk, three chiefs of division, and bookkeeper, as per my estimate, in bulk, and allow the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to pay the different employes such salaries as in his judgment the nature of their work and efficiency of the employes justify, the annual salary of any clerk in no case to exceed the sum of $1,800. But should this suggestion fail to meet the approval of the Committee on Appropriations, I recommend the following number of employes (in addition to the chief clerk, at $2,500 per annum): Three chiefs of division, at $2,400 per annum; one bookkeeper, at $1,800; three clerks of class 4; ten of class 3; one stenographer; sixteen of class 2; ten of class 1; thirteen clerks at $1,000; eight copyists, at $900; two messengers, at $840; two assistant messengers, at $720; and three laborers, at $660.

Should the three chiefs of division not be allowed, the appropriation for financial clerk as now made by law, at $2,000 per annum, should be made, and the number of fourth class clerks increased from three to six.

The increase in the messengers and laborers is especially recommended, from the fact that the rooms of the Commissioner and chief clerk are on the second story, and those of all the clerks on the first, and the limited number of messengers often requires high-grade clerks to devote part of their time to do errands, and attend to business in connection with their work which ought to be performed by messengers and laborers. I would also add that the salary of the chief clerk should be increased as in my estimate. I also request that the solicitor estimated for be allowed.

Your recommendation for an assistant commissioner is one that should be allowed as any one acquainted with the business of the office will agree.

Very respectfully,

H. PRICE,
Commissioner.

Honorable SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

INDIAN OFFICE.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER OF RAILROADS,
Washington, March 30, 1882.

Hon. S. J. KIRKWOOD,
Secretary of the Interior:

SIR: I am in receipt of a communication of House of Representatives Committee on Appropriations referred by you to this office for "immediate attention and report."

I have the honor to reply to the question therein contained as follows:

Present force in the office, which corresponds with the legal appropriation, is—

	Annual salary.
Commissioner	$4,500 00
Bookkeeper	2,400 00
Assistant bookkeeper	2,000 00
Railroad engineer	2,500 00
1 second class clerk	1,400 00
1 copyist	900 00
1 messenger	600 00
Amounting in all to	14,300 00

It is submitted that the following estimate for salary appropriation for this bureau for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1883, be requested:

	Annual salary.
Commissioner	$5,000 00
Bookkeeper	2,500 00
Assistant bookkeeper	2,000 00
Engineer	2,500 00
Clerk, class 4	1,800 00
Clerk, class 3	1,600 00
1 copyist	900 00
1 messenger	720 00
Amounting in all to	17,020 00

The appropriation for the current fiscal year for traveling expenses was $2,500, and for contingent expenses was $300.

The estimate submitted for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1883, was for traveling expenses, $3,000; and for contingent expenses, $500.

For law books and book cases $1,500 is required, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Railroads.

I desire respectfully to call particular attention to the necessity of providing this office with the facilities for examining the various questions of law which arise in the discharge of its duties.

There are, at present, no railroad reports nor any other books which treat particularly of the rights and duties of railroads or their relations to the government in this department.

A few scattered and miscellaneous reports and the United States Statutes are all the law books now in this office.

The law books in the department have been selected chiefly in reference to the requirements of the different bureaus, which leaves this office especially bare in the class of books which it especially requires.

In selecting books I should avoid duplication of any which are now accessible in the department.

Any books purchased for this bureau would be accessible to any other in the department, and I believe would tend to promote the interests of the government.

Respectfully,

W. H. ARMSTRONG,
Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE,
Washington, D. C., April 5, 1882.

Hon. S. J. KIRKWOOD,
Secretary of the Interior:

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt, by departmental reference, of a copy of a letter addressed to you on the 28th ultimo, by James C. Courts, assistant clerk of the Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives, requesting you "to submit estimates for whatever portion of the force now in service in your department included in said letter as are deemed absolutely necessary" (letter of the 16th ultimo).

In your letter of the 16th ultimo to the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives, you mentioned a number of persons in this bureau who are paid for their services out of the contingent fund. It is impossible for me to submit an estimate as to the exact number of persons which may be required to perform such labor as those persons are now performing; four of them are carpenters, and are employed in making repairs in the different rooms occupied by this bureau, and the others are employed in moving copies of patents from the basement of the building to the west model hall. I hope in a short time to dispense with the services of nearly all, if not all, of these persons. It may be necessary, however, during the next fiscal year, to temporarily employ persons for similar work. From inquiry made, I learn that persons heretofore employed on this kind of work have always been paid out of the contingent fund, and have not been borne on any salary roll. I think it would be better to have the appropriation for the contingent expenses so drawn that such laborers may be paid out of that fund.

In relation to the next class of persons mentioned in your letter, viz: copyists of drawings, I herewith submit an estimate for the same number of persons now employed, and at the same salaries. I much prefer that the appropriation for these persons should be included in the regular appropriation for salaries.

For several years past this force has been paid out of the appropriation for photolithographing burnt and exhausted copies of patents of drawings.

In relation to the persons mentioned under the head of "abridgment of letters-patent," I have to state that the appropriation simply authorized the abridgment of patents issued by this office without specifying or designating how the force to do the work was to be paid. The persons mentioned in your letter have been paid out of that fund, because in that way, and that way only, could the work be commenced and carried on. I herewith submit an estimate for twelve clerks at $1,200 each, and three copyists at $900 each, for the continuation of the abridgments. With the present accommodations for rooms, this is as large a number of persons as can be well employed, and is the number I intended to employ on the work during the next year. The reason why I have increased the estimate for their salaries is because, having been employed on the work for several months, and thoroughly mastered it, their services will be worth, during the next year, the sum herein stated.

In relation to the request of the committee, in the last part of the letter, that "in all cases where in any bureau of your department, under the provisions of section 3 of the act of August 15, 1876, vol. 19, p. 169, Statutes at Large, clerks of a lower grade than those provided for in the law are employed," &c., I herewith submit a statement showing the number of persons provided for in the appropriation act for the fiscal year 1881-'82; the number of persons estimated for, for the fiscal year 1882-'83; the number of persons now employed in the bureau, and also the number of persons, under the head of "roll proposed," I desire to have provided for in the appropriation for this bureau during the next fiscal year.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

E. M. MARBLE,
Commissioner.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington City, April 17, 1882.

HON. FRANK HISCOCK,
Chairman Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives.

SIR: In compliance with the request of the committee, dated March 28, 1882, I have the honor to submit herewith supplemental estimates of amounts required for salaries of the clerical and other force in the War Department and bureaus for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1883. They include every person employed in the War Department and its bureaus in Washington, and will obviate the necessity of providing for any such services out of other appropriations.

These estimates have been prepared with great care, and, although they exceed the amounts now paid the force from current appropriations, I am of opinion that, in view of the very great increase of business in this department and its bureaus during the last ten years, and which is constantly increasing, the best interests of the service demand a more liberal compensation to the trained clerks and employes than that now received by them.

The pay of these faithful and efficient employes should be commensurate with their arduous and responsible duties, and at rates somewhat approaching those paid in the other executive departments, and I therefore respectfully recommend these estimates to the favorable consideration of the committee.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

ROBERT T. LINCOLN,
Secretary of War.

H. Rep. 1276—8

ESTIMATES FOR SALARIES, WAR DEPARTMENT AND ITS BUREAUS, 1883.

Estimates of appropriations required for the service of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1883, by the War Department.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.

General object. (Title of appropriation.)	Detailed objects of expenditure, and explanations.	Date of acts, resolutions, or treaties, authorizing or providing for the ex- penditures.	References to Stat- utes at Large or to Revised Stat- utes.			Estimated amount which will be required for each detailed object of ex- penditure.	Total amount to be ap- propriated under each head of appropriation.	Amount appropriated for the current fiscal year ending June 30, 1882.

Salaries, Office of Sec- retary of War.	Secretary	R. S.	35	214	$8,000 00
	Chief clerk (increase submitted)				3,000 00
	NOTE.—Section 215 of the Revised Statutes as amended February 27, 1877, prescribes that the chief clerk shall, in the absence of, or when there is a vacancy in the office of the Secretary of War, have charge and custody of all records, books, and papers appertaining to said department, and the act of March 4, 1874, (18 Statutes, 19), authorizes the chief clerk, in the absence of the Secretary, when so directed by him, to sign requisitions and other papers. In view of the great labor and responsibility devolving upon the chief clerk, there being no assistant secretary in this department, his salary should be $3,000.
	Disbursing clerk (increase submitted)	R. S.	35	215	2,400 00
	NOTE.—The office of disbursing clerk was created and the compensation fixed by the act of March 3, 1853 (vol. 10, Statutes at Large, p. 211). At that time the civil force of this department consisted of sixty-two clerks of all grades, whose annual salaries aggregated about $90,000. There are now on the civil list 918 persons, with an annual salary total exceeding $1,100,000, and a contingent-fund account of about $100,000 more. In the Treasury Department there are five disbursing clerks, two of whom receive each a compensation of $2,500 per annum, and the disbursing clerk of the Interior Department is allowed $1,000 per annum, in addition to his regular salary, for disbursing the appropriation for care and improvement of the Capitol buildings and grounds, making his compensation $3,000 per annum. In view of the great increase of labor and responsibility devolved upon the disbursing clerk his salary should be increased to $2,400.

Three chiefs of divisions at $2,250 each (increase submitted)	Mar. 3, 1881	21	402	1	6,750 00
NOTE.—One additional chief of division for division of requisitions and accounts is now estimated for, in lieu of the officer of infantry who has been relieved from duty, and who received per annum pay and allowances amounting to $3,231.96. The chiefs of divisions in the office of the Secretary of War have similar duties and responsibilities as the chiefs of divisions in the other executive departments, and should have equal pay. In the office of the Secretary of the Treasury this grade is paid at the rate of $2,500 to $2,750 per annum. In justice to these three clerks they should be placed on an equal footing with the same grade in the other executive departments.
Four clerks at $2,000 each	Submitted				8,000 00
NOTE.—This item is for one clerk in the office of the chief clerk and for three assistant chiefs of divisions. Assistant chiefs of divisions in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury receive from $2,000 to $2,400 each, and the four clerks who act as assistant chiefs of divisions in this office should be adequately compensated therefor.
Stenographer (increase submitted)	Mar. 3, 1881	21	402	1	2,000 00
NOTE.—The position is an arduous one and of great responsibility, calling for the services of a stenographer of experience and special ability. The stenographer to the Secretary of the Treasury receives a salary of $2,000, the amount of this estimate for stenographer to Secretary of War.
Five clerks of class four	do				9,000 00
Five clerks of class three	do				8,000 00
NOTE.—Including one clerk of class three now paid from the appropriation for rebel archives branch.
Five clerks of class two	do				7,000 00
NOTE.—Including one clerk of class two now paid from appropriation for rebel archives branch.
Twenty-seven clerks of class one	do				32,400 00
NOTE.—There are now authorized, by the legislative appropriation act, fifteen clerks of class one, and one clerk at $1,000, under the title "Salaries, office of Secretary of War" three clerks of class two, under the title "Rebel archives branch," and one clerk is paid $1,000 from appropriation for "Examinations and surveys at South Pass"; there are also six general-service sergeants and nine general-service privates, making in all thirty-two men of class one and under, and in place of the thirty-two men who are efficient clerks and have long been in government employ, and thoroughly competent, it is proposed to promote five to a higher grade, and substitute twenty-seven clerks of class one. There are now

ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE, April 11, 1882.

* * I have stated the number of clerks to be fixed for the several grades higher than class one, after due consideration of the needs of the office, the character of the work performed, and the responsible positions to be filled; and I have been exceedingly careful not to exceed the just proportion of such grades due to the whole number of clerks employed. I am quite satisfied that an increased supervisory force is absolutely necessary to facilitate the working of my office.

This organization does not include the increase of force (5 clerks of class four, 8 clerks of class three, 12 clerks of class two, 125 clerks of class one, 7 assistant messengers at $720, 7 watchmen at $720, and 3 laborers at $660 per annum) asked for by letter of March 16, 1882, in which the reasons that make the increase necessary were fully stated, and which, with the letter of the Secretary of War to the President and the President's message transmitting the same to Congress, is printed in Executive Document No. 134, House of Representatives, 47th Congress, 1st session.

NOTE.—The clerical services contemplated to be performed by the additional clerks estimated for will be of a high order, requiring judgment, discretion, and education, such as will enable this office to dispense with the services of commissioned officers detailed in it for duty, in order that these officers may be assigned to departments where they belong, and where their services are greatly needed. As this bureau is called upon to advise on questions touching the rights, duties, &c., of officers and soldiers, and on miscellaneous questions of law arising in the administration of the War Department, as well as to revise and review all cases of courts-martial in the service, an adequate and efficient clerical force is imperatively required. The present force of clerks is entirely inadequate to efficiently discharge the duties coming within the scope of this office. With the view, therefore, of increasing the efficiency of the office, and to meet the wants and necessities of the public service, the increase in the clerical force submitted is deemed to be absolutely necessary. An increase of two clerks is necessary to prepare reports in pension cases. The chief clerk, two clerks, and one assistant messenger, are authorized by the legislative, &c., appropriation act of March 3, 1881, and are paid $5,320 therefrom; one clerk to judge-advocate, transferred from Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, is paid $1,500; three enlisted men (of the thirty authorized by said act for the War Department) employed as clerks, are paid $3,215.27; and one enlisted man (of the thirty so authorized) is employed as a messenger and paid $955.66, making amount paid from Army appropriations $5,670.93.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER,
Washington City, April 12, 1882.

SIR: Referring to circular from the department, dated the 5th instant, directing the chiefs of bureaus to frame an organization of their respective offices which shall include the entire number of persons employed in any capacity, and to be graded as nearly as may be practicable in conformity to the grades recognized in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation bill, I have the honor to inclose herewith a classification of the employes of this office, graded as nearly as is practicable.

The number of employes of the different classes and grades, specified in the inclosed list, is the least possible that can properly discharge the duties now devolving upon this office.

The pay-rolls of the civil employes at this office for the month of March last aggregate $3,965, which for one year amounts to $47,580, a sum less than is provided for in the inclosed memorandum of organization of only $4,780 per annum, and this difference is nearly balanced by the pay of three general-service men, provided for in the proposed organization.

Two clerks of class four and one of class one and one assistant messenger are now provided for by law for this office. The proposed organization provides for two additional clerks of class three; this, however, will be but an increase of $200 per annum, as the persons employed are now receiving a compensation of $125 per month, their duties being of a scientific character and very valuable to the office.

The three computers (assistants to the civilian assistant to the Chief Signal Officer) are now receiving each a compensation of $1,600 per annum, but with the understanding that their salary will be annually increased to $1,700 and to $1,800 if their employment should continue.

In the event of the civil employes of this office being provided for as contemplated by the honorable Secretary, I would recommend that the Chief Signal Officer be allowed discretionary power to a limited extent in employing civilians temporarily in time of emergency. The increasing work of the office demanding an increasing force of employes, makes it certain that a discretionary authority to employ such a force should, as heretofore, be vested in the Chief Signal Officer.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

JAS. W. POWELL,
Captain Sixth Infantry, Acting Chief Signal Officer.

To the honorable the SECRETARY OF WAR.

NOTE.—This shows an actual increase of three clerks, viz., one of class three, one of class one, and one of $1,000, as, in compliance with the circular, it is proposed to add to class three the clerk now engaged in the bounty division and paid from the civil appropriation bill, and one to the $1,000 class, now paid as general service clerk. Thus, while two clerks are proposed to be added to each of these classes, there is really one of each added to the present force of the bureau. In consequence of the large and increasing number of calls for information from the Second Auditor in reference to pay of officers, back pay, and bounty of enlisted men and other calls from the Court of Claims and Congress, the business of the office has fallen in arrears, and the increase is necessary to bring and keep it up promptly and satisfactorily. The employés are now paid from appropriations as follows:

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF ENGINEERS,
UNITED STATES ARMY,
Washington, D. C., April 11, 1882.

SIR: In compliance with the department circular of April 5, I have the honor to submit herewith an organization framed for this office, in tabulated form, including every person employed in any capacity, graded as nearly as practicable in conformity to the grades recognized in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act.

The two civil engineers included in the table submitted are men of high professional attainments, whose services are indispensable to the discharge of the duties of this office until such time as the number of officers of the corps shall be so increased as to afford officers in their places.*

The present temporary clerks, in addition to the permanent organization, are all necessary at this time. Their number depends largely on the amount appropriated for the works of fortification and river and harbor improvement, being increased or diminished as necessity may require; and it does not seem to me wise to add them to the permanent organization regardless of such necessity. This temporary force is paid out of the contingent appropriations for fortifications and rivers and harbors.

Similar considerations apply to the enlisted general-service clerks and other employes. Their present number not being fixed, but varying with the wants of the office, seems to me judicious; and any proposition to add them to the permanent organization does not therefore commend itself to my judgment as being in the interest of economy or efficiency.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

H. G. WRIGHT,
Chief of Engineers, Brig. and Brevet Maj. Gen.

HON. ROBERT T. LINCOLN,
Secretary of War.

[Indorsement.]

WAR DEPARTMENT,
April 17, 1882.

The Secretary of War recognizes the considerations which require that the force employed by the Chief of Engineers varies in number according to the amount of work to be done, and the appropriations available, but he thinks that it would be quite as well for the bureau, and much better as a system, that the employes should all be paid out of the regular appropriations for that purpose and not as now from various sources. This applies especially to the class of general-service clerks, whom the Secretary considers it very desirable should be replaced by civilian clerks. It would seem easy to make a provision respecting the office of the Chief of Engineers which should be sufficient for all work, but it would be assumed that the Chief of Engineers would recommend the discharge of unnecessary employes, and the Secretary of War would certainly not direct unnecessary employes to be taken on the roll even if there was an appropriation sufficient to pay them.

ROBERT T. LINCOLN,
Secretary of War.

*The two civil engineers are not included in the estimate, for the reason that they are considered a part of the permanent force of the Engineer Corps, and are liable to be ordered for duty whenever the necessities of the service require.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington City, April 26, 1882.

SIR: In answer to a communication of the 25th instant, from J. C. Courts, assistant clerk of the committee, requesting statement of buildings in this city rented by the War Department; also, list of clerks employed in the claims branch of the Quartermaster-General's office, I have the honor to forward herewith a statement of all buildings in this city rented by this department, the purpose for which used, and amount and appropriations from which paid. The statement is exclusive of the amounts paid from appropriations in the legislative, &c., appropriation bill of March 3, 1881, as follows:

Office.	Location.	Appropriation.	Amount.
Quartermaster-General's Office	Fifteenth and Pennsylvania avenue.	Rent of building Fifteenth and Pennsylvania avenue.	$10,000
Surgeon-General's Office	do	Contingent expenses (rent) Office of Surgeon-General.	3,200
Do	Tenth and F streets, N. W.	do	1,500
Paymaster-General's Office	1412 F street, N. W.	Rent of building on F street, N. W.	4,500
Commissary-General's Office	Madison Place	Contingent expenses (rent) Office of Commissary-General.	2,500
Adjutant-General's Office	610 Seventeenth st., N. W.	Rent of building, Office of Adjutant-General.	1,200
Total	22,900

I am advised that all the buildings now occupied are and will be required during the fiscal year 1883.

I also forward a statement of all persons employed by the depot quartermaster in this city (not "claims branch or division in the Quartermaster-General's office," as stated in Mr. Courts's letter). These persons are employed in the depot quartermaster's office, and paid from appropriations for the Army, the same as all other employes in the Quartermaster's Department outside of Washington; and I perceive no reason why the employes of this particular depot should be included in the legislative, &c., appropriation bill, rather than the employes of other depots. The Washington depot is not more closely connected with the department than other depots.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

ROBERT T. LINCOLN,
Secretary of War.

Hon. J. G. CANNON,
Of Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives.

DEPOT QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE,
Washington, D. C., April 28, 1882.

To the QUARTERMASTER-GENERAL OF THE ARMY:

GENERAL: Referring to your communication of the 26th instant, calling for reports of the number of buildings rented by the government in this city, the number of clerks and other persons employed in the Quartermaster's Department in Washington during the present fiscal year, &c., I have the honor to submit the following reports, containing the information called for, so far as this office is concerned:

I.

1. Report of buildings rented by the United States in Washington, D. C., and used by the bureaus of the War Department, the rental of which is paid by the depot quartermaster in this city, for that portion of the present fiscal year commencing July 1, 1881, and ending March 31, 1882, showing for what purposes said buildings are used, the annual rental paid in each case, the cost to the United States of lighting, heating, and of repairs made upon the same, and the appropriations from which the payments are made.

2. Report of expenses paid by the depot quartermaster at Washington, D. C., for lighting, heating, and for repairs of certain buildings occupied by the War Department and bureaus thereof (said buildings either being owned by the government or the rental thereof not paid by the depot quartermaster) during that portion of the fiscal year commencing July 1, 1881, and ending March 31, 1882, and showing from what appropriations said expenses are paid.

3. Report of clerks and other persons now employed in the Claims branch or division by the depot quartermaster at Washington, D. C., showing how said persons are employed, their rate of pay and compensation, and from what appropriations they are paid.

4. Report of persons now employed in connection with national cemeteries under the direction of Maj. B. C. Card, quartermaster in charge of office of national cemeteries, showing how said persons are employed, their rate of pay and compensation, and from what appropriations they are paid.

5. Report of persons now employed under the direction of the depot quartermaster at Washington, D. C., including such as are employed otherwise in the public service, but who are reported and paid by said depot quartermaster (excluding those on Reports 3 and 4), showing the nature of their employment, their rate of pay or compensation, and from what appropriations they are paid.

II.

The report herewith (1) sets forth in detail the buildings now rented and paid by the depot quartermaster. It is believed that the hire of said buildings will be necessary during the next fiscal year, and it is estimated that the amount therein stated will be required in the payment, with a possible increase in the case of the last item, as the owners thereof have intimated that such an increase will be demanded. The rate now paid ($160.92) is low, and the buildings are public.

In the matter of an estimate of the number of clerks, &c., required in the "Claims" branch, or division, for the next fiscal year, the following is submitted: The number and classes now employed are, as shown by Report 3, herewith, to be as follows: Nine agents, 20 clerks, 11 copyists, 2 messengers, and 1 watchman. At this date there are on hand in this office 715 claims for investigation and report by agents, 1,400 for complete brief, 637 for card brief, and 107 for additional briefing. It is believed that the number of persons now employed can complete the work by the close of the next fiscal year. Therefore I consider it better to keep up that force and close up the work within that year, rather than to reduce the force and continue the work for a subsequent year.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

BENJ. C. CARD,
Quartermaster, U. S. Army.

WAR DEPARTMENT, April 26, 1882.

LETTER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY SUBMITTING REVISED
ESTIMATES FOR 1883.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, April 13, 1882.

SIR: Referring to the letter of your committee of March 15, 1882, requesting me to submit estimates for whatever portion of the force now in service in this department not specifically appropriated for, but paid from miscellaneous appropriations, is deemed absolutely necessary, I have the honor to append hereto what have been submitted to me by the heads of bureaus and chiefs of divisions, as revised estimates of such offices as are affected thereby, classified to conform with the regular estimates for 1883, which include, first, the number and class of such employes paid from miscellaneous appropriations as can be specifically estimated for, together with the number and class of force detailed under the provisions of section 166 of the Revised Statutes; and, second, revised estimates, adjusted from the foregoing, of the number and class of employes which are said to be necessary to replace those now paid from the miscellaneous appropriations referred to. I also submit tables showing the offices and appropriations affected by this revision.

It will be seen that the estimate of the force required in the regular offices of the department to replace those now paid from miscellaneous appropriations is in the aggregate less by the sum of $4,468.25 than the amount now paid. But I am forced to say that I have a feeling that there is not a need of all the clerical force that is therein set forth. I have a feeling that in some branches of the department there is a need of an increase of force, while in others there is more now on the rolls than is required. It is not matter for surprise that the heads of bureaus and chiefs of divisions should magnify their offices, and should seek to keep up the relative importance and efficiency of that over which they respectively preside. Hence it is that few of them are inclined to suggest a decrease in the number of employes under them. At the same time, constantly occupied as I am, I have not the opportunity just now of discovering right where there should be a diminution of force, while I am apprised of where there is a need of increase by the representations to that effect of the chief or head who sees the work of his office falling in arrears. The best that I can do at present is to submit to your committee the data supplied to me; to suggest that it report such a bill as the experience and judgment of the committee dictate, and leave it to my further investigation and conclusions whether hereafter to fill or leave vacant any of the places provided for by appropriation, and from time to time to supply unprovided-for needs in any part of the department by detail from other parts in which there is not occupation for those assigned there. And I further suggest that if in any instance presented by the estimates herewith transmitted there appears an increase which does not meet the ready acquiescence of your committee, that the head of bureau or chief of division be called before it to give reasons for increase; or, that the item or items be especially referred to me to eluce those reasons.

I have further to say that, in accord with what I understand is the desire of the committee, I have submitted a draft of a section of a law as to the customs service; but at the same time I must respectfully submit a doubt whether that service can be provided for in advance by detailed appropriations. It is a service spread over a great extent of coast and somewhat of inland country; the ports and places of entry and delivery are numerous, the officers are many, the character of the service is diversified, the unforeseen exigencies are frequent. It is a difficult thing to provide in advance for the details of such a service.

Very respectfully,

CHARLES J. FOLGER,
Secretary.

Hon. FRANK HISCOCK,
Chairman Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives.

For traveling and other expenses, when on official duty, and all instruments, books, blanks, stationery, furniture, and other things necessary to carry into effect the steamboat laws, forty thousand dollars; in all, two hundred and thirty-five thousand eight hundred and forty dollars, to be paid from the revenues received from steamboat fees.

NOTE.—The Supervising Inspector-General recommends, in view of the several bills now before Congress, some of which have already passed either one or other branches of Congress, creating new local boards of inspectors, others increasing the salaries of those heretofore enumerated, that a contingent fund of eight thousand dollars additional be appropriated for salaries to meet the increase referred to.

CUSTOMS SERVICE.

That all acts and parts of acts authorizing the payment from a permanent annual appropriation of the expenses of collecting the revenue from customs be, and are, repealed, such repeal to take effect after the thirtieth day of June, 1883; and all moneys now by law appropriated for the expense of collecting the revenue from customs shall—together with all unexpended balances remaining after the payment of all accounts accruing prior to July 1, 1883, after that day—be covered into the Treasury, to be drawn therefrom only in consequence of appropriations made by law.

And it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to present to Congress, in his next annual estimates, and each year thereafter, detailed estimates of appropriations required for the customs service, giving the grade and salary of each employé, and the amount required for contingent expense at each port or separate office.

COAST AND GEODETIC SURVEY.

The existing organization of the Coast and Geodetic Survey does not readily admit of making specific appropriations for the pay for services of persons employed on the work as surveyors, astronomers, hydrographers, computers, draughtsmen, engravers, and various artisans. The force employed necessarily varies with the allotment for the year; moreover, by the regulations of the service, the compensation of any employé will vary according to the service performed, active work in the field carrying with it a higher compensation than office-work.

In order to submit an estimate of pay for services it would be necessary to know, in advance, the amount to be appropriated for surveying expenses, including wages hands, subsistence and transportation of parties, and general expenses
