NOTE.—The Attorney-General, on February 24, 1888, approved an account for $4,000 in favor of Mr. Rhodes as special assistant United States attorney, apportioning it among fiscal years as follows: $1,000 payable from appropriation for 1885; $1,000 payable from appropriation for 1886, and $2,000 payable from appropriation for 1887. The appropriation for each of those years being exhausted, the First Auditor reported the whole account to this office disallowed, basing his action on section 3679, R.
