

MRS. M. M. BOYLE.

JULY 25, 1888.—Committed to the Committee of the Whole House and ordered to be printed.

Mr. BLISS, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany bill H. R. 10557.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 10557) granting a pension to Mrs. M. M. Boyle, have considered the same and report as follows:

The deceased husband of the claimant, John C. Boyle, was a private in Capt. Daniel Smith's company Mounted Gun Men, South Carolina Volunteers, from February 17 to May 6, 1836, and twenty-nine days travel pay, in the Seminole war of 1836.

The claimant is seventy years of age, and in need of relief. She is entitled to a service pension, and would become a beneficiary under the provisions of the general service pension bill for Indian war survivors and their widows, favorably reported at the present session of Congress by this committee.

Your committee recommend the passage of this bill.
