LIST

PRIVATE CLAIMS

SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

SECRETARY OF THE SENATE

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES,

April 9, 1840.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate cause to be prepared an alphabetical list of all private claims which have been before the Senate, with the action of the Senate thereon, since the commencement of the fifteenth Congress, and that he communicate the same to the Senate at the commencement of the next session.

FEBRUARY 27, 1841.

Ordered, That the list of claims prepared by the Secretary of the Senate be completed to the close of the present session.

FEBRUARY 8, 1849.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate be directed to cause the list of claims prepared by him under the resolution of the Senate of April 9, 1840, and brought down to the close of the twenty-sixth Congress, by resolution of the 27th of February, 1841, to be reprinted for the use of the Senate; and that he cause the list to be brought down to the present session, incorporating such continuation in the list thus to be reprinted.

MARCH 3, 1855.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate cause the list of claims heretofore prepared by him to be printed for the use of the Senate, and that he cause the list to be brought down to the close of the present session, incorporating such continuation in the list thus to be printed; and that the usual number of copies be so printed.

MARCH 16, 1866.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate be directed to cause the alphabetical list of private claims, extending to the end of the thirty-third Congress, to be continued down to the close of the last [thirty-eighth] Congress, and printed for the use of the Senate.

JULY 20, 1868.

By a clause in the act of July 20, 1868, making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the government for the year ending June 30, 1869, the Secretary of the Senate is directed to complete the alphabetical list of private claims to the end of the thirty-ninth Congress.
