

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

JUNE 21, 1884.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. INGALLS, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany bill S. 467.]

At a meeting of the Committee on Indian Affairs of the Senate of the United States, the following order was made by that committee:

Ordered, That Senate bill S. 467, to provide for a settlement with the Indians who were parties to the treaty concluded at Buffalo Creek, in the State of New York, on the 15th day of January, 1838, for the unexecuted stipulation of that treaty, together with the accompanying amendment intended to be proposed by Mr. Voorhees to the aforesaid bill, which bill and proposed amendment were referred to said committee at the first session of the Forty-eighth Congress, and which bill and proposed amendment are now pending before said committee, be transmitted (in accordance with the provisions of an act entitled "An act to afford assistance and relief to Congress and the Executive Departments in the investigation of claims and demands against the Government," approved March 3, 1883) to the Court of Claims of the United States, together with the vouchers, papers, proofs, and documents appertaining thereto, for the investigation and determination of the facts involved in said bill and said proposed amendment thereto.

J. R. McCARTY,

Clerk to the U. S. Senate Committee on Indian Affairs.
