

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

OCTOBER 4, 1888.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. PADDOCK, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany bill H. R. 9668.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 9668), granting a pension to Joseph Rosier, a private in Captain Fripp's company, Colonel Brisbane's regiment, South Carolina Volunteers, in the Florida and Seminole war, have considered the same, and heartily agree with the House committee that the bill should pass. The report of the House is hereto appended.

[House Report No. 2032, Fiftieth Congress, first session.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 9668) granting a pension to Joseph Rosier, have considered the same and report as follows :

The departmental records show that the claimant served in Captain Fripp's company of South Carolina Volunteers in the Florida and Seminole war from February 23 to May 1, 1836, and was honorably discharged at the latter date, at Fort Brooke, East Florida.

He is now seventy-nine years of age, is totally blind in both eyes, and is in poor and needy circumstances.

The committee report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass.

