DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, February 4, 1892.

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the following resolution of the Senate dated 3d instant:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Interior be directed to communicate to the Senate a copy of the report made by the Hampton Institute in response to the resolution of the Senate passed February 28, 1891.

In response thereto I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication of the 28th ultimo, and accompanying report, made by the Hampton Institute in response to the resolution of February 28, 1891.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,

JOHN W. NOBLE,
Secretary.

The PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
Washington, January 28, 1892.

SIR: I respectfully forward herewith communication from Albert Howe, acting principal, Hampton Institute, dated the 14th ultimo, presenting information in regard to Indian students educated at Hampton, called for by Senate resolution, passed February 28, 1891.

The statistics called for by the resolution are given, not only in tabular form, but are also accompanied by an interesting résumé and history of each Indian pupil who has been in school at Hampton. I will also ask your attention to the few illustrations at the end of the résumé, which show quite strikingly the progress made by some of the returned Hampton students.

For thirteen years a record of these Indian students has been carefully kept at Hampton, and after students have returned to their homes correspondence has been conducted, with more or less regularity, between the institution and the students, and the missionaries and agents of the reservations to which they have respectively returned. Employés of the institute have visited pupils at their homes, and thus kept informed as to their progress or the reverse.

In the annual report of the Hampton Institute for the last fiscal year the consolidated classification of the record of its returned students has been made, which is as follows:

On the record which we keep and change from year to year we grade these returned students according to the record they make and the influence they exert, whether excellent, good, fair, poor, or bad, and in this way make a very just estimate of their real value.

The excellent are either those who have had exceptional advantages and use them faithfully, or those who by great earnestness and pluck have won an equally wide and telling influence for good.

The good, the great majority, are those who are doing their best and exerting a decidedly good influence, even though it may not be very wide. They must marry legally, be honest, industrious, and temperate, and live a life which we can point to as an example for others to follow and improve upon.

The fair are the sick and unfortunate, those who have had few advantages and from whom no better could be expected.

The poor are those who have not done as well as they should; have married after the Indian custom, while knowing better; have fallen from weakness rather than from vice, and some who are recovering themselves after more serious falls.

The bad are those who have done wrong while knowing better, yet, with one exception, those from whom no better was expected. Four on this list have recently left Carlisle with bad records (three were expelled, and one ran away). Of this number three were brothers, and all very nearly white. It may be of interest to state also that but one on this bad list is a full-blooded Indian, and he and two half-bloods on the same list are traveling with a show.

Excellent .....	72
Good .....	149
Fair .....	62
	283
Satisfactory .....	283
Poor .....	23
Bad .....	12
	35
Disappointing .....	35
Total .....	318

The statistics and résumé herewith are brought down to a later date and include the investigations during the past summer of Hampton officials who have visited Dakota; but the ratio between the number of students in each of the five classes differs very little at whatever date the totals are made up.

This record is certainly a most creditable one, especially when allowance is made for the difficulties and discouragements of the environment to which the students return. The first "plunge" after the youth returns to his home ought not to be taken as an indication of his permanent record. It takes some time for him to become adjusted to the change of conditions from school to reservation life, and to find out what of school life and habits can be continued upon an Indian reservation and in an Indian tepee or one-room log house.

It appears that of those who have been a reasonable length of time, say three or four years, away at school, hardly any "go back to the blanket" or the old ways of life, though they do go back to poverty and numberless and unforeseen discouragements. It is also true that the good record of a very large proportion is not in conspicuous acts, but in quiet, unobtrusive, patient living out day by day, amid depressing surroundings and utmost disadvantage, the lessons taught them at school.

Even including in the number those handicapped by illness and those whose weakness or wickedness of character when they were sent away to school made their cases nearly hopeless from the outset, the showing is that over three-fourths of all returned students from Hampton can be classed among those who are doing well.

If in addition to this we take into account the changes which have been wrought in public sentiment and individual lives on reservations where returned students are found living in any considerable numbers, we shall find that they have represented a force, uplifting, strong, and enduring enough to prove the value of their education from every standpoint. These students are carrying on upon the reservations such societies as the Brotherhood of Christian Unity, Young Men's Christian Association, St. Andrew's Guild, temperance societies, etc. These influences if continued for a few years and reënforced by the pupils who hereafter returning home from Hampton will add to the nucleus of civilizing work, can not fail to be powerful levers in the uplifting of the respective tribes.

This record of Hampton students furnishes in part the information called for by Department communication of the 28th ultimo, and so fast as similar information reaches the office it will be forwarded to the Department. I have also prepared a circular and sent it to Indian schools and agencies throughout the service, asking for facts as to the records of students who have returned to their homes after education in schools off reservations.

The information thus obtained will be furnished the Department in as available a form as practicable.

Only one copy of this voluminous report has been presented to the office, and it is hoped that it will be sent to the Senate without devolving upon the limited force of this office the labor of making a duplicate copy.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

T. J. MORGAN,
Commissioner.

The SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

NOTES ON THE RETURNED INDIAN STUDENTS OF THE HAMPTON NORMAL AND AGRICULTURAL INSTITUTE.

DECEMBER, 1891.

These notes are condensed from the school records of each individual and supplement the résumé given on pages 32 to 87. The numbers given in these notes refer to numbers in the résumé.

FEMALES.

Carrie Anderson (No. 1, F.). Though merely a child when she returned, she had become interested in school life, and soon after went to Genoa, where she remained a year or more. In 1886 she married an industrious young man, and together they have built up an unusually good home and earned a most excellent name for character and industry. In 1891 they were living on a large and prosperous farm near the town of Armour, S. Dak.; had a nice well-kept house of two rooms, a garden, and orchard, all bearing the unmistakable marks of refinement and thrift. The children, like the parents, are clean and well dressed, and are being taught the English language at home.

Ziewie Davis (No. 2, F.). Very bright girl, eldest daughter of an ambitious father, who made a great effort to have things as she had learned to want them. He owned a small store, and wishing to be very civilized had his name translated into English (Don't Know How) and printed on his sign "D. K. How." Ziewie was his clerk and bookkeeper for about a year, but unexpectedly developed consumption and died in a few months. Her influence was such that her sister and cousins were at once sent off to school.

Mary Dawson (No. 3, F.). A widow with one child. She had lived several years among white employes at the agency and was so anxious that her child should have every advantage that she herself brought her to Hampton. She was consumptive, remained but a year, leaving the child, Annie, to the care of the school. She died not long after her return.

Anna Dawson (No. 4, F.). With no family to insist upon her return she was permitted to go through the whole school course here, graduate, teach here a year, and then becoming fixed in her purpose to make teaching a profession, go north to the Framingham (Mass.) normal school, and in two years graduate there. At the close of this preparation she was but 20 years of age. She accepted a position at the Santee Normal Training School in 1890 and is still there, though eagerly sought for by other schools who have seen her work. Her methods, her discipline, and her bearing are all that the most critical could ask of a white teacher. She is interested in various societies connected with the school, is an editor of one of the school papers, published weekly, and a leader in all school affairs. Between her and the many white teachers there seems to be no distinction; she fills the position her education and refinement have fitted her for unquestioned as to race. She is earnest and self-reliant and is fitted in character as well as education to support herself independently and well, a state which very few Indian girls have ever yet been permitted by circumstances to attain.

Mary Kettle (No. 5, F.). A bright girl, but not strong enough to endure the change from camp to school life. She was returned as soon as possible and died soon after.

Josephine Malnourie (No. 6, F.) Not long after her return she was married to a white man, George Grinnell, who, though he provided a good home, "marble-top furniture" and similar western luxuries, was a hard drinker and often treated her and her children with great cruelty. By 1889 he had become so debased and at one time so violent, that, in defending herself, she is said to have killed him. Her own reputation seems not to have suffered. She has been especially kind and helpful to returned students, giving them often the safe shelter that their own homes could not afford them.

Rosa Pleets (No. 7, F.) Returned with considerable English and fair knowledge of housework; found a home and work in the family of the agent and later of the missionary. In 1884 she came again to Hampton, remained two years, returned home, married an excellent young man recently returned from Hampton, and came back with him for a third term. They kept house here in one of the cottages built for the purpose, for two years and again returned to Standing Rock. They have a pleasant home and are models of industry, neatness, and thrift, well spoken of by all. (See Nos. 79 and 155, F.)

Lizzie Spider (No. 8, F.). Showed great improvement in three years. After a year at home, she returned with Capt. Pratt to Carlisle, but soon after was sent to the Lincoln Institute, in Philadelphia, under whose care she remained until 1890, when she returned home, a graduate of the Training School for Nurses in Philadelphia. There was no hospital position ready and she entered the Government school at Yankton as an employe, remaining there until her health broke down, and she was obliged to go home for care. She is now married to an ex-student of Haskell Institute, and though in consumption and amid poor surroundings, has the speech and bearing of a lady. I saw her this summer and was charmed with her pleasant grace and manner.

Sarah Walker (No. 9 F). A bright child whose white father allowed her to remain until 1884, when she returned to keep house for him. The grandmother did not approve of her civilized methods, so she took a position in the Fort Stevenson school as seamstress. She was so much annoyed by white men that, for safety, she came back to Hampton, and remained here until, in 1887, she accepted a position in a school started by Boston people among the Crow Indians of Montana. In 1888 she married a school employe and both continued their work in the school for that year. Since then they have been living at Fort Berthold, and the reports concerning them have differed though her record of character has always been good. (See No. 122 F.)

Louisa Bullhead (No. 10 E). Not strong enough to remain and returned in a year. Had not learned much from books, but had gotten some valuable ideas. She married, and her house and her family have shown the good of a little learning. She has always borne an excellent character and was quite a leader in the Woman's Society. She died last year.

Rosa Lay-Out-Doors (No. 11 F.). Bright but delicate. Her uncle came with a party of chiefs to visit the school and took her home with him. We lost track of her when she married, but hear that she is now dead.

Sarah Medicine Rock (No. 12 F.). Stupid and lazy, epileptic, and violent. She remained only a few months. Her record has been poor.

Agnes Place-Together (No. 13 F.). Consumptive on arrival and soon returned. She died not long after.

Mary Traversie (No. 14 F.). A bright child; here nearly seven years. On her return took in dressmaking and then became laundress at the Government school, teaching boys to wash and iron. Later she was given a camp school and taught faithfully and well for three years, until after her marriage in 1890. She is now living in a comfortable way at her father-in-law's camp and is well spoken of by those who know her work and life. She is very bright and entertaining, reads a great deal, and always has a fund of good-natured chitchat for white and Indian friends that makes her a general favorite.

Maggie Goulet (No. 15 F.). Spoke English and remained four and one-half years, returning with fair knowledge of books and woman's work. She lived for some time with the missionary, then married a white man, Edgar M. Keith, and went with him to start a camp school at Wounded Knee Creek, Pine Ridge. They have been there seven years, except a few months last winter during the excitement. Their school is one of the best, their home pretty and clean, their children well cared for, and the whole establishment a model of its kind.

Mary Goulet (No. 16 F.). Trifling character, very different from her sister, but good worker. She married a hard-working young man, and has yearly improved in her record as a housekeeper and mother.

Mary Hinman (No. 17 F.). Most unfortunate inheritance; was kept here and in Massachusetts over five years, hoping to save her, but it was hopeless. She returned, went to Crow Creek, and in less than a year died from the cruel treatment of a man with whom she was living unlawfully.

Katie Lamont (No. 18 F.). Remained quietly at home for six years and made a good record, until in 1889 she married a most persistent suitor, a white Government employe of doubtful character, and died the next year.

Annie Lyman (No. 19 F.). Bright, remained here six years; returned to take position in the Government school as seamstress. She married and soon after removed to Flandreau, where she is still living. Their home is larger and nicer than most Indian houses can be, and in all its appointments is civilized and nice. I was entertained there as nicely as I could have been in a white person's house. The family are nicely dressed, speak English, attend church regularly, and are interested in all progressive movements.

Lizzie Selwyn (No. 20, F.). Very scrofulous, and, though otherwise promising, died soon after her return.

Louisa Tasagyemaniwin (No. 21, F.). In consumption; returned, and died soon after.

Julia Upiwin (No. 22, F.). An epileptic; most unpromising. Her mind has been failing, and she is now irresponsible.

Emily West (No. 23, F.). Went to school several years, after leaving Hampton, at Springfield, S. Dak., and then married. She keeps a good house, attends church and all religious services, but dresses very much like other Indian women of her age. Her children are neat and well cared for.

Sophia Little Bear (No. 24, F.). Very young when she returned to her Indian home and to her heathen brother's care, and wore the Indian dress entirely for a time. In 1887 she married a schoolboy, and has since improved her home and her person. She has sweet, gentle manners, speaks English freely, and is an excellent mother to the one child that she is preparing for Hampton, she says. She will not even allow it earrings, as she thinks it unbecoming the civilized young lady her imagination pictures.

Julia St. Cyr (No. 25, F.). Bright, but headstrong. She did well under restraint, but her second return home, while teaching at Winnebago, proved disastrous to her moral character, and to give her another chance she was allowed to return to Hampton. It was useless; she seemed utterly demoralized, untruthful, and dishonest. At her request she was sent by the Government as a teacher to Sac and Fox, Indian Territory; had to leave there in a few months, and came home to continue her immoral course. Her record has been worse than that of any other Hampton student. She has one child living, upon whom she lavishes an intelligent mother's care and devotion. It is hoped that this may prove an influence for good. (See No. 148, F.)

Melisse Inez (No. 26, F.). Brought with party from Arizona by Dr. Sheldon Jackson. Bright, but eccentric. Went to the school at Tucson after her return and has been either a student or employe in some school until last year, when she was married; the ceremony taking place in church. Her record has always been good, wonderfully so when circumstances are considered.

Francesca Rios (No. 27, F.). A delicate child, who came at the same time, and died here two years later.

Rosa Bear Face (No. 28, F.). Went home after three years, took a camp school, with Frances White Cow for assistant, and ran it with its midday meal most successfully for three years. Breaking up of the camp closed the school and she returned to Hampton, but so physically broken down that she was unable to do anything. She returned expecting to die, but lived over two years. Through her influence her father, the chief, has been elevated and helped and the whole family have adopted civilized dress and ways. Until her death she was a leader among the progressive women. (See No. 150, F.)

Susan Carpenter (No. 29, F.). Had not a good name when she came, but did well here. On her return she married an unreliable half-blood and for several years they lived well, he working and she keeping a nice house. In 1890 he was divorced by the agent in order to marry another woman, and left Susan with one child. She manages her own farm and place, keeps her child clean and well dressed, and has the sympathy of all who know her.

Mercy Conger (No. 30, F.). Bright young girl, who spent seven years here, returning to take the position of teacher in the Government school at Yankton. She taught there three years most acceptably, and is still practically interested in the school, though now married and in a nice home of her own. Her husband (a half-blood) is the issue clerk, and their home bright, pleasant, and a social center for the educated young people of the agency. (See No. 91, F.)

Lizzie Keeler (No. 31, F.). An unfortunate girl with worst possible inheritance. She was kept as long as possible with safety to others. She married a man not much better than herself, who soon left her. Her life has been full of trouble and disgrace. Maggie Larrabee (No. 32, F.). Returned too young to do much. Lived at home with her mother until 1890, then insisted upon going to school at Pierre, S. Dak. Is still there, highly spoken of by the superintendent and teachers.

Rebecca Mazakute (No. 33, F.). Here seven years, had a position at Hope school engaged, but was married by her mother to a young miller. She has made a good record in spite of discouragements, sickness, and trouble. She has been for the past two years in consumption, but dresses nicely and appears the lady she really is.

Josephine McCarthy (No. 34, F.). Here six years, increasingly headstrong. Having no home wandered about and was refused good positions she might have filled. After a year married a soldier, an enlisted carpenter, and is now keeping house inside Fort Yates. Her home is pleasant and a favorite resort for the men stationed there. (See No. 105, F.)

Susie Nagle (No. 35, F.). Here from ten to eighteen years of age. Good worker, very poor student, defective sight, and other troubles. Her father, a white man, insisted upon her return to Fort Berthold, and she is now there keeping house for him. She is not married. (See No. 120, F.)

Jennie No Ears (No. 36, F.). Married Louis Primeau, Agency Interpreter, and went with him to teach a camp school. She was a fair teacher, an excellent seamstress and housekeeper, and their school was very successful and she highly commended. She died three years later, May, 1888.

Mary Red Bird (No. 37, F.). In consumption when she came, and died here before she could be sent home.

Zallie Rulo (No. 38, F.). Nearly white, bad inheritance, been to school before. She graduated here and was competent to do well. She has taught at Yankton, Santee, and Rosebud, but has lost her good name.

Mary Walker (No. 39, F.). Went home to her father, a white man, who could not control her, and went the way of Indian girls generally. She is now married to a young man of some advantages, and it is hoped she will do better.

Fidelia Walking Medicine (No. 40, F.). Did badly at first, then married a returned Hampton student at Crow Creek, and has lived an irreproachable life since. Their house is among the better class, well kept, and her child neat and clean.

Frances White Cow (No. 42, F.). Returned with and aided Rosa Bear Face in her school for a year or more, then married a man who was neglectful and cruel. She has not been well since.

Nellie Keokuk (No. 42, F.). Niece and adopted daughter of the chief of the Sac and Fox. She was too proud to work, but was a fair student and ambitious to do well. She went to Haskell Institute later, but died soon after her return from there.

Mary King (No. 43, F.). She married unhappily at first, but after her husband's death in 1888 married again, and now has a comfortable home at the agency, and is living just as her white neighbors do.

Hattie Miles (No. 44, F.). Went to Haskell Institute soon after her return, and later held a position in the Government school at Sac and Fox until her marriage.

Rebecca Mazakute Frazier, husband, and nieces, Santee Agency, Nebraska. [See notes, No. 33, F., p.6.]

Her husband, the captain of police and deputy marshal, died in 1890, and since then she has not been doing well. Serious reports come to us in regard to her moral character.

Lucy La Flesche (No. 45, F.). Wife of Noah, and came with him to Hampton (See 130, M.).

Minnie Stabler (No. 46, F.). Wife of Philip, and came with him to Hampton (See 131, M.).

Maggie Bullhead (No. 47, F.). A bright child, painfully disfigured by scrofula. She was soon returned and lived a quiet, gentle, Christian life of semi-invalidism for three years and then died, leaving a marked influence on the lives of her friends.

Katie Councillor (No. 48, F.). Wife of Philip, and came with him to Hampton. (See 138, M.)

Emma Fallis (No. 49, F.). Very delicate, spent two years with a physician in Massachusetts, and returned home strong and well. She married an excellent man soon after, and has since lived a quiet, orderly, civilized life on his farm a day's journey from the agency.

Eva Goodroad (No. 50, F.). Scrofulous and not able to do much. She died before expiration of her time of heart disease.

Elizabeth Kennedy (No. 51, F.). The wife of a progressive young man who sent her here to learn to keep house. She spent most of her time with an excellent family in Massachusetts, but returned to Hampton with an abscess that proved fatal. She died here.

Sarah Leeds (No. 52, F.). Had been divorced; was too old for a scholar, but did well at other occupations. On her return she married an Indian considerably older than herself, and made a civilized man of him in a very short time, even to the wearing of white gloves. They have a good home and live as well as circumstances will permit.

Ida Rencontre (No. 53, F.). Daughter of the interpreter; had but one eye and could not study much. Spent a year or more in Massachusetts, and returned home a fair housekeeper. Married a returned Hampton student, and has been very helpful to him in his work as teacher and catechist. She lacks somewhat in personal neatness and enterprise, but has a very good home and well-kept children.

Felicia Rivers (No. 54, F.). Very young and nearly white. She remained four years and then went to the Roman Catholic school at Crow Creek and from there to a position at the Pierre School. In the fall of 1891 she left the school and married a respectable young German laborer in the town.

Edna Traversie (No. 55, F.). Here eight years, one of the most promising of girls. Returned against her own wishes and the advice of friends, but at the insistence of parents and agency employes. She has been home but a month, so has made no special record. (See No. 141, F.)

Rosa Blake (No. 56, F.). Delicate, scrofulous young girl. She soon returned home and died not long after.

Hattie Cook (No. 57, F.). Not a promising character. She returned home to Indian surroundings and did not do well. Her name is lightly used, though very little is definitely said against her.

Sophie Laundet (No. 58, F.). Went very soon to the Roman Catholic school at Crow Creek, and remained there up to 1890. Since then she has been at home on her father's ranch.

Lizzie Unspesni (No. 59, F.). Returned to Indian home and Indian ways for a time. She married a good man and has gradually worked her way out until now she has a good home, dresses nicely, attends church regularly and has her family well ordered, neat, and far in advance of the ordinary Indian.

Sarah White Cow (No. 60, F.). So scrofulous she remained but a year and returned to live with her brother the Captain of Police, taking his name, Fire Thunder. Fastidious in her choice she would not marry until her ideal was reached six years later in the person of the catechist of the St. Albans church, an ex-student of Hampton. She lived only a year, but before her death made a will, very sensible and complete, the first we have known of among Indians.

Carrie Alexander (No. 61, F.). A delicate child, returned the next year. She lived only a few months afterwards.

Angel Decora (No. 62, F.). Here seven years, graduated in 1891 and is now a student of Miss Burnham's school in Northampton, Mass., though still under the care of this school. She lives in the family of a wise woman, earning her board by helping with the housework, and gives promise of becoming a strong and accomplished woman. (See No. 167, F.)

Grace Decora (No. 63, F.). Deformed by spinal trouble and not strong enough for hard work, she found it easy to yield to her parents desire, and so dressed, to please them, in Indian costume. She once wrote: "I am outside like Indians, but inside a Christian still." She has recently married an old man and may be now more independent in her manner of living.

Fannie Earth (No. 64, F.). Returned after four years, when only 13 years old, to the lowest of Indian associations. She soon married and now lives in a bark wigwam, dresses in entire Indian costume, and though scrupulously neat and clean (and very picturesque) she has gone back (outwardly at least) to Indian ways.

Addie Stevens (No. 65, F.). Also returned home to poor surroundings, but went to the school and remained until the hoped-for chance of returning to Hampton appeared. She is now in the senior class and expects to take a course in a northern normal school another year. (See No. 176, F.)

Jessie Banks (No. 66, F.). Returned after four years, attended the Government school at Crow Creek for two years, and then returned to Hampton. (See No. 189, F.)

Lucy Ida Black (No. 67, F.), Lora Bowed Head (No. 68, F.). In consumption when they came, and died a few months after arrival.

Mamie Bowed Head or Snow (No. 69, F.). Eight years old and scrofulous, but remained three years, returning home under Miss Howard's care. She has since been adopted by her and enjoys every advantage her health will allow.

Laura Face (No. 70, F.). Returned after four years, attended the Government school at Crow Creek for two years, and then returned to Hampton. She is still here. (See No. 190, F.)

Emma Goodform (No. 71, F.). Went home after a year on account of ill health, but improved so much and did so well that she was allowed to return for three years. She went back in 1890, and has since been assistant seamstress at Miss Howard's school at Crow Creek. (See No. 151, F.)

Mabel Thrown-away (No. 72, F.). She returned after about a year, for ill health—heart disease—but by tact and force of character did wonders toward reforming an obdurate and heathen family. She lived only a year, but her influence has never waned; her whole family are still on the side of civilization and Christianity.

Amy Wizi (No. 73, F.). Returned also for ill health, but soon after went to the Government School, where she has remained much of the time since as a pupil and employé. Her father, Chief Wizi, has a large frame house near by, and she has made it neat and pretty by her skill and taste. In 1889 she made a serious mistake in marrying a man not legally divorced, but has since borne herself so well that she has the sympathy rather than the blame of those who know about it. In December, 1891, married an ex-student of Hampton, an agency carpenter and excellent young man.

Stella Black, or Yellow Star (No. 74, F.). Sister of Ida Black, with same inheritance (consumption), so returned the next year. She has since been to school at home and at Genoa. Is now living at home with her father and doing well.

Nancy Begg-for-Her (No. 75, F.). Over school age and too delicate to endure the change of life from camp to school. Returned in three months, and died before 1887.

Pretty Bird (No. 76, F.). Returned for ill health in less than a year. Married and went to Pine Ridge, where she is still living. She works occasionally for white people, and has a good name.

Ellen Burt (No. 77, F.). Over school age and too delicate to endure the change of life from camp to school. Returned in three months, and died before 1887.

Celeste Pamani (No. 78, F.). Wife of Frank, and came with him to Hampton. (See 39, M.)

Rosa Pleets (No. 79, F.). (See Nos. 7 and 155, F.)

Alice Sacred Iron (No. 80, F.). Over school age and too delicate to endure the change of life from camp to school. She was returned in three months, and died before 1887.

Emma Whips (No. 81, F.). Very bad case of scrofula; died at the school in a few months.

Josephine Barnaby (No. 82, F.). Graduated in 1887, and after a short vacation returned to enter the training school for nurses in New Haven. Her health failed before she had completed the course and she went to Standing Rock to assist Miss Collins in mission work there. She taught in the school and homes and then took entire charge of the hospital at the agency. Her health gave way there and she returned to her mother at Omaha Agency, and soon after married a white man who has a place in the town of Hermon, Nebr., where they are now living. Everything in or about the house is neatly and cosily civilized, and Josephine proves herself an excellent housekeeper.

Susan Burt (No. 83, F.). She returned greatly improved; married an ex-student of Carlisle and has since been living like other "progressives" of the tribe.

Nettie Fremont (No. 84, F.). Returned, hoping to come back, but she seemed hardly strong enough and remained at home, doing well, for two years and then went to Carlisle, where she was put in a northern home, and has remained there ever since.

Marguerite La Flesche (No. 85, F.). Graduated in 1887 and went home to teach in the Government school at Omaha. After a year she married an ex-student of Hampton, a Sioux, and established a pleasant home in her father's old house. This home has been an elevating influence in the tribe and much good has come of it. Her husband's health failing in 1890, she took her old position of principal of the Government school, and is still doing that work. She is a leader in all progressive movements, general adviser of the tribe, interprets for all church, funeral, and wedding services, and is a connecting link between friends in the East and the needy among her people.

Susan La Flesche (No. 86, F.). Was graduated as salutatorian of the class of 1886, and went to the Woman's Medical College in Philadelphia. After finishing the course there, she, being the successful competitor for the position, remained a year in the hospital as physician and then returned home, having been given the position of Government physician among the Omahas. She has an office near the school and often goes long distances to visit the sick and needy. With a woman's instinct she nurses, cooks for, and helps her patients far more than her physician's work can require or her physical strength can endure. She is a remarkable woman, doing a wonderful work.

Nancy Levering (No. 87, F.). Came with her husband, Milton, and returned with him after three years. He soon after left her, and with a young Carlisle girl went off with a show. Nancy applied to the court of Nebraska for a divorce, which was granted—the first to an Indian—and after finishing her second year at the Mission school as assistant cook, went to the Lincoln Institution in Philadelphia as a pupil. She is still there under her maiden name of Sheridan.

Alma Bean (No. 88, F.). Returned on expiration of time; remained quietly at home a year, and came back to Hampton. Now in the class of 1893. (See No. 162, F.)

Julia Bear Bird (No. 89, F.). Wife of Baptiste, and came with him to Hampton. (See 97, M.)

Hannah Buck (No. 90, F.). Wife of Louis, and came with him to Hampton. (See 197, M.)

Mercy Conger (No. 91, F.). (See No. 30, F.)

Margaret Hotoninyankewin (No. 92, F.) Bright and interesting girl; returned after three years and soon after went to Genoa, where she remained until 1890. She married an excellent young man in 1891, and they are expected to live a model life in a model way.

Nellie Lee (No. 93, F.). Wife of Edgar, and came with him to Hampton. (See 202, M.)

Corabell Little-Black-Foot (No. 94, F.). Very scrofulous, and soon returned home to her mother, and died in 1888.

Mary Lyman (No. 95, F.). When thirteen years old had been expelled from all available schools, and seemed likely to go to the bad at once. Was brought here and kept two years; returned, and did poorly for a time, but has been steadily improving until now she has a very fair home; herself and family are well dressed, and she is well spoken of by all who know her.

Virginia Medicine Bull (No. 96, F.). Bright, promising girl, but died suddenly at the school from pneumonia.

Pretty Hair (No. 97, F.). Sister of Margaret (See No. 92, F.), died at the school two months after she came from erysipelas.

Helen Scott (No. 98, F.). Edith Yellow Hair (No. 99, F.). Two homeless orphan children we were induced to take. One came down with measles on the way here and died soon after; the other lived a year.

Louisa Banks (No. 100, F.). A widow who came with a baby, Grace. The mother soon died from scrofulous trouble and the child stayed long enough to speak English only. She has since been at the Government school at Crow Creek, and remembers above all else the "colored girls" who were so good to her.

Emma Fire Cloud (No. 101 F.). Wife of Daniel, and came with him to Hampton. (See 207, M.)

Maggie Goodwood (No. 102, F.). Came with her brother on his second return to Hampton, but was not strong enough to remain over a year. She worked in the family of the agent a year and improved so much that her return was recommended, and she came back for two more years. For a year after her second return, she worked with a white family and then married the son of Chief Mad Bear. The agent speaks highly of her. (See No. 152, F.)

Lucy Huhana (No. 103, F.). Lived with her father and did not do very well. She died in 1890.

Louisa Long-Girl (No. 104, F.). Married a "progressive" soon after her return, a leader. For six years she has made a good record as housekeeper and mother. Even the child speaks English.

Jos. McCarthy (No. 105, F.). (See No. 34, F.)

Alma Ramsey (No. 106, F.). A neat, quiet girl. Was married in church to an ex-Hampton student (See No. 51, M.), now a scout. They live in a poor way in a tepee, but have a good name and try to do well.

Agnes Red Eagle (No. 107, F.). Went to school at the agency a short time and then married by Indian custom, and lives much like other Indians.

Annie Fuller (No. 108, F.). Emma Fuller (No. 109, F.). Elsie Fuller (No. 110, F.). Three sisters, nearly white. The eldest has married a white man and lives on a farm in Barada, Nebr., and the others have since been at the Genoa school, making good records there.

Minnie Hamilton (No. 111, F.). Wife of James, and came with him to Hampton. (See 220, M.)

Stella Leming (No. 112, F.). Wife of Irish, and came with him to Hampton. (See 221, M.)

Grace Pilcher (No. 113, F.). Left after three years from the middle class, taught at the Government school two years, and married a returned Carlisle student. They now live on a fair farm, and everything about them is civilized and fairly prosperous.

Madeline Scott (No. 114, F.). Came to be with her nieces, the Fuller children, and, though old, was a very satisfactory pupil. She returned the next year, went to Osage Agency as seamstress, and is still serving there, although married within two years.

Hannah Arrow (No. 115, F.). Married an educated young man soon after her return and now lives near the town of Egan, S. Dak. She dresses and appears well, and has a very fair home and well-kept children.

Susan de Sheuquette (No. 116, F.). Wife of Leon, and came with him to Hampton. (See 227, M.)

Ellen Ellis (No. 117, F.). Wife of Joseph, and came with him to Hampton. (See 228, M.)

Cora Rulo (No. 118, F.). Bright, rather pretty girl, with a wretched inheritance. The agent says, "It need only be said that she is a Rulo." Her record, like her sister's, has been bad.

Carrie Elbow (No. 119, F.). Married Thomas Goodwood, an ex-Hampton student, soon after her return. He earns $2 a day as carpenter, and they have a nice home, pictures, books, lace curtains, clean beds, and everything orderly. Recently received a sewing machine as reward for keeping the neatest house on the reserve.

Susie Nagle (No. 120, F.). (See No. 35, F.)

Kate Running Girl (No. 121, F.). Returned after two months for ill health. Was married in church and has a good name and influence.

Sarah Walker (No. 122, F.). (See No. 9, F.)

Mary Bird (No. 123, F.). Not a promising pupil, but has done exceedingly well at home. Is married; living with parents; has improved her family and home; is neat herself and well spoken of by those who know her.

Fannie Cross Bear (No. 124, F.). Katherine Cross Bear (No. 125, F.). Sisters, daughters of Chief Cross Bear. Both spoken of in highest terms. Fanny died soon after her return. Katherine is reported upon as "most ladylike, not at all 'Indian' in appearance or manner." She has "no moral support where she is, but had 'stuck it out' remarkably."

Madeline Curria (No. 126, F.). Was married, Indian way, to Thomas Ashley soon after her return, but left him and went to Fort Peck, Mont., where she is still living.

Annie Eagle (No. 127, F.). Returned to unusually poor associations, but married legally. She has an Indian home, and is herself much like the better class of Indian women.

Happy Road (No. 128, F.). She is married and lives about as she would have done without her two months here.

Julia Kathleen (No. 129, F.). Married a returned Hampton student soon after his return, and for several years lived near Miss Collins's mission, assisting her in various ways. In 1890 her husband committed suicide, and she went to friends in Sisseton. She has always had a good name.

Lucy No Ears (No. 130, F.). Had a bad character by inheritance, and a weak mind. She returned home and has led a miserable life. An effort is being made to get her into some institution where she can have protection.

Annie Red Cane (No. 131, F.). She returned to Crow Creek and married there, after the Indian way. She was anxious to return, and by a mistake was brought back. She was kept here three years and gained in some ways, but was so unpromising that very little is expected of her. (See No. 174, F.)

Clara Virgin (No. 132, F.). Returned without much education, but seems to have done very well. She married legally, and is said to be a good housekeeper and to have a very good influence.

Cassie McCoy (No. 133, F.). Returned to a poor home and lowest associations; worked out a few months and then married a white man. Her record has been poor.

Lydia Monroe (No. 134, F.). Very scrofulous and delicate, but remained until expiration of her time. She found employment in a private family after her return, and in 1890 married a white man and is now a good housekeeper, they say, and doing well.

Lucy Mitchell Wells, husband, and daughter. (Full Omahas.) [See notes, No. 146, F., p. 11.]

James Michaka Saka Thompson (full Sioux), wife, baby, and other Hampton students; Lower Brulé Agency, South Dakota. [See notes, No. 54, M., p. 14.]

Alice Moore (No. 135, F.). Took a strong stand from the first, and has done far better than could have been expected amid such surroundings; was for some time laundress at the Sac and Fox school and had everything neat and orderly; is now married to a white man and is well spoken of.

Carrie Half (No. 136, F.). Married the Rev. George Paypay soon after her return and is a real helper in her husband's parish. They have a pleasant home and are an influence for good in a camp far away from any other evidence of civilization. She has adopted a child, which is being brought up wisely and well.

Lucy Little Eagle (No. 137, F.). Wife of Henry, and came with him to Hampton. (See 300, M.)

Antoinette Paypay (No. 138, F.). Wife of James, and came with him to Hampton. (See 303, M.)

Ellen Phelps (No. 139, F.). Wife of Edwin, and came with him to Hampton. (See 304, M.)

Jeanette Stricker (No. 140, F.). Returned for ill health, but has made a remarkably good record. She has been employed at the Government school at Yankton and at Genoa, Nebr., for four years, and though never strong has been unwavering in her determination to live as she has been taught. She has been nicknamed "the Queen," from her dignity of bearing.

Edna Traversie (No. 141, F.). (See No. 55, F.)

Eva Cox (No. 142, F.). Rather old to learn; had a bad name at home; sent her to friends in the North; she did not do well there and was sent home. Is married, but not doing well.

Hattie James (No. 143, F.). Went home for the summer and returned this fall.

Mary Miller (No. 144, F.). Wife of George, and came with him to Hampton. (See 313, M.)

Ida Mitchell (No. 145, F.). Lucy Mitchell (No. 146, F.). Mother and daughter; here three years. Since their return Lucy has been assistant at the Omaha Mission, Ida attending school. Lucy is now married to a good man, is in consumption, and Ida is attending the Government school, hoping to return to Hampton next year.

Etta Pilcher (No. 147, F.). Was graduated in 1890, and has since been teaching at the Government school, Omaha. She was young (17) for so much responsibility, but has done well.

Julia St. Cyr (No. 148, F.). (See No. 25, F.)

Jane All-Yellow (No. 149, F.). Wife of James, and came with him to Hampton. (See 317, M.)

Rosa Bear Face (No. 150, F.). (See No. 28, F.)

Emma Goodform (No. 151, F.). (See No. 71, F.)

Maggie Goodwood (No. 152, F.). (See No. 102, F.)

Marcella Pleets (No. 153, F.). Developed consumption soon after she came, was taken to a New York hospital, and died there in a short time.

Bessie Swift (No. 154, F.). She returned to Miss Howard's Mission at Crow Creek and had a good home there until infatuated by a young half-breed, and consented to marry him when he should obtain a divorce. The marriage has not been happy and her influence, otherwise good, has been, unfortunately, poor.

Rosa Pleets (No. 155, F.). (See Nos. 7 and 79, F.)

Ellen Baird (No. 156, F.). Returned this summer to a good home, where she was much needed. A fine character.

Now at Hampton (No. 157, F.). Now at Hampton (No. 158, F.).

Amelia Skenandore (No. 159, F.). Returned home this summer and is living with her parents, helping in a large family.

Kate Henderson (No. 160, F.). Parents killed in Custer massacre, adopted by a white man and educated in West. schools. Here three years, was graduated in 1891, and is now teaching at Fort Belknap, Mont. An unusually earnest character who can not fail to do well.

Now at Hampton (No. 161, F.).

Alma Bean (No. 162, F.). (See 88, F.)

Cora Bear (No. 163, F.). Wife of John, and came with him to Hampton. (See 215, M.)

Mary Charlie (No. 164, F.). Returned this summer and is now living at home, hoping to return to school another year.

Angelique Cordier (No. 165, F.). Has had many advantages. Left from class of 1892. Is now living with an invalid sister and doing very well, indeed.

Now at Hampton (Nos. 166-174 inclusive).

Elizabeth Robertson (No. 175, F.). Wife of Gabriel, and came with him to Hampton. (See 364, M.)

Addie Stevens (No. 176, F.). (See No. 65, F.)

Mary Jane White Crow (No. 177, F.). Arrived unsound but improved greatly while here, and remained nearly three years. She taught here during the winter, and in the spring accepted the position of teacher at the Government school, Yankton Agency, S. Dak. She has since been teaching there most acceptably. A girl of rare intelligence and force of character.

Lizzie Young (No. 178, F.). Was graduated in 1891, and, not willing to return home until better prepared, went to Northampton, Mass. She lives in a family where she helps with the housework, has lessons in the evening, and has already earned considerable money by doing typewriting for a paper.

Now at Hampton (Nos. 179-182 inclusive).

Lena Elm (No. 183, F.). Returned by special permission to be with her mother, then dangerously ill. Has since returned.

Now at Hampton (Nos. 184-187, inclusive).

Lottie Smith (No. 188, F.). A remarkably beautiful and accomplished girl from among the North Carolina Cherokees. She became engaged here to a Sioux young man of excellent character, and returned home to marry him there and go with him to Crow Creek, where he is employed as carpenter at the agency. (See 361, M.)

Jessie Banks (No. 189, F.). (See No. 66, F.)

Now at Hampton (Nos. 190-193 inclusive).

Irene High Bird (No. 194, F.). Wife of John, and came with him to Hampton. (See No. 392, M.)

Now at Hampton (No. 195, F.)

Ida Stone (No. 196, F.). A widow, dishonest and unpromising, returned after two years. She dresses and appears well. Was recently married to a well-to-do man.

Mary Palmer (No. 197, F.). Lizzie Palmer (No. 198, F.). Sisters, who came from the Stockbridge tribe. Neither were satisfactory pupils and were soon returned. The elder is now married, but we know little else about them. They came from a civilized family in comfortable circumstances.

Now at Hampton (Nos. 199-204, F. inclusive).

Minnie Wilgus (No. 205, F.). Returned this summer for general inability to succeed, and will probably attend the Government school at Crow Creek.

MALES.

Nos. 1-16, M., inclusive. It will be remembered that the Indian work in the East began with the prisoners brought by Capt. Pratt to Hampton April 13, 1878. Their time of imprisonment had expired. Many had proved apt pupils of the ladies of St. Augustine, who had taught them, and of the captain, who had trained them, and permission was obtained for certain ones to remain East for more such training. Hampton and the colored students welcomed them here and made a place for them that has never been closed to the race. These 17 young men showed what could be done, and at the school's request, others were brought from the West and the so-called experiment continued. In 1879 the education of Indians in the East seemed so promising that Carlisle was started and Capt. Pratt put in charge. For a trained nucleus fourteen of the ex-prisoners were taken there. Two had died here, and one, Bear's Heart, chose to remain at Hampton. Of those who went we have never kept any definite record; they are not usually counted among our students.

James Bear's Heart (No. 17, M.). Quite a remarkable character, but badly diseased when he came. He was a strong influence for good here among the new Sioux students, and made many warm friends in the North. He knew he could not live long, was anxious to see his mother, and returned home, his trunk filled with gifts for her. He lived only a short time, but wrote that he was glad to be back among his old friends and hoped he had done them some good.

John Downing (No. 18, M.). Was graduated in 1882 and returned to the Wichita Agency, taking the first good position that offered, that of agency police. He soon after selected a beautiful tract of land 10 miles from the agency, and started a farm and herd. To-day he has large fields of grain and corn, an excellent orchard and vegetable garden, large herds of cattle, hogs, and ponies, and a nice house and family. His success has been the work of his own hands, and he is most highly commended by all, is honest, enterprising, and thrifty—a Christian gentleman.

George Ahuka (No. 19, M.). Strong, earnest character, but consumptive. He influenced many to come to school and did what he could in a quiet way until his death.

Arihotckish (No. 20, M.). Bright young boy, very promising. His father, Chief Hard Horn, took him to Fort Buford and he died there from exposure and Indian medicine not long after.

Louis Agenoughwea (No. 21, M.). Has shortened his name to Agna. Came to Hampton a second time. Had frozen his leg at home and was unable to do any active school duty. Soon after his second return he was put on the Indian police force, promoted to lieutenant, and in 1889 made a catechist by Bishop Hare and stationed at a camp on the Moreau. He appears well in every way; seems to be practicing the religion he preaches. (See No. 171, M.)

Edward Ashley (No. 22 M.). An eccentric character. After his return he taught for a while and came back to Hampton. On his second return home he took up land and did well as a stock-raiser. He has been for several years an assistant at Miss Howard's mission, plays the organ for church services, interprets generally, is active in the different societies for promotion of civilization and Christianity, and has a good character. He has never married, says he has no time to think about "such a serious importance." (See No. 143, M.)

Edwin Bishop (No. 23, M.). Very promising boy. Went to work at once at the school making and mending shoes. He was accidentally shot while duck shooting, about a year after.

Harry Brown (No. 24, M.). Taught at the Government school awhile very acceptably, but came back for more education. Over-exertion brought on a sudden hemorrhage, and he was soon sent home, dying there soon after. His influence was broad and strong and his life and character is a familiar story to the Cheyenne River children of to-day. (See No. 160, M.)

Oscar Brown (No. 25, M.). Son of the first lieutenant of Gen. Sibley's scouts, a handsome, bright boy, but in consumption when he came. He returned to the Mission school and died soon after.

George Bush Otter (No. 26, M.). Had charge of boys at the Government school; taught there also and after a year came back to Hampton. He left from the middle class to study theology at Alexandria, Va., but had not English enough to succeed. He then assisted in the Bureau of Ethnology, became entangled in a love affair that caused his dismissal, and went to Fort Stevenson, N. Dak., to teach. He left there in 1889, and has since been living on his wife's (a white woman) place in Hedgeville, W. Va. (See No. 137, M.)

John Cadocete (No. 27, M.). Remained here less than a year, returned home, and died soon after.

Sam'l Cante-Wanica (No. 28, M.). Son of Little No-Heart, the most progressive of the Sioux chiefs. He was too delicate to remain and soon returned home. He accidentally shot himself three years later.

Joseph Cook (No. 29, M.). Soon returned for ill health. Was said to be the "best dancer in Dakota" until within a few years. Now farms and builds houses for Indians—quite a progressive. He writes: "By means of carpentry taught me at Hampton me and my wife have something to eat."

George Deloria (No. 30, M.). Soon returned for ill health. Had a little schooling before he came, but though bright enough has not done much. Works as a carpenter and farmer, but is constantly changing his abiding place. He has not a good name among the Indians.

Eccorruptaha (No. 31, M.). Badly diseased when he came and died at the School in 1880.

Henry Fisherman (No. 32, M.). For several years he and his father supplied the Missouri River boats with wood. He is now farming and doing very well; dresses neatly and suitably. Is deaf and very retiring.

Sam'l Four Star (No. 33, M.). Sent home after a short time for ill health and bad conduct, but did exceedingly well there. In 1884 he applied again to come to Hampton and was permitted. His conduct here was bad and he was again returned, and has done better than was expected. Has a farm and has worked regularly at his trade when he had a chance. (See No. 173, M.)

Andrew Fox (No. 34, M.). Bright and quick as a student, and, though a full blood, spoke English so well that he soon found employment as interpreter on the Missouri River boats. Came back in 1884, but was then in consumption and was sent back in two months. He married a daughter of Sitting Bull and became a sort of secretary to the old man. During the trouble of 1890 Fox was with Sitting Bull and escaped, but was captured later and imprisoned. (See No. 174, M.)

Henry Karunach (No. 35, M.). Worked as shoemaker at Fort Stevenson school a year. Saved his money and came back alone and unheralded. After his second return he again worked at the school as a shoemaker and remained there until his death, four years later, highly spoken of by the superintendent and agent. (See No. 126, M.)

Thos. Suckley (Kawhat). (No. 36, M.). Bright little boy. Went to school at Fort Stevenson after his return, then to Genoa, and is now at Carlisle.

Thos. Laughing Face (No. 37, M.). Consumptive; could not do much after return. He remained at Mission most of the time, dying there after about three years.

Mahpiya-mani (No. 38, M.). Consumptive; and died here after a few months.

Frank Pamani (No. 39, M.). Did fairly well after his first return and came back after about three years with his wife Celeste. They lived in a cottage here, but Celeste was sick and Frank lazy and both returned in about a year. Frank has worked some, danced some, and is not very ambitious to succeed—is indifferent rather than bad. They have a nice house because Celeste made the most of her year here and is a good housekeeper, keeping herself also in neat white woman's dress. She is a woman of influence in the church and sewing society. (See No. 179, M.)

John Pleets (No. 40, M.). Steady, reliable. He was put in charge of the agency stables on his return in 1881 and has held the position faithfully ever since. He has a good home and a nice family, and is much respected by all.

Francis Rencontre (No. 41, M.). In consumption when he came, and died at the school after a few months.

Henry Rencontre (No. 42, M.). Quiet, good boy; returned to his mother, built her a new house, and was a help and comfort to her, and an influence for good. He died in 1884.

Lezedeo Rencontre (No. 43, M.). Carpenter for awhile, then married an educated girl, and took a camp school, teaching there about two years—until his wife's health failed. He has a good farm and stock, but has been for the past two years the industrial teacher at the White River Camp school.

John Robb (No. 44, M.). Had been to school before and was very bright, though consumptive. He was taken to the House of the Good Shepherd, Syracuse, N. Y., hoping to prolong his life, but died there after a few months, in 1880.

David Simmons (No. 45, M.). Unusually bright and promising. Had been to school before and left from the junior class. He has been a teacher, interpreter, issue clerk, and farmer; is now keeping store for himself. He has the unqualified respect of all, having borne always a character above reproach. He has remained a bachelor until this fall. His wife is an educated girl—former assistant at the Government school.

Shooting Bear (No. 46, M.). In consumption when he came, and died two months after he got here.

Lorey Sutaschnay (No. 47, M.). A delicate boy, who, though he stayed his time out, has never been well. He has farmed and done fairly well, and is now married and living on the Moreau.

Thomas Smith (No. 48, M.). Farming and herding at Fort Berthold ever since his return in 1881. The missionary says that he is good in industry, character, and influence.

Charlie Stone (No. 49, M.). Only son of Chief Dog Back; was returned within a few months and died soon after.

Charles Tatankaska (No. 50, M.). Seemed to be breaking down, and so was sent home. He went to his father at Standing Rock, and in 1888 they were the first men to sign the Sioux bill. Charles has a good farm; speaks English, dresses and appears well, and has made the most of his rather meagre opportunities.

Thomas Fly (Ushakeumpa) (No. 51, M.). Was a good carpenter here and worked at that trade seven years at Standing Rock; then married Sitting Bull's daughter and retired from business and to the Indian ways of his father-in-law's household. After her death, three years ago, he married a nice Hampton girl. Has worked at the post trader's, and last year enlisted as a scout at Fort Yates. Speaks English, and means to be all a civilized man should, but makes some mistakes in judgment.

Joseph Marshall (Wahn) (No. 52, M.). Enlisted as a scout and connected with Fort Bennett, and kept the position until his death in 1886. He occasionally got liquor from the soldiers, but this is the only thing we have heard against his good record.

Samuel Waminiya-luza (No. 53, M.). Was found to be consumptive and sent home as soon as possible. He died a short time after.

John Thompson (Wichakasaka) (No. 54, M.). Found work almost immediately with a white man in the town of Chamberlain, S. Dak., and did well. He came back after two years and remained two years longer, and on his second return home worked as a carpenter, opened up a farm, and proved decidedly progressive. In 1889 he was made a catechist by Bishop Hare, and still holds that very influential position, besides attending to his farm and cattle. (See No. 156, M.)

Charles Willis (No. 55, M.). Had been in training for a catechist, but was consumptive and had to give it up. He died very soon after his return home.

Joseph Thompson Winnebago (No. 56, M.). He has worked in the carpenter shop at the agency almost all the time since his return in 1881. He has a good farm several miles away, considerable stock, and is interested in the agricultural club started there. He is constant at church services, and has as good a home as his wife, an uneducated woman, can make. The children are very neat and well kept.

White Breast (No. 57, M.). Consumptive when he came, and was soon sent home to Fort Berthold. He married and lived as the Indians do, but dressed in citizen's clothes, kept his brother in school, and was counted "progressive." He died in 1888.

Frank Yellow Bird (No. 58, M.). Went to Lower Brulé Agency, worked in the wheelwright and blacksmith shops, started a farm, built a good house and did exceedingly well in every way. He was a great help to the missionary and went every Sunday into the camp to hold services. He played the organ and led the singing in the church, and was a real leader in all progressive movements. He died suddenly three years later, from an accident.

Jonathan Heustice (No. 59, M.). Too old when he came, and not strong in body or mind. Since his return he has been with a show much of the time, but is now farming at Pawnee Agency.

Jesse Bernie, wife, and baby. (Full Sioux.) Yankton Agency, South Dakota. [See notes, No. 68, M., p. 15.]

John King (No. 60, M.). Started a store at Shawneetown, Ind. T., soon after his return, and has been in business ever since. He has always been highly spoken of, his character and industry commended always, though we hear that he has recently married after the Indian custom.

James Murie (Young Eagle) (No. 61, M.). Was graduated in 1883, taught a year at Pawnee Agency, then went to Haskell Institute, Kansas, as disciplinarian and drill-master for two years. He then came east for more education, but was dissuaded by the then Commissioner of Indian Affairs, who did not approve of higher education, and sent back to the Pawnee school to teach. The place was filled before he got there and he took the clerkship instead. The next year he married and is now living on a farm and doing well. He has a good mind and an unusual gift for talking and writing.

Thomas Alford Wildcat (No. 62, M.). Was graduated in 1882. He taught at the Shawnee school six years, and has since been surveying. In 1889 he was compass man at $4 a day. In 1891 surveyed the Sac and Fox land. He has a nice house and barn, built by himself, 100 fruit trees, 50 acres of land fenced for garden and grain, and a herd of 75 cattle. He has unusual pluck, character, and general intelligence, and has made his success alone and unaided. He is highly spoken of by all. His wife is a white lady and their home and children are well kept and cared for.

Michael Oshkeney (No. 63, M.). Was graduated in 1882, and returned, hoping to teach. No chance offered and he took a position of clerk until the next year, when he taught and studied medicine with the physician. He returned to Hampton at his own expense in 1886, but behaved badly in Washington, D. C., and after earning enough here to pay his way home returned. He has since been engaged in logging, doing some clerking, and assisting at the Government school. He was married in church. (See No. 279, M.)

Charles Soman (No. 64, M.). Very bright, industrious, and well behaved, except when under the influence of liquor. Has been logging ever since he returned, making large sums of money. He plays in a band and is very popular wherever he goes. He has never married, but has a good name. Has several times applied to return to Hampton.

Michael Marquemitas (No. 65, M.). Sent home for drinking, with the privilege of coming back if he made a good record for a year. He returned and was graduated in 1887. Since then he has been working at his trade, wheelwright, and logging in winter. The agent writes that he "provides for his home, and treats his wife with as much consideration as a white man would." (See No. 261, M.)

Alexander Peters (No. 66, M.). Remained here five years and then went to Haskell Institute, Kansas, as blacksmith. After a year or more he returned home, married a white woman, and is now farming in summer and logging in winter. He has done well.

Felix Benoit (No. 67, M.). Was a victim of inherited disease when he came, frequent attacks of which unfitted him for regular work. He was agency interpreter at Cheyenne River for two years, teacher of a camp school three years, and is now with his family on a farm. He has not done his best.

Jesse Bernie (No. 68, M.). Was returned in less than a year for ill health, and has done well. He lives on a good farm, dresses nicely, speaks fair English, and has a good standing among the Christian Indians.

Samuel Brown (No. 69, M.). Returned after four years, and was for some time shoemaker at the Government school, but married a very nice schoolgirl and moved to his farm. He has always posed for an exemplary man, but has never had the respect of the Indians. For the last two years he behaved disgracefully, and died last spring with a very bad name.

Daniel Mandan (No. 70, M.). A nice, quiet little boy; had consumption when he came, and returned home after a year, and died very soon after.

Isaac Mandan (No. 71, M.). Sent home very soon for ill-health. Lived a Christian life and died 1885.

Charles Picotte (No. 72, M.). A son of the interpreter. Here seven years in all. Was graduated in 1887, returned home and taught at the mission school a year, then married Marguerite La Flesche, who was teaching at Omaha, and went there to run her father's place. He has done exceedingly well, has the largest crops of any Indian, and everything done in the most approved way. He has a fancy for wearing his hair a la "Buffalo Bill," but in life, dress, and bearing he is above reproach, and is highly spoken of by all who know him well. (See Nos. 204 and 307, M.)

George Stricker (No. 73, M.). Wandered about for a year, then settled down to faithful work as clerk in the trader's store at Lower Brulé, S. Dak., remaining there until this year, when he went home to Yankton Agency, and began improvements on his own land. While a clerk at Lower Brulé he had opened up a farm and made many improvements on his wife's land. He bears an excellent Christian character, and though never in good health, has done exceedingly well.

Samuel Fremont (No. 74.). He had been injured by a horse before coming here, and soon developed consumption. He returned home to the Omaha Agency, and soon after died.

William Hunter (No. 75, M.). Was a very promising boy. He went to the Genoa school, Nebraska, as clerk, and remained there about five years, or until his health failed and he was obliged to return home. He died in 1888. The employes and students at Genoa speak very highly of him.

William Watson (No. 76, M.). Was sent home in consumption and died at the Omaha Mission a few months later.

Frank Chisholm (No. 77, M.). The son of a rich cattle man in Indian Territory. He returned on expiration of his time (after his father's death), and for a few years lived a very fast life among the cowboys there. By 1889, when the money was gone, he had settled down on a farm and has since done somewhat better.

Robert Conalez (No. 78, M.). A bright and handsome child, but son of a Mexican outlaw and evidently inheriting evil tendencies. He returned while but a child to his friends, and joined them in their wild life. He has been arrested for horse stealing, and has been in jail more than once; is now in Texas.

Antonito Azul (No. 79, M.). Son of the head chief of the Pimas (Arizona), who came to bring his own and his friends' children, and to get some ideas that might benefit his tribe. He remained but a year and returned with his trunk well stocked with samples and patterns of various kinds, and with a strong determination to improve his tribe. The agent writes five years later: "Antonito Azul is a fair representative of what the Indian citizen should be, intelligent, sober, and industrious, having an intelligent appreciation of property honestly acquired, so hard to create in an Indian. As one of the results of his industry he occupies a fair adobe house comfortably furnished, and uses his own wagons and buggy. Last year he was given the contract for furnishing the beef for the school and the service was very satisfactory. This year he will supply the beef, barley, and wheat necessary to this agency. I am informed that when he went to Hampton he left two wives, and that on his return one was provided for, but divorced. This example of the chief's son aided materially in extirpating polygamy from this reserve, and it is gratifying to state that there is not now on either of the reservations under this agency a single case of plurality of wives."

Harry Azul (No. 80, M.). The young son of Antonito. He was too delicate to remain very long, and returned on the expiration of his three years' term. He has since been farming and helping his father.

Savalpke Conklin (No. 81, M.). Had an attack of pleurisy soon after coming, which terminated in consumption, and he died very soon.

Oliver Eaton (No. 82, M.). Remained four years and returned because he thought he was needed at home. Taught awhile and then enlisted as a scout under Gen. Miles and went in search of Geronimo and his band of Apaches. Gen. Miles says: "During the raid the troops followed the hostiles 45 miles over the roughest mountains of Arizona, through intense heat and no water. It was the sharpest, quickest, and most emphatic campaign ever made against the Indians. Oliver Eaton, an Indian scout, a graduate of Hampton School, was the trailer, and his skill in keeping the trail enabled the troops to keep close to the hostiles. In crossing San Pedro Valley the hostiles traveled nearly 15 miles on tiptoe to hide the trail, but Eaton held it." He has been a scout most of the time since.

Kistoe Jackson (No. 83, M.). Remained here seven years and learned the blacksmith's trade well, having been promised that position. A change of administration at home made this impossible to him, and he has since been freighting, farming, digging wells, and doing what he could. He is well spoken of by the agent and missionary.

Henry Kendall (No. 84, M.). Died here from spinal meningitis about a year after he came.

Charles Mathews (No. 85, M.). A young boy, hard to manage with older ones, and in 1885 was sent with three other small boys to the Educational Home in Philadelphia. He remained there two years. Since then he has been a scout at Fort McDowell, Ariz. When that was abandoned he went home and has been farming and herding most of the time. His record has not been very good, an inherited love for liquor being the main trouble.

Robert McIntosh (No. 86, M.). "Fiery Bob" he was called by the soldiers, from his disposition. He was ambitious and went back quite well informed in many ways. He has been an interpreter most of the time since, was in that capacity with Gen. Miles during the Apache outbreak. In 1888 he came east with a party of Apaches and was much lauded by the newspapers. Reports about him have been good, though in some ways* he has adhered to the Indian customs.

George Norcross (No. 87, M.). Died of peritonitis a few months after he came, * Marriage.

James Rios (No. 88, M.). Very promising, but consumptive when he came and soon returned. He did fairly well at home, but died in 1836.

Paul Rios (No. 89, M.). A very bad character; was sent to Massachusetts hoping to do him good, but he ran away and went home. We heard of his death in 1833.

William Roberts (No. 90, M.). Exceedingly good, but stupid. He worked at the carpenter's trade here and continued it after his return home, earning $2 a day, for two years. Dr. Pangburn, of San Carlos, wrote often of him, speaking very highly of his industry and perseverance. He died in 1837.

Benjamin Stago (No. 91, M.). Wild, but bright and good-natured. He has been teacher, drunkard, interpreter, and prisoner with a record varying from good to very bad. He is now said to be "steadily improving."

Tehma Voorhees (No. 92, M.). A most promising young boy. He was taken home by Antonio, his chief and uncle, while on a visit east. He served for a time as interpreter and clerk at San Carlos, was taken ill with pneumonia, and had nearly recovered when his Indian friends took him to camp and, as the agent says, "danced him to death in one night."

David St. Cyr (No. 93, M.). Was in the class of 1835, but did not receive his diploma. He spent the next year in New York City as bell boy in the Metropolitan Hotel, then returned home to help his father. He has been a clerk and has worked fairly well. He dresses well and appears well, but has not made a good record in some other ways.

Juan Garfield (No. 94, M.). He came alone from Arizona and was very earnest and faithful. He returned after three years and worked on in his faithful, quiet way until his death three years later.

John Archambeau (No. 95, M.). Industrious and earnest, but deficient in mental gifts. He came back a second time to escort a party from Crow Creek, but spent most of the time on the school's farm at Shellbanks. On his second return home he left the reservation and found work—carpentry—in the town of Pierre, S. Dak. He remained there two years or more, and then enlisted as a soldier and was stationed at Fort Yates, where he still remains a member of the Twelfth Infantry (white).

William Bean (No. 96, M.). Returned after three years and found employment as assistant miller. He worked faithfully there until the mill was abandoned, and has since been steadily at work as a carpenter. He made a serious mistake soon after his return, but did all he could to remedy the wrong and has since been highly spoken of in every way.

Baptiste Bear Bird (No. 97, M.). Came to Hampton a second time, bringing his wife, Julia. They lived in one of the cottages here and made excellent improvement. After his return he was industrial teacher at the Government school, the next year a policeman, and then for a year with Miss Howard as assistant in her industrial school. He was then made a catechist by Bishop Hare and has ever since been very faithful to his charge. Julia died over a year ago, leaving a child nearly blind, and Baptiste is now in consumption, and has gone to the hospital at Standing Rock, N. Dak., by special permission.

Peter Brazeau (No. 98, M.). He returned after three years, did considerable visiting among relatives, and then went to work at painting. He died two years later, but left a good name.

Samuel Cetan (No. 99, M.). Returned after four years, opened up a farm, married, and has a good home. Later he went to the agency as blacksmith and has held that position in connection with his farm most of the time since. He has been for several years a catechist of the Episcopal church and holds services on Sunday but keeps on with his trade during the week.

Joseph Estes (No. 100, M.). Left after three years from the middle class. Taught a year, managed the printing office of an Indian paper for two years, and went to the Santee Normal school to do similar work there on the English edition of the same paper. He had trouble with the manager and left. Since then he has been teacher, organist, surveyor's assistant, agency farmer, and is now regular interpreter at the Lower Brulé Agency.

Baptiste Gabe (No. 101, M.). Returned after three years and has since been employed most of the time as a herder at Standing Rock, driver at Fort Bennett, and in charge of the agency stables at Cheyenne River. During the excitement of last winter he was interpreter for the Army, but returned to his work when the trouble was over. His life has not been exemplary in all respects, though reports of him are generally good.

Thomas Ikinicapi (No. 102, M.). A boy whom everyone liked instinctively. He came back to Hampton the second time with a scrofulous neck, which did not improve and he was obliged to return home. The physician took him into his office as interpreter and helper, keeping him there until very recently, when he was obliged to go home "to die" he says. He cannot live long, but will leave a clean record, and a good name. (See No. 293, M.)

William Larrabee (No. 103, M.). Came chiefly to bring his little sister. Returned after three years, became agency herder, then blacksmith, then agency inspector for Cheyenne River. He served in that capacity during the councils in regard to the Sioux bill. Since 1889 he has been a "district farmer" stationed at Chargers Camp, now the site of the new agency. He married an educated girl and has had a fair home. She has recently died.

Henry Little Eagle (No. 104, M.). Returned after three years, did well, and came back with a young wife. They lived here in a cottage and proved a very promising couple. They returned in 1888 and Henry found work at the agency as clerk and blacksmith, and opened up land several miles away. In 1890 they moved to their farm and have done fairly well. Lucy is a great help in the women's societies, being quite accomplished with shears and needle. They both have good records in every way, Henry being a leader in all religious and progressive movements. He has now all his father's children in school. (See No. 301, M.)

Joseph Marsh (No. 105, M.). He was young when he returned on expiration of time. He has been a herder for the Cheyenne River Agency, and is now on the Rosebud herd. He is not married. We have never heard anything against his character.

Benjamin Mato (No. 106, M.). In consumption when he came, and soon returned. He died very soon after.

Samuel Medicine Bull (No. 107, M.). A son of the Chief Medicine Bull, and a young man of strong influence and force of character. In the year that he taught at home he so influenced his father that, instead of opposing everything progressive, he became a leader in the opposite party. Samuel returned to Hampton for two years, and has, since 1886, been teacher at his father's camp, and catechist there and at St. Albans. He is industrious, and has a good farm and herd; is a carpenter on occasion, and wields a powerful influence for good in a quiet way that is very telling. He married a Christian girl.

Benjamin Brave (Ohitika) (No. 108, M.). Returned home after four years on account of eye trouble. He drifted for a while, then opened up a farm, married a Hampton girl, and did so well that he was made a catechist and later a teacher also at Driving Hawk's camp. He is unusually enterprising for an Indian, and has become a leader, not only in religious matters, but in an agricultural society, a base ball club, and various other enterprises for the promotion of civilization among the younger people. His record has always been excellent.

Thomas Paseca, now Ashley (No. 109, M.). Returned home after four years, did well, and came back for two years more, returning to Standing Rock. He has been until recently a policeman there, highly spoken of for his work, but his character in other ways has not been satisfactory, having married twice by Indian custom, thereby injuring his influence for good. He has recently received a prize for having the best field in his camp this fall. (See No. 318, M.)

David Stricker (No. 110, M.). A son of one of the leading judges at Yankton Agency; bright but wild; he was sent North, where we hoped he might improve. He came back here not much better, and returned home. Has been sowing wild oats of various kinds until within a year, when he seems to have settled down to work and better living. He has married a schoolgirl, and will have a good home if he continues to behave himself.

William Saul (No. 111, M.). An Episcopal catechist, with very little English or experience off the reservation. He worked hard for a year here, then returned home to his family and parish at Santee. He was afterward stationed at Yankton, and for a few years past has been at Corn Creek, Rosebud Agency. He is now deacon and is doing excellent work.

Joseph Sunkaska (No. 112, M.). Was here four years, learned almost no English, but was a good worker. Has since been employed almost all the time as agency carpenter. He dresses and appears well and is well spoken of for character and industry.

Joseph Tasunkawaste (No. 113, M.). In consumption when he came, and died here the next year.

Tiyowickate (No. 114, M.). Consumptive when he came, did not improve, and returned before the expiration of his time, and we heard almost nothing about him until in 1885 we heard that he was dead.

Thomas Tuttle (No. 115, M.). A very promising boy, who returned, after three years, to Crow Creek. He was interpreter, school assistant, and clerk for a while, then when the mill was started entered that and has been there ever since (four years). He now runs the engine and, the miller says, can do any part of the work alone. Besides his work there, he has a farm and herd, a good frame house built by himself, and is in every way an enterprising and intelligent young citizen. One mistake several years ago injured his influence for a time, but he is now respected by all.

George Wannapin (No. 116, M.). Six feet four inches tall, thin and consumptive when he came. Was given work in the school slaughter house, and gained so much he was able to stay three years. Could hardly read, but opened a school and managed to hold it for a year, until Misses Goodale and Tileston arrived to take it. He then became their assistant and did his part very faithfully. He is now a policeman, dresses and appears well, but is said to be unkind to his wife.

Louis Agard (No. 117, M.). A wild and headstrong young cowboy and horse breaker. He was sent home for drinking and has never done well for any length of time. Is now in the penitentiary, we hear, awaiting trial for murder.

Joseph Archambeau (No. 118, M.). A bright little boy. He went home after 3 years, to a good mother, was for years a clerk in the traders' store, doing some farming and living in a very nice house of two rooms. He is now farming and stock-raising near Oak Creek, S. Dak.; is well married.

Frank Black Hawk (No. 119, M.). Half Indian, with bad negro blood. Was sent away from here for drunkenness. Was in the penitentiary at Sioux Falls, eighteen months, and has not done much better since he came out. He floats about so we find it difficult to keep track of him.

Cracking Wing (No. 120, M.). Bright and plucky. In consumption when he came, but made a brave fight for life here and in the North. He had no home and wanted to stay here and die. He lived nearly three years, and the memory of his life has been helpful to all his friends.

Deluska (No. 121, M.). Also a consumptive when he came, and returned home before the expiration of his time. The following spring he died a Christian death in a heathen camp.

Thomas Goodwood (No. 122, M.). Was here eight years in all. Since his return in 1888 he has been steadily employed as carpenter at the agency, getting $2 a day. He married a Hampton girl and they have an excellent home, the home that took the agent's prize for neatness and order. Both have made excellent records.

Charles Many Birds (No. 123, M.). He was wild and vicious by nature, but did well in Massachusetts until he got angry about something and ran away. He fell from the train when going through Wisconsin, was run over and lost his leg. He went to the Fort Stevenson school for a while afterward, but died in 1889.

John Tiaokasin (No. 124, M.). Was here six years in all, the last time coming with his wife, also a Hampton student. They have a very nice home. John has been carpenter at the agency, at $1.50 and $2 a day, ever since his return. He is expected soon to take the position of carpenter at Cannon Ball as soon as that substitution is finished. John has been very influential in getting young men away to school, and has done much to keep the returned students together in social and religious ways. (See Nos. 213 and 333, M.)

White Back (No. 125, M.). In consumption when he came, and not having force enough to even prolong life, died in three months.

Henry Karunach (No. 126, M.). (See No. 35, M.)

John Couteau (No. 127, M.). A full blood Sac and Fox, but brought up among low white associations. While under punishment he ran away and had a hard time getting to Indian Territory. He applied to return to school, and was given permission to come whenever he could show a good record for one year. He came back in 1889 and has since been steadily improving. (See No. 387, M.)

Antoine Gokey (No. 128, M.). An uncle of John Couteau; a kind-hearted man, but low in thought and life. He was soon returned, but died in 1889.

Charles Tatiah (No. 129, M.). A very bright and interesting character, but physically unable to continue in school. He went to Fort Berthold hoping to teach a year and return here, but he was not well received there, was taken sick and returned very soon to Indian Territory, dying there a few months later.

Noah La Flesche (No. 130, M.). Philip Stabler (No. 131, M.). Two young men who came to Hampton (with their wives) to learn the carpenter's trade and what they could of civilization and books. They remained over three years and went back to Omaha Agency fairly well prepared for citizenship and self-support. They helped each other in building nice two-story frame houses (with the help of the Home Building Department of the Women's National Indian Association), opened up farms and are now the leading "progressives" of the tribe. They have this year large crops of grain and corn, nice gardens and fruit trees, good herds of cattle and horses. They have nice barns, sheds, and corn cribs, all built by themselves, and their homes are kept neat and pleasant by the wives, who were trained with them here. These homes have been and are still models for the other Indians, and the people whose pluck and enterprise have made them have the respect of both Indians and white people.

Guy Stabler, (No. 132, M.). Though too young to do much, he went home to help his father, and has done so most effectually, sending off all the younger children to school. In five years he has started a large farm and has shown great determination and industry.

Walter Battice, (No. 133, M.). Was graduated in 1887, and after a summer at home, in Indian Territory, returned east and entered the Bridgewater, Mass., Normal School, graduating there in 1889. He returned home, taught a year very acceptably, in the Government school at Sac and Fox, and has since been keeping store at Econtuehka, in partnership with another man. He was married a year ago, sending out engraved announcement cards, but wrote that he "could not be a Christian in Indian Territory." He is said to drink and gamble occasionally, but other reports against his character have been shown to be without foundation, by testimony we regard as reliable.

Thomas Miles (No. 134, M.). Was graduated in 1885 and went to a preparatory school in Meriden, N. H. The next year he entered the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania and remained two years until his health gave way. He then went home and taught a year at the Sac and Fox Government school, and came back to pay his way through his senior year. His health failed again and he decided to return home once more. He married a young white woman in Philadelphia and took her with him. He taught at the same school another year (1890-91) and then went to Philadelphia, where his wife had gone a few months before. He has heretofore done a great deal to win the respect of the Indians, but his record this last year, from a moral standpoint, has been very bad.

George Green (No. 135, M.). A young boy who was brought by the missionary from Onondaga Castle, N. Y. He was found to be epileptic and soon returned. He died at a hospital in New York State.

William Benoist (No. 136, M.). Was here a year and a half. He was neither earnest nor sincere. Has since been stock-raising, and for a year or more agency interpreter at Cheyenne River. He has a large herd of cattle, and all that his money can bring him. He was married after the Indian custom and divorced. He is not trusted by the Indians.

George Bush Otter (No. 137, M.). (See No. 26, M.)

Philip Councilor (No. 138, M.). Came with his wife, Katie, and child. They lived in the Indian girls' cottage, and were a promising couple. On their return, two years later, Philip was employed in the carpenter shop, but started a place, and built a house at St. Albans, where the progressives had gone. He was soon after made a catechist and put over the church there. Katie, who had been a great help to him, died in 1890. He married another Hampton girl, Sarah White Cow, who has also died. He is a strong man in influence and example among the Indians among whom he labors.

James Goodroad (No. 139, M.). Not strong when he came, and soon returned. He soon after ran off with a school girl and made a poor record, but afterward did better and worked faithfully on his place. In 1890 he went to the Pierre school as an assistant, and was still there in 1891. His wife is also an employé, and both are well spoken of by the superintendent.

James Rencontre (No. 140, M.). A young son of the agency interpreter. He was returned on account of scrofulous trouble. Soon after went to the Episcopal school at Springfield, S. Dak. He improved there very much, and in 1890 came home and has since been a carpenter at the agency.

David Saul (No. 141, M.). A stepson of the Rev. William Saul, but of different character. Since his return he has worked a short time as shoemaker at the Government school, some on his land, and loafed a great deal. He has made a very poor record so far, but is young enough to recover himself.

Frank Goodboo (No. 142, M.) White and weak. Returned home to Oklahoma and has been a clerk in stores there ever since. He drinks and gambles, and has ruined his health.

Edward Ashley (No. 143, M.). (See No. 22, M.)

Daniel Fire Cloud, jr. (No. 144, M.). A young son of the catechist at Crow Creek. His father and family joined him here in 1885, and in 1886 the boy died very suddenly from an accident.

John Garreau (No. 145, M.) Returned with his trade well learned and found employment in the Fort Bennett, S. Dak., harness shop. He worked there very faithfully; four years later he married a St. John's School employé and went there as an assistant about the school and place. He was still employed there in 1891. He is highly spoken of by all.

Charles Hoop Cloud (No. 146, M.). In consumption when he came and could not remain long. An earnest and beautiful character that did a great deal of quiet good before his death in 1884.

Theodore Little Boy (No. 147, M.). Broke down suddenly and was sent home, hoping he might rally in his native air, but he died a few months after.

Looking Eagle (No. 148, M.). Here only eight months and was not able to learn much. He returned to his Indian family and Indian life. He is one of the three returned Hampton boys who have "gone back to the blanket." He is simply what he would have been had he not had his few months here.

Simon Mazakute (No. 149, M.). Very promising when he came. In lifting a heavy weight he broke an artery and died in consequence, here at the school, a few months after he came.

Felix Omaha (No. 150, M.). Had serious eye trouble and was returned in a year. He got better and did so well that he was allowed to return to Hampton in 1888. He returned again in 1890, and has since been a clerk in the trader's store at Lower Brulé Agency. He is well spoken of. (See No. 359, M.)

Red Bear (No. 151, M.), Red Fish (No. 152, M.). Two friends who came here together, both in consumption, and were returned together a year later. Both died soon after.

Andrew Roberts (No. 153, M.). Rather old and nearly blind, but learned a great deal and did remarkably well with what he did learn. He had charge of the boys at the Government school, helped the missionary, and took excellent care of his old mother until his death in 1887. He was a good example of what an earnest man may learn in a very short time.

Andrew Sagyeonkte (No. 154, M.). Returned for ill health in a year. Helped his brother chop wood to sell, and did what he could until his death six months later.

William Santee or Single Feather (No. 155, M.). Returned for ill health, but with many valuable ideas. He worked for a time in the carpenter shop, then built a nice house on his land and went out there to live. He has a good wife and home and the respect of every one. He is one of the most progressive of young men and a reliable helper in all religious work.

James Thompson (No. 156, M.). (See No. 54, M.)

Voice-of-the-Cloud (No. 157, M.). Sent home for ill health and though never able to do much, lived a quiet Christian life for four years in a heathen camp. He died in 1888.

Thomas Bowman (No. 158, M.). A fine young man, with a gift for painting. His health would not warrant his staying longer and he returned to Pawnee, after two years here, and died in less than a year afterward.

Charles Doxson (No. 159, M.). Came from the Onondagas in New York to work his own way through the school. He entered the engineer's department and attended night school for two years, then went regularly through the Normal School, graduating in 1889. He has ever since been an engineer in the Sweet's Manufacturing Company, Syracuse, N. Y., earning good pay. He has an excellent character and has earned his success by hard work.

Harry Brown (No. 160, M.). (See No. 24, M.)

John Farmer (No. 161, M.). Came with Doxson from the Onondagas, but had not the strength of purpose to continue long. He became discouraged and returned after two years and has since been a carpenter and farmer.

William Harrison (No. 162, M.). Came at the age of seven and went home five years later for a vacation of two months. He is now at Hampton. (See No. 336, M.)

Joseph Arrow (No. 163, M.). Returned for ill health and went in a short time to school at Santee. Since then we have not heard anything from nor about him, and can not hear of him through the agent.

Blue Pipe (No. 164, M.). In consumption when he came and died here two months after his arrival.

John Buffalo (No. 165, M.). Old and consumptive, was returned in less than a year, and lived only a short time.

Cedar Boy (No. 166, M.). Here four years, returned and worked very faithfully, but did not have a good moral character. He died suddenly about a year later.

Benedict Cihila (No. 167, M.). Returned for ill health in less than a year and died soon after. An excellent young man, whose influence was good and strong to the last.

Alfred Crow (No. 168, M.). Light weight from whom little was expected. He remained three years and has done fairly well at home, working in the carpenter shop some and doing odd jobs. He has, however, married after the Indian custom.

Arthur Crow Boy (No. 169, M.). Returned after a year for ill health and died very soon after.

Frank Door (No. 170, M.). Had but one eye and delicate lungs, but improved in every way until a sudden cold brought on the inherited disease, and he died here just three years after he came.

Louis Agna (No. 171, M.). (See No. 21, M.)

Eugene First Hail (No. 172, M.). A bright earnest young man, but consumptive, and returned after three months. He went to his old place in the carpenter shop and worked there faithfully as long as he was able. He died in 1888, respected by all.

Samuel Four Star (No. 173, M.). (See No. 33, M.)

Andrew Fox (No. 174, M.). (See No. 34, M.)

Lawrence Industrious (No. 175, M.). Returned the next year for ill health, but has steadily improved, is married, and farming. In 1889 and 1890 he and his wife were Miss Goodale's driver and cook on her journeyings about the country inspecting schools. She speaks highly of them both, as does also the missionary.

Eugene Iron Necklace (No. 176, M.). Has made a very good record since his return, "industrious, reliable, and decidedly progressive." Has recently enlisted in the Army and is likely to be made a noncommissioned officer, says a report. He is regarded by Lieut. Hodges as the best man in the company.

Charles Le Clair (No. 177, M.). Returned for ill health. The only child of an indulgent mother, has never been well, and has never done much for himself. He married a Hampton girl, Fidalia, and they have a pleasant home and good records. He is now dying, we hear.

Charles McBride (No. 178, M.). Low and unreliable. Was sent home for bad conduct. He has worked well as a trader's clerk, and on his own place, but has been married by Indian custom, divorced from a legal wife, and has just deserted another who thought herself legally married to him.

Frank Pamani (No. 179, M.). (See No. 39, M.)

Joseph Pretty Hand (No. 180, M.). Sent home on expiration of time as unsound. Was returned by the agency physician as sound, but was obliged to return in a few months, and died soon after. The favorite brother of a large family, he had an influence that since his death has brought all but one member of his large circle into the church and to civilized ways of living. He probably did more in his death than he could have done in life, as is often the case with others than Indians. (See No. 329, M.)

Charles Rabbit (No. 181, M.). Returned for ill health three months after he came. He has since been working steadily in the blacksmith shop and has a good name.

Louis Rattling Rib (No. 182, M.). After a year here was injured by a horse and returned, fearing lung trouble. He has lived with his father, a chief, and has done some interpreting on the survey force. Has asked several times to return to school, but is not strong enough. Last year he was at the Pierre school and left, hoping to come East, but could not.

Lucas Shield (No. 183, M.). Married a Hampton girl soon after his return; lived near the Grand River Mission, assisting there and having a good home. On a visit to Crow Creek he became entangled in an affair with a half-blood girl, and from remorse, it is said, shot himself.

Charles Spotted Eyes (No. 184, M.). Is now called Charles White-man. Here only a year; returned for ill health. Has a nice wife and a good farm, but has not done well in some other ways. Was recently arrested for drinking.

Harry Woodface (No. 185, M.). Was here four years when he gave signs of breaking down and returned. He has been clerk, interpreter, has done some light work, and behaved fairly well. He has now enlisted as a soldier, and stationed at Fort Meade, S. Dak.

Jerome Wosica (No. 186, M.). Was industrious, earnest, and reliable; returned after three years. He has worked steadily since in the agency carpenter shop, on his place near St. Elizabeth's, or at the Blackfeet school. He has a good crop of grain, potatoes, and radishes this year; has a neat house, and appears well himself. He was married by the church, and has been very exemplary.

Yuxpu (No. 187, M.). Returned very soon on account of ill health, and died soon after.

Samuel Baxter (No. 188, M.). Had been off with a show and was very much demoralized by it, but improved here, and on his return married a nice girl, and has done very well. He has been tax assessor for the tribe, and has also done considerable to advance its civilization.

Carey La Flesche (No. 189, M.). Except for two short vacations has been in the school six years, and returned this summer from the middle class, hoping to come back in two months. A fall from his horse resulted in an injury that made a change of plan seem best. He is living at home, helping on the place. (See No. 324, M.)

Milton Levering (No. 190, M.). Came with his wife, Nancy, and lived in a cottage three years. He had been with a show before coming to Hampton. Soon after his return home ran off with a young Carlisle girl, and joined a medicine company exhibiting in the West. After his wife had gotten a divorce he returned to the Omaha Agency, married the one he went away with, did some farming, and has tried to redeem his record.

Edward Morris (No. 191, M.). Sent from here to Philadelphia in 1885; went home from there in 1889; came to Hampton again in 1890, and is here now doing fairly well. (See No. 428, M.)

Garry Myers (No. 192, M.). Bad by inheritance—wild and unreliable. Was sent away from here and soon after went to Carlisle, where he was highly spoken of for two years or more, then expelled, and sent home in disgrace. He has since been traveling with a baseball club; has worked some at home, and expects to go soon to Omaha City, Nebr., to work.

George Ramsey (No. 193, M.). Not brilliant, but an only son from whom much was expected. He remained four years, but went home with little more than good habits and a fair knowledge of tools. He has worked well and done well, except in some domestic complications.

Four Swords and family. (Full Sioux.) Harness-maker. Standing Rock, North Dakota. [See notes, No. 209, M., p. 23.]

Benjamin Ohitika. (Full-blood.) Catechist. Lower Brulé Agency, South Dakota. [See notes, No. 108, M., p. 18.]

David Wells (No. 194, M.). Had been with a show, and was sent home for general worthlessness. He soon after married a very nice girl and settled down to a very regular and industrious life. He has a good home, and has done very well indeed.

Joseph Beupré (No. 195, M.). A mixture of Sioux, Chippewa, and French; not a success mentally. Could not learn to read or write, but was a good worker. He has been living with other Hampton students as man-of-all-work.

Daniel Babuna (No. 196, M.). Remained two years and returned to his father's place, married a nice girl, and farms in a small way. He is not a forcible character, but dresses and appears well, and does what he can.

Louis Buck (No. 197, M.). Came with his wife and two small children, remained here three months, and then returned on account of his wife's health. She died soon after, and he has married again, this time by Christian custom. He farms and is a mail-carrier for the agency. Is reported as "excellent" in every way.

James Dolphus (Doffit) (No. 198, M.). After a year here was sent to Philadelphia, where it was thought he would do better with younger boys. He left there in 1890 and has since been on his father's farm helping him. He appears well and wants to come again to Hampton.

Edward Dupuis (No. 199, M.). Left without permission, but under circumstances that excused the lack of ceremony. He has since been helping his father on a large ranch, has married a nice Hampton girl, and is doing well.

James Fire Cloud (No. 200, M.). A bright little boy who remained two years, then went home with his father. He has since been at Hope school, Springfield, S. Dak.

Charles Johnson (No. 201, M.). Returned after a year for ill health and died a year later at Cheyenne River Agency.

Edgar Lee (No. 202, M.). Came with his wife, Nellie, but both were returned in three months as not at all promising. Nellie died the next year. Edgar has done little besides talking, preaching civilization, and dancing with the Indians. He has now, however, enlisted as a soldier at Fort Randall, S. Dak., and may do better.

Charles Marshall (No. 203, M.). Here four years, and in his slow, earnest way gained considerable. Has since been farming and stock-raising at Bad River. He does the best he can and appears very well. He has been especially earnest in helping others.

Charles Picotte (Nos. 204, M.). (See Nos. 72 and 307, M.)

Wahacauka (Shield) (No. 205, M.). Unsound on arrival, and returned after three months; went to Lower Brulé, where he is still living. He works about some, but is much the same Indian he was before his three months here.

Luther Van Metre (No. 206, M.). Ran away under instructions from his white father. He has since been at school in Philadelphia, and this fall was in Montana with his father.

Daniel Fire Cloud (No. 207, M.). An earnest man, very ambitious to learn. He came with his wife and family, having two children already here, and remained about a year and a half, doing as well as receiving good. On his return he was made catechist and stationed at a church several miles away from the agency. His wife died a year later, and he married again, and has a very nice home. He has sent his children away to school, and does all he can for the advancement of his people.

Thomas Fire Cloud (No. 208, M.). Son of Daniel, now at school in Springfield, S. Dak.

Four Swords (No. 209, M.). Sent home in a year on account of ill health. He has since been harness-maker and general laborer. The record of his character good, except that he married after the Indian custom.

Ho-Waste (No. 210, M.). Returned after a year on account of ill health. He did well for a time, but has since married by Indian custom, and has done poorly in other ways.

Charles Ota Akdi (No. 211, M.). Exceedingly dull, but allowed to come back for a second trial. Has been here four years in all, returning in 1890. He has not done, never will do, great things, but is very neat and always appears well. He is not married. (See No. 327, M.)

Standing Crow (No. 212, M.). Was sent home for ill health, but went to work at the carpenter's trade; has worked at it ever since, and has done well. He was married in church and has a record of character and influence that is excellent, the agent says of "very high order."

John Tiaokasin (No. 213, M.). (See Nos. 124 and 333, M.)

Matthew Young Eagle (No. 214, M.) Son of the old chief Two Bears, here four years. Has since been farming and has made an excellent record in every way. He has not married and is not expected to live long. His influence is said to be very strong and telling upon the young men.

John Bear (No. 215, M.). Returned home after three years and came back soon after with his wife, Cora. They lived here doing nicely for two years and then returned. John is a fair carpenter, and they have a nice cottage near Emerson, Nebr., and good sized fields of grain. Reports about John differ very widely, some showing an excellent record, some that he is "lazy and indifferent." He is, however, in advance of his people in most ways, and labors under some peculiar disadvantages, (See No. 348, M.)

Charles Bonaparte (No. 216, M.). Sent home for general unreliability. Has since been farming some; appears well, but has not improved upon his Hampton record.

Charles Clifford (No. 217, M.). Came here from Philadelphia, remained three years, then returned home from the middle class. His father, a white cattle-man, has a large ranch. Charles joined him for a time. For two years he has been agency farmer at Pine Ridge, has a nice house, his wife is an educated girl, and they are living and doing well.

Albert Fontenelle (No. 218, M.). Sent home for drinking; went to Haskell Institute, graduated there with honor, and came back here to enter the middle class and graduated in 1889. He has since been at a business college in Omaha City, and is now at the Pawnee Agency, Indian Territory, with his mother. He is said to drink badly at times. (See No. 320, M.)

Eugene Fontenelle (No. 219, M.). Graduated in 1888, and after a few weeks at home entered the law department of Cornell University. He was in honor bound to marry a girl at the Omaha Agency, and left school to do so. He has since been industrial teacher at the Government school and has won the respect of his associates. He has a nice wife and family, and, except that he occasionally drinks, has done well.

James Hamilton (No. 220, M.). Came with his wife Minnie. They lived here in a cottage three years, then went back to start a home at Omaha Agency. James is a fair carpenter and has built a nice two-story frame house, has good crops, and promises to be a success.

Irish Leming (No. 221, M.). Came with his wife Stella. He had been off with a show and was thoroughly demoralized and diseased. Both returned in three months and are now dead.

Albert Marshall (No. 222, M.). A half-breed cowboy sent here from Philadelphia, wild and too old to conform easily to rules. Was sent to Massachusetts and ran away from there. Has since been herder, interpreter, and scout; now at Fort Meade, S. Dak. His record has been very poor.

John Poor Elk (No. 223, M.). Came from Philadelphia, was in consumption, and returned to Pine Ridge in a few months. He has since died.

Paul Prairie Chicken (No. 224, M.). Came from Philadelphia, was enormously stout, but consumptive. He was returned after a year and a half; has since been living at Bad River. He is stouter than ever—from disease—and unable to do any work. Was married in church, but lives much like his neighbors.

Claymore Arpan (No. 225, M.). Here four years; a very promising young man, but died soon after his return home, quite unexpectedly.

Samuel De Fond (No. 226, M.). Consumptive by inheritance, but fought bravely for life with an intelligence and determination seldom seen in an Indian. He returned after three years, assisted the missionary in translating books and papers, taught at St. Paul's school, and did a great deal of good. In 1889 he was agency farmer; and since then has been assistant issue clerk at the agency. He was married this summer to a school girl and has a nice home at the agency.

Leon De Shequette (No. 227, M.). Came with his wife, Susan. Since their return they have been assistants at the White River school and accompanied Miss Goodale, supervisor of Indian schools, as driver and cook. In 1890 Susan died from an overdose of medicine; since then Leon has been in charge of the agency stables at Lower Brulé. He has recently married a nice young school girl. Their church wedding was a great event at the agency.

Joseph Ellis (No. 228, M.). Came with his wife Ellen. They were a painfully mismatched couple, and she so delicate that a speedy return was thought best. They have never lived together since. She is married again and he has been an employé at Fort Randall, S. Dak.

Alexander Estes (No. 229, M.). A very bright and promising young man, but broke down very suddenly one summer and died the next February.

George Estes (No. 230, M.). The youngest of a large family. He returned after three years and has spent considerable time floating about. In 1889 he took land and has made some improvements on it. He is now clerk in a trader's store, but ought to be in school.

Thomas Frost (No. 231, M.). Returned to his wife and family at Standing Rock; went to work in the carpenter shop. He still has a good character, but is careless about his influence. Did well last winter during the trouble and is inclined to live on its glory.

Wesley Huntsman (No. 232, M.). Steady, faithful, and ambitious. He was put in charge of the agency stables and served faithfully until in 1889 he went out upon his farm. He had a nice frame house, built by himself, and a well kept place. He married a white woman, Norwegian, but her housekeeping is not superior to the House of Noah La Flesche. (Full Omaha.) Built by himself. [See notes, No. 130, M., p. 19.]

James Hamilton (full Omaha) and family. Is building a house similar to one above. [See notes, No. 220, M., p. 24.]

Henry Little Eagle and family. (Full Sioux.) Crow Creek Agency, South Dakota.
[See notes, No. 104, M., p. 18.]

Samuel De Fond and bride on their wedding tour. Assistant issue clerk, Yankton Agency, South Dakota. [See notes, No. 226, M., p. 24.]

average Indian woman's. He dresses and appears exceedingly well, and deserves great credit.

Charles Jones (No. 233, M.). Slack and indifferent. Went to the Government school awhile after his return but did not do well there. He was married, after the Indian way, and left the woman. He enlisted as a soldier this summer and is stationed at Fort Randall.

Van Meter Kennedy (No. 234, M.). Graduated in 1891, and went to his white father, a blind broom manufacturer in New York State. He has since been working there.

William Little Crow (No. 235, M.). Died of spinal meningitis a year after he came.

Logan Spider (Weston) (No. 236, M.). Went to the Genoa school soon after leaving here and is still there, employed as a harness-maker. They speak most highly of him there and wish to keep him, though he wants to return and graduate here.

William Stevens (No. 237, M.). Was blacksmith for a time at Sisseton Agency, but was discharged for drinking. He was legally married but left his wife for another woman. Is industrious and pleasant in manner, rather a favorite.

George Tompkins (No. 238, M.). Thomas Tompkins (No. 239, M.). Brothers, both returned after a year for ill health. George has been steadily at work in the blacksmith shop at the agency, and Thomas running the farm. Both were married in church and are among the "progressives;" not perfect, but doing fairly well considering their disadvantages.

John Walker (No. 240, M.). Consumptive, and soon returned to Sisseton Agency. Not able to do much, but had a good character. He died last June.

Edward Yellow Bird (No. 241, M.). Not promising; diseased and soon returned. He went to Haskell Institute for a year, and has most of the time since been employed about the Yankton Agency. Was legally married, but not always correct in his life. Is now an enlisted soldier at Fort Randall, S. Dak.

Solomon Yellow Hawk (No. 242, M.). Thirteen years old when he returned, at expiration of time, to a heathen dancing father. He was painfully disfigured at birth, and his record since his return has been pathetically backward. He wants to do well but has not sufficient strength of character. Will never have much influence for either good or bad.

Robert Baldan (No. 243, M.). Quiet, good, always ailing, returned after a year. Lives with his brother on a good farm of 100 acres, near Shawneetown. He has not married.

Daniel Chilson (No. 244, M.). Graduated in 1889, and went to Shawneetown, Ind. T., to teach; got into trouble there and resigned. Has been a clerk in the store there, but has made a serious mistake which has ruined his good name and influence for a time at least. Is capable and well meaning, but weak.

Amos Foreman (No. 245, M.). Diseased when he came; was returned in two months and died soon after.

Charles Foreman (No. 246, M.). Bright and industrious, but wild and hard to control. Here five years; has since been in an excellent family in Lincoln, Mass., where he is treated like a son, paid good wages, and taught in the evenings. He expects to make his home in the East, has already a good bank account, and very sensible plans for the future.

George Haus (No. 247, M.). Still at Hampton.

John Haus (No. 248, M.). Here five years and returned to his white father in Lexington, Okla. He has since been a clerk there, but we know very little else about him, as he has been among white people entirely.

Joseph Le Clair (No. 249, M.). Had been to school at Chillico, Ind. T., and seemed anxious to learn, but was not suitably endowed by nature. He was soon returned and reentered the Chillico school. He was still there in 1889, but has since left, and has been working at Sac and Fox Agency.

Ernest Lushbaugh (No. 250, M.). An ex-student of Chillico, here a short time and returned there as a student and assistant. He is still there—a night watchman.

William Masters (No. 251, M.). Not promising nor well, and in a few months returned to Pawnee Agency. He is married by Indian custom, does some farming, but is said not to have much influence for good or bad.

Samuel Perry (No. 252, M.). Went from here to Haskell Institute; did very well there for a time, then ran away and went to the Territory. He has been employed most of the time, but has not done as well as was expected.

Ben Rich (No. 253, M.). Wild and vicious; was returned in a few months. Has done badly at home and is now in jail, we hear.

Rush Roberts (No. 254, M.). In consumption when he came, was soon returned and died a short time after.

Reuben Townsend (No. 255, M.). A most promising boy, except that he was consumptive. He spent most of his four years in the North, where he had excellent homes and good care. In 1889 he was sent home, but stopped at Chillocco on the way, was enrolled as a student, but died a few months later. His influence there was strong and very widely felt.

Henry Wallace (No. 256, M.). Returned for ill health; went very soon to Texas and died there two years later.

Thompson Alford (Wildcat) (No. 257, M.). Here four years; wild and hard to control. Went home to his brother, a Hampton graduate, for a vacation, expecting to return. No chance appeared, and in 1890 he went to Chillocco, where he is still a student, greatly improved, they say.

Jack Blue Boy (No. 258, M.). Has worked steadily in the agency harness shop ever since his return, three years. He was married by Indian custom and goes to the dances, but speaks English and is numbered among the "progressives."

Charles Pretty Flute (No. 259, M.). Worked for a while in the carpenter and wheelwright shops, then as a farmer. He is very industrious and neat in appearance, "remarkably superior to those about him" says a report. He is leader in a society started to help the young men to better ways of thinking and living, has an excellent record in every way but one—he married Miss Whirlwind according to the Indian custom.

Albert Morgan (No. 260, M.). Was brought here from Baltimore, hoping the change would do him good. He was soon returned to Omaha. Is consumptive, but is now off with a show.

Michael Maquimetas (No. 261, M.). (See No. 65, M.)

Richard Powless (No. 262, M.). Graduated in 1888 and taught at home a year, then came East and entered the Riverside Press, Cambridge, Mass., as a printer (the trade he learned here). He has been there ever since earning good wages, and attending night school. He has an excellent character and has done well in every way.

James Bear Robe (No. 263, M.). Has worked steadily in the carpenter shop since his return. Has an excellent character and influence in every way. Is a "gentleman," they say, and has done wonderfully well under many discouragements.

Claude Bow (No. 264, M.). A cripple in body, but bright in mind. Has worked some. Set up a tailor shop at the agency but did not succeed. Has never married, but lives with his uncle.

Antoine De Rockbrain (No. 265, M.). Has taught some, farmed some, and been a military scout. Is industrious, self-supporting, neat, and tidy. Was married by the church and is reported as "excellent" in character and influence.

Paul Elk (No. 266, M.). Cassimir Fire Elk (No. 267, M.). Both in poor health and sent back in two months. They are much the same as they would have been without the trip, Indians, but "progressive," and married by the church since their return.

Martin Hawk (No. 268, M.). Mentally unsound. Behaved badly after his return. Died January, 1891.

Jerome Iron Bear (No. 269, M.). Delicate young boy, but has been made by the agent head of the family since his father's death, and has been doing very well indeed, having charge of his own and his father's place.

Joseph Red Horse (No. 270, M.). Did very well at home for a year, then returned to Hampton. Is still here.

John Running-with (No. 271, M.). Was blacksmith for some time at the agency; then went (last spring) to Fort Peck, and has been working at his trade there ever since. His record is said to have been very good.

James Shot-twice (No. 272, M.). Was not a promising character. He died suddenly at the agency hospital last July.

Julius Caesar (No. 273, M.). Not strong in body, but brave and manly in spirit. He has worked steadily at his trade—carpenter—since his return in 1889, and has a good character and influence.

Frank Gautier (No. 274, M.). Came at his own expense from Keshena, Wis.; behaved badly in Washington on his way here, and was soon after requested to return. He has been clerk in his grandfather's store. Is married to a white woman (Irish) and has a nice house.

James McCoy (No. 275, M.). Unsound on arrival, and died after nearly three years.

Charles Moncravie (No. 276, M.). Had serious eye trouble, and soon returned. He went later to Carlisle and was expelled from there in 1891. Is now with his mother at Osage Agency, Ind. T.

Henry Moncravie (No. 277, M.). Bad; but was kept until expiration of his time, though away from the other students on a farm. He soon after went to Carlisle, was expelled from there, with his brother in 1891. Has now followed his mother to Indian Territory, Osage Agency.

Alfred Murie (No. 278, M.). Has been farming and freighting at Pawnee Agency; doing fairly well.

Wagon made by Joseph La Roche.

Joseph La Roche, wife, and child. Blacksmith. Lower Brulé Agency, South Dakota.
[See notes, No. 298, M., p. 27.]

Joseph Winnebago Thompson and family. (Full Sioux.) Carpenter. Lower Brulé Agency, South Dakota. [See notes, No. 56, M., p. 14.]

Joseph La Roche's house. [See notes, No. 298, M., p. 27.]

Michael Oshkeneny (No. 279, M.). (See No. 63, M.).

George Adams Parker (No. 280, M.). Feeble minded, but industrious and anxious to do right. Has worked steadily, making good use of his few advantages.

Theodore Frelinghuysen Powless. (No. 281, M.). After five years here returned, helped his father through the summer, and came back this fall.

Thomas Sloan (No. 282, M.). Graduated in 1889, and returned to Omaha Agency. Has been county surveyor and census enumerator, reading law meanwhile. This year he has been admitted to the bar, is now practicing in partnership with a half-blood Omaha, in the town of Pender. He is married to a white woman, and has a very pleasant home—a model.

Peter Sun Chief (No. 283, M.). In consumption, and returned after a few months. He died soon after. A very lovely Christian character.

Peter Archambeau (No. 284, M.). Returned after two years on account of ill health; went to St. Paul's school, and died not long after.

David Bad Fish, now Avery (No. 285, M.). Lazy and unreliable. He was returned after three years; has since been at Haskell Institute, where he is not considered at all promising.

John Bruyier (No. 286, M.). Graduated in 1890, and after a summer here, in charge of the Indian boys' cottage, went to Meriden, N. H., to prepare for the study of medicine. He has been there ever since, doing well in every way.

Charles Conolly (No. 287, M.). In poor health when he came, soon returned. He died the same year.

Moses Culbertson (No. 288, M.). Returned after four years, from the middle class. This summer he ran the self-binder for the Indians through the hottest weather, and has since been quite ill. He is very gentlemanly, very popular, and has an influence for good wherever he is. If his health permits he will teach this winter. When the Flandreau Indians were paid, he put all his money into land, and this summer has had fine crops, proving his investment good.

Frank Foreman (No. 289, M.). Was here three years; after a short visit home he went to Haskell Institute. He was still there this summer.

James Garfield (No. 290, M.). Returned after three years; taught a camp school for a while at White Swan; has since been farming, doing well. He was married by the church and has a fair home.

Harry Hunter (No. 291, M.). Has been a clerk and salesman in a store in Shawneetown, Okla., and, it is said, "would be steady if he got steady work." He has married by the Indian custom and by so doing put his influence on the wrong side.

Moses Icato (No. 292, M.). Returned after two years on account of ill health, to Bad River and with a few others started a "progressive society;" would have done well if he had had his health. In October he was said to be dying from blood poisoning, the result of an accident to his foot.

Thos. Ikinicapi (No. 293, M.). (See No. 102, M.).

Andrew Johnson (No. 294, M.). Graduated in 1891, returned to Indian Territory expecting to act as industrial teacher at Otoe, but was attacked by chills and fever, and has since been unable to do much. He is earnest and intelligent, and will do well when he is able.

Charles Kelear (No. 295, M.). Graduated in 1889, went home to help his father during the summer. The next year he went to Standing Rock and assisted in the Mission there. In 1890 he was industrial teacher at the Government school, and teacher at St. Paul's. In the summer of 1891 he took a party of children to the Genoa school and has remained there as student and employé. He has made mistakes of judgment, but has done nothing wrong.

Frank Keokuk (No. 296, M.). Returned to his grandfather's home at Sac and Fox for a time, then went to Haskell Institute where he made a good record, but was sent home for ill health. He is very deaf, and not earnest. Is among poor associations, with little to hope for.

Baptiste Lambert (No. 297, M.). Was thirty-five years old when he returned, after three years here, from the middle class. He was at once made a catechist and assisted the Episcopal missionary at the agency. He married a well educated girl; they lived nicely at the agency for a year, then were removed to White Swan, where Baptiste, besides having charge of the church, has a good farm and considerable stock. He is a most exemplary character, and is a very strong influence for good in every way.

Joseph La Roche (No. 298, M.). Went to work at once at his trade, blacksmith, at the agency, but later went out to the Bijou Hills and started an independent shop. He was most seriously attacked with rheumatism and had to return to his family for care. Since then (1890) he has been working in the agency shops, and is most highly spoken of by every one. He has a very good spring wagon, made entirely by himself, which is considered a remarkable piece of workmanship, where every little part must be hand-made.

Fred. La Rochelle (No. 299, M.). Not promising in any respect; had a very bad influence over others and was sent home after two years. Has lived about home ever since in an aimless sort of way.

Edward Little Eagle (No. 300, M.). Learned a great deal in three years and returned to help his father. He is very quiet, dresses and appears very well indeed; is seen at all religious meetings, and attends well to his own and his father's affairs. Has not married.

Henry Little Eagle (No. 301, M.). (See No. 104, M.).

Henry Lyman (No. 302, M.). Graduated in 1889. After a summer on a farm entered the Yale Law School, graduating there last May. He is now in a law office in New York City. He has always been well spoken of by his professors and others.

James Paypay (No. 303, M.). Came with his wife, Antoinette, and remained three years, living in one of the cottages built here for such students. They were a mismatched couple. On their return James went to work at the agency as carpenter, and Antoinette went home to her family, the result of which was entire separation. He has been faithfully at work and is well spoken of there, but is not correct in other ways.

Edwin Phelps (No. 304, M.). Came here to have charge of the Indians boys, but was not qualified for the work, so entered as a student. He had his wife and children (three) with him and they lived in a cottage under supervision, the same as other Indian couples. They staid but six months, returning to take charge of a mission station on the Cheyenne River Reserve. They are regular missionaries of the American Missionary Association.

Gideon Phelps (No. 305, M.). Matteos (No. 306, M.). Sons of Edwin. They attended the kindergarten here, are now at the Mission school in Oahe, S. Dak.

Chas. Picotte (No. 307, M.). (See Nos. 72 and 204, M.).

Charles Rulo (No. 308, M.). Left from the middle class this summer and is now a clerk in New York City. (See No. 430, M.)

John Clay (No. 309, M.). Was sent home after a year as not being a satisfactory character. He has not done well; has been with a show; drinks and behaves badly, though he is a good worker.

Walter Decora (No. 310, M.). Here three years, and soon after leaving went to the Genoa school, where he is doing well, and is well spoken of by the superintendent.

Wm. Henry Harris (No. 311, M.). Sent home after a year for general worthlessness. He has lived up to his Hampton record, as far as we can learn.

Philip Long Tail (No. 312, M.). Returned this summer, after four years, for a short vacation, and came back in the fall.

George Miller (No. 313, M.). Came with his wife and two children, remained a year, living in a cottage, then returned home. George has done some carpentering, and has a good farm of 230 acres, broken, and had good crops this year. They live comfortably and are self-supporting; clean children, neat home. The influence of both is said to be very good.

Fred. Moncravie (No. 314, M.). After three years was sent home, chiefly for bad conduct. He soon after went to Carlisle, and ran away from there last spring. He is now in Indian Territory with his mother.

Reuben Dan Rice (No. 315, M.). Wild and headstrong, but frank and industrious. Sent home for repeated bad conduct. Has since been in the penitentiary, and is now with the Kickapoo Medicine Company. He writes grateful and appreciative letters to the school.

Frank Tebo (No. 316, M.). Returned home after two years with very little book-learning, but determined to do right. He was married to a very nice girl by the church, even going to an adjoining town and getting a marriage license. His is said to be the first legal marriage among the Winnebago Indians. He has a good farm and is a very hardworking and exemplary young man.

James All Yellow (No. 317, M.). Came with his wife, Jane, but returned after a year for ill-health. Jane died not long after, and James has been carpenter and worked in the agency stables. Is said to be a "helpful and reliable employé."

Thos. P. Ashley (No. 318, M.). (See Paséca, No. 109 M.)

Peter Black Hawk (No. 319, M.). Returned after three years, and lives with his brother. Has made considerable money and done well in other ways. Is not married.

Albert Fontenelle (No. 320 M.). (See No. 218, M.)

Martin Hebda (No. 321, M.). Worked in a grocery store in La Grace, N. Dak., nine months in the agency blacksmith shop, and then returned to Hampton in 1891. He is still here.

Henry Jacobs (No. 322, M.). Has worked in the carpenter shop at the Crow Creek Agency ever since his return, making an excellent record there. He dresses and appears very well. Since November, however, we have heard rumors against him, which, as yet, have not been authenticated. In December, reports speak highly of him.

Harry Kingman (No. 323, M.). Now at Hampton.

Maggie Goulet Keith, family, and Day school, Wounded Knee, Pine Ridge Agency, South Dakota. [See notes, No. 15, F., p. 5.]

Henry Longfeather, Agency policeman, Crow Creek Agency, South Dakota. [See notes, No. 326, M., p. 29.]

- Carey La Flesche (No. 324, M.). (See No. 189, M.)
- John Left Hand (No. 325, M.). Returned after seven months for ill health, and has not done much. He is very much like other Indians.
- Henry Long Feather (No. 326, M.). Left here on account of ill health, went to Genoa to school, but was obliged to leave there for the same reason. Was made policeman at Crow Creek, and is still serving in that capacity very satisfactorily. He is not married. Appears very well indeed, would gladly go again to school if his health would permit.
- Charles Ota Akdi (No. 327, M.). (See No. 211, M.)
- Joseph Pleets (No. 328, M.). Has been home a year living with his sister, a Hampton girl, and working in the agency shops and stables. Is neat and appears well. Has a "fine record as workman and every other way."
- Joseph Pretty Hand (No. 329, M.). (See No. 180, M.)
- John Red Hawk (No. 330, M.). Returned to his sister, a Hampton girl, at Crow Creek, but left there and went to Standing Rock, where he was soon after married to a school girl. Is on his own farm and doing fairly well.
- Barney Red Stone (No. 331, M.). Had an excellent record for a year; was industrious, neat, and well spoken of. Has recently been in some trouble, but is expected to do better now.
- Martin Tiakan (No. 332, M.). Returned after a year and a half for ill health. Was never able to do much, and died a few months later.
- John Tiakasin (No. 333, M.). (See Nos. 124 and 213, M.)
- John Voice (No. 334, M.). Returned after two years of hopeless labor, for general inability to learn. He is a cripple, but inclined to be industrious if suitable work could be had. Has married by the church, but lives with his wife's family, who are nonprogressive. He dresses well and wants to do right.
- Frank Wankicun (No. 335, M.). Wanted to stay longer, but felt obliged to go home to help his mother. He has since built a house, has a good farm, large crop of grain, corn, and potatoes, and some stock; is a fine character and has an excellent reputation and influence.
- William Harrison (No. 336, M.). (See No. 162, M.)
- Charles Parkhurst (No. 337, M.). Alfred Powless (No. 338, M.). Lyman Powless (No. 339, M.). Still at Hampton.
- Jonas Skenandore (No. 340, M.). Returned for drinking. Had been a year or more in Massachusetts hoping to overcome his craving, but was not successful; has been home only a few months.
- Frank Bazhaw (No. 341, M.). Still at Hampton.
- Henry W. Beecher (No. 342, M.). In consumption when he came, and died a few months after his return.
- William Moore (No. 343, M.). Still at Hampton.
- Wilson Moore (No. 344, M.). Returned most reluctantly for ill health. He has been working on his land and doing what he could. His record of character, industry, and influence has been excellent.
- Thomas Pratt (No. 345, M.). A kleptomaniac with other troublesome tendencies; was returned to Pawnee, but soon after went to the Chilooce school. He is said to be a "good tailor and a professing Christian, but a little irregular in his devotions."
- Cooper Wilson (No. 346, M.). Returned for insanity and is now in confinement.
- George Bagola (No. 347, M.). Still at Hampton.
- John Bear (No. 348, M.). (See No. 215, M.)
- Peter Bear Heart (No. 349, M.). A good boy, recently returned to his father's home. Has done well so far.
- Robert Big Mane (No. 350, M.). Bright and ambitious. He returned this summer after three years.
- Josiah Charles (No. 351, M.). Still at Hampton.
- Homer Clark (No. 352, M.). Returned after two years for lung trouble; was soon after made a "judge" of the tribe and a catechist of the Episcopal church. Both offices he has filled satisfactorily, but has resigned the former as interfering with his more important work. He has done a great deal in his heathen father's family, and now has all the children in school. A very excellent character.
- Daniel Delay (No. 353, M.). An excellent young man, who returned for failing health. He has done exceedingly well at home, and it is hoped he will be able to come back another year.
- Joseph De Smit (No. 354, M.). In consumption when he came, and returned after a few months. He has not been able to do much, and is now unable to speak even. A quiet, but earnest character.
- George Gray Cloud (No. 355, M.). An excellent young man, returned this summer. He will hardly fail to make a good report.
- John Lariat (No. 356, M.). Returned this summer; was not very strong, but is quiet and earnest. It is hoped he will do well.

Thomas Lee (No. 357, M.). In consumption when he came; was soon returned. He died two months later, and his father and five brothers signed a letter announcing the fact, and thanking the school for its kindness to him.

Morris Martin (No. 358, M.). Returned over a year ago and has been doing exceedingly well. Lives by himself on his own farm and has raised quite a crop this year. The agent reports him as excellent in character and influence.

Felix Omaha (No. 359, M.) (See No. 150, M.)

Alex. Parkhurst (No. 360, M.). Still at Hampton.

John Pettee (No. 361, M.). Was graduated in 1891 and obtained an appointment as carpenter before leaving. He married an excellent young lady, an Indian, in Cherokee, N. C., and returned home. They have been living with the missionary until recently a house has been fitted up for them. They now have an exceedingly pretty and well-kept house, and are a center of influence of the best and most helpful kind.

Porcupine (No. 362, M.). Returned this summer; is very deficient mentally, and it is uncertain what he will do.

Amos Reed (No. 363, M.). Still at Hampton.

Gabriel Robertson (No. 364, M.). Came with his wife Elizabeth, but left for ill health and other reasons a few months later. Neither have much character, and do not have a pleasant home. They have "progressive" relatives and a chance to do well.

Norman Robertson (No. 365, M.). Returned from the middle class this summer, hoping to teach a year. We have not heard from him since.

Wilson Skenandore (No. 366, M.). Still at Hampton.

Reuben Thompson (No. 367, M.). Returned for ill health a year ago. Has helped his brother, an excellent Hampton boy, on the farm, and has so far a good record. Dresses and appears well.

Herbert Welsh (No. 368, M.). A leader among the "progressives" at Standing Rock. Although unsound when he came, he gained here 40 pounds the first year, and remained 3 years. He has just returned home, and is assisting at the Episcopal school at Oak Creek, has charge of the boys, and preaches on Sunday, taking the place of the regular missionary.

Lehigh Wheelock (No. 369, M.). Still at Hampton.

Joseph White Plume (No. 370, M.). Returned, after 3 years, this fall, and will probably do very well in a quiet way; has an excellent character.

Chapman Skenandoah (No. 371, M.), Jesse Cornelius (No. 372, M.), George Hill, (No. 373, M.), Israel Hill (No. 374, M.), Jones Hill (No. 375, M.). Still at Hampton.

Albert Ninham (No. 376, M.), John Ninham (No. 377, M.). Still at Hampton.

Wallace Ashley (No. 378, M.). Returned this fall, after two years here, and is helping his father on his place.

Phillip Big Mane (No. 379, M.). Returned after two years for ill health, and has almost entirely recovered. Is living at home with his father, one of the most progressive of the chiefs.

John Block (No. 380, M.). Bright and in every way satisfactory, except that a most violent temper made him a dangerous person in so large a school. He was sent from here to White's Institution, Wabash, Ind., by special permission, but, though in every other way commended, became violent there and has been recently returned to the Cheyenne Agency in Indian Territory, where he is doing well.

Peter Bourassa (No. 381, M.). Had been a carpenter at the Chilocco school, Indian Territory, and came here at his own expense, paying his own way home when family trouble made it seem necessary. He has a large ranch and doing remarkably well.

Charles Briggs (No. 382, M.), William Burgess (No. 383, M.). Still at Hampton.

Luke Chasing Alone (No. 384, M.) Still at Hampton.

James Crowfeather (No. 385, M.) Returned for ill health nine months after he came. Is working on his father's place.

Crow Man (No. 386, M.) Suffering from inherited disease when he came. Remained two years, and went home last summer.

John Couteau (No. 387, M.) (See No. 127, M.)

Walter Deronda (No. 388, M.) James Enouf (No. 389, M.). Still at Hampton.

Benj. Goolfur (No. 390, M.) Returned this summer and will probably do well in a quiet way.

Harry Hand (No. 391, M.) Still at Hampton.

John High Bird (No. 392, M.) Came with his wife, Irene. They were not happy together and by advice of friends at home were returned very soon.

Joseph Irwin (No. 393, M.), William Jones (No. 394, M.), Nelson Metoxen (No. 395, M.), Eugene Minisni (No. 396, M.). Still at Hampton.

David Plenty (No. 397, M.). Was taken ill in Massachusetts and died at the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston this summer.

John Pattee and wife, ex-students of Hampton; Crow Creek Agency, South Dakota. He is a carpenter and is putting an addition to his house. [See notes, No. 361, M., p. 30.]

Carrie Half Paypay, husband, and child. (Full Sioux.) Cheyenne River Agency, South Dakota. [See notes, No. 136, F., p. 11.]

Tyrrell Pole Ant (No. 398, M.). A very delicate child and died a few months after he came.

Abram Skenandore (No. 399, M.). Still at Hampton.

James Skenandore (No. 400, M.). Returned this summer to help his family. Will do well.

Nicholas Skenandoah (No. 401, M.). Was here two years at his own expense, then went to Schenectady, N. Y., where he is employed by the Edison Electric Light Company as a wood-turner.

Charles Washington (No. 402, M.). Still at Hampton.

John Whistler (No. 403, M.). Graduated in 1891, and is now preparing for college at Meriden, N. H.

Matthew Ankle (No. 404, M.), Claude Arrow (No. 405, M.), Martin Blue Cloud (No. 406, M.), Felix Bone Club (No. 407, M.), Daniel Frazier (No. 408, M.), George Frazier (No. 409, M.), Robert Goodwind (No. 410, M.), Morris Head (No. 411, M.), Placidus High Eagle (No. 412, M.), Charles Jones (No. 413, M.), Guy Jones (No. 414, M.), Louis Killed (No. 415, M.), Thomas Last (No. 416, M.), Walter Little Eagle (No. 417, M.), Henry Robinson (No. 418, M.), Theophile Traversie (No. 419, M.), Adolph Wise (No. 420, M.), Alfred Barker (No. 421, M.), Samuel Baskin (No. 422, M.), Tony Blackbird (No. 423, M.), Joseph Du Bray (No. 424, M.), Richard Hastings (No. 425, M.), Frank Hubbard (No. 426, M.), Thomas Kitto (No. 427, M.), Edward Morris (No. 428, M.). (See No. 191.). David Rouillard (No. 429, M.), Charles Rulo (No. 430, M.). (See No. 308, M.). Still at Hampton.

William Sky (No. 431, M.). Had a serious attack of pleurisy immediately on arrival. As he did not recover well and had a constitutional tendency to tubercular disease he was sent home.

Owen Stabler (No. 432, M.), Henry Useful Heart (No. 433, M.), David Hill (No. 434, M.). Still at Hampton.
