
IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

MAY 27, 1890.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. TURPIE, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany H. R. 6756.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 6756) granting a pension to Joseph Morris, have examined the same, and report:

The report of the Committee on Pensions of the House of Representatives hereto appended is adopted and the passage of the bill recommended.

HOUSE REPORT.

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 6756) granting a pension to Joseph Morris, have given the same consideration and beg leave to report as follows:

The claimant, who resides in Griffin, Ga., was a private in Capt. John D. Stell's company of Georgia volunteers, Creek Indian war, and served from May 12 to June 23, 1833. The service is reported by the Second Auditor of the Treasury.

The claimant is about seventy-two years old and in feeble health. Until incapacitated by age he earned a living for himself and wife by working a few acres of land and peddling the product around in a basket.

This land and a small house is all the property owned by him. These facts are vouched for by the gentleman who introduced the bill in the House and who has been the claimant's neighbor for many years.

The passage of the bill is recommended, with the following amendment: Add to the last word in the bill the words "and allow him a pension at $20 per month."
