The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 7578) granting a pension to Thompson N. Statham, have examined the same and report:

Your committee adopt the following report, submitted by the Committee on Pensions, House of Representatives, and recommend the passage of the bill.

The claimant served as a second lieutenant in Captain Jemigan's company of "Mounted Stewart Rangers," Georgia Volunteers, from June 20, 1836, to September 8, 1836, in the Florida Indian war.

The gentleman who introduced the bill in the House knows the claimant personally, and certifies that he is ninety-three years old and quite poor.

Your committee has at this session reported a bill to the House having for its object the pensioning of those who served for thirty days or more in the Indian wars from 1832 to 1842, inclusive, and in view of this claimant's service, great age, and poverty the bill for his relief is reported back, with the recommendation that it do pass.
