

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

JANUARY 15, 1891.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. DAVIS (by Mr. MANDERSON), from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany H. R. 12420.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 12420) granting a pension to William A. Todd, have examined the same, and report:

The report of the Committee on Invalid Pensions of the House of Representatives, hereto appended, is adopted, and the passage of the bill is recommended.

HOUSE REPORT.

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 12420) granting a pension to William Todd, have considered the same and report:

The claimant, who now resides at Curtis, Clark County, Ark., was a private in Capt. John D. Still's company of Col. William Wood's battalion, Georgia Volunteers, and served from June 3, 1836, to August 31, 1836, in the Creek Indian war.

J. L. Stroope and Thomas M. Ewing, citizens of Clark County, Ark., testify that the claimant is seventy-four years old, infirm, and unable to earn a livelihood by manual labor and that he has no income or property to support him.

In view of the service rendered by the claimant and his needy condition, your committee respectfully recommend the passage of the bill.
