

---

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

---

FEBRUARY 17, 1891.—Ordered to be printed.

---

Mr. TURPIE, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany H. R. 12009.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 12009) granting a pension to Martha Tennery, have examined the same, and report:

From the facts stated in House report, and hereby approved, and is hereto attached and made a part of this report, believing this to be a meritorious bill, we do recommend its passage.

---

[House Report No. 3566, Fifty-first Congress, second session.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 12009) granting a pension to Martha Tennery, have considered the same, and report as follows:

The claimant's late husband, James H. Tennery, was a private in Capt. Robert Griffin's company of Illinois Volunteers, and served from June 19, 1832, to August 15, 1832, in the Black Hawk war.

The claimant swears she is 80 years old and dependent upon her daily labor for support; also that her husband (the soldier) died March 16, 1869. Her post-office address is Paris, Ill.

Margaret Sizemore and George R. Marrs, citizens of Paris, Ill., corroborate, under oath, the claimant's statements, and they add that she has the care of an insane son.

The passage of the bill is recommended, with an amendment to allow a pension at $12 per month.

○