
IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

OCTOBER 1, 1890.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. DAVIS, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

R E P O R T :

[To accompany H. R. 12013.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill granting a pension to John D. Bagby, have examined the same and report:

The report of the Committee on Invalid Pensions of the House of Representatives hereto appended is adopted and the bill is recommended to pass.

H O U S E R E P O R T .

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 12013) granting a pension to John D. Bagby, have considered the same and report as follows:

The claimant, who resides at Marion, Kans., was a private in Capt. Japhet A. Ball's Company of Illinois Volunteers, and served from April 21, 1832, to May 23, 1832, in the Black Hawk war. He is now seventy-six years old, and so crippled and feeble as to be unable to perform any manual labor. He has been badly crippled for sixteen years.

Mr. Bagby has no property or income from which to support himself and aged wife, and he stands in great need of the pension prayed for. His standing in the community in which he resides is first class, and the facts above recited are vouched for by prominent citizens.

The case seems an exceptionally meritorious one, and your committee think it would be an act of simple justice to pass the bill, and that action is respectfully recommended. Amend by spelling the claimant's surname Bagby.
