

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

FEBRUARY 12, 1891.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. FAULKNEE, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany H. R. 12031.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 12031) granting a pension to Walter Scott, have examined the same, and report:

Your committee adopt the report submitted by the Committee on Pensions of the House of Representatives and recommend the passage of the bill.

The House report is as follows:

Walter Scott was a private in Capt. William Robinson's company of Alabama volunteers, and served from June 2 to August 16, 1836, in the Creek Indian war.

The claimant states in his petition that he is now past 71 years old, very poor, and too much disabled to support himself by manual labor; also, that it is only a question of time until he will have to go to the poor-house if he is not granted a pension.

The claimant's statements relative to old age, disability, and dependence upon others for the necessaries of life are fully substantiated by the testimony of Eugene Lynch, Charles N. Rear, and Charles P. Reddick, citizens of Nashville, Tenn.

Mr. Scott's post-office address is Nashville, Tenn.

Your committee believe this case to be an especially meritorious one, and the passage of the bill is therefore recommended.
