DANCING IN OUR MOMENT

Judy Fjell's performing career began as a teenager when she picked up a guitar at a garage sale, learned a few chords, and began entertaining folks in her small Montana home town with favorites from the "Hootenanny!" radio program. She majored in art at St. Olaf College in Minnesota and later became an elementary music teacher, but she spent much of her spare time learning fingerpicking techniques and performing with friends at local coffeeshouses.

Judy's career took a new turn when she came into her own as a songwriter in Oregon in the mid-'70's. Demand for her original music led to the creation of Honey Pie Music, the label which has released four Judy Fjell recordings to date. As she began to tour in the Northwest, audiences responded immediately to her unforgettable songs, her clear voice, her vibrant 12-string guitar playing, her quick wit, and her warm, "down-home" style.

Judy's touring continued to expand in the '80's to include California and all of the northwestern states. In 1985 she was asked to showcase the National Women's Music Festival in Bloomington, Indiana, and to emcee that stage in 1987. Popular demand has brought her to the mainstage of the West Coast Women's Music and Comedy Festival and continues to be the basis for Judy's rise as a performing artist. Wherever she appears, audiences are captivated by her excellence as a musician, and disarmed by the way she brings humor and heart to even the most difficult of subjects.

June, 1988, marked the release of a new

Judy Fjell album, "DANCE IN THE MOMENT," and plans for tours in the United States, Canada, and Australia. In addition to concerts for adults, Judy teaches music empowerment workshops and presents concerts for "children and other playful people." She has developed a multi-media, multi-sensory show with her puppet GRIN entitled "NO ONE WAY TO SEE THINGS." As with all of her musical appearances, there is plenty of opportunity for audience members of all ages to sing along and to experience the spontaneity of this multi-faceted performer—Judy Fjell!

HERLAND SPRING RETREAT!

A WORD FROM OUR CAMP DIRECTOR

Herland presents the 4th Annual Spring Retreat for Wimmin May 19-21, 1989 at Boiling Springs State Park. I feel this retreat will prove our commitment to making each one better than the last.

This year's performer is Judy Fjell, musician, humorist and presenter. She has been described as "the woman who's therapist reassures her that 14 personalities are better than none at all."

Judy will also present a workshop titled "Music Empowerment" on Saturday morning. Other workshops available will be "Stress Management" (I'll probably see you there); "Spirituality and Sexuality," by Beau McDaniels; and "Adult Children of Alcoholics." More workshops are being scheduled as the newsletter goes to press.

Massages will be available from 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. Saturday, and 9 a.m. - noon on Sunday in a private room in the main building. Costs will be: $30, full body; $18, body; $10 neck. Portions of all proceeds from all booths will go to Herland.

An orienteering race will be held on Saturday morning. this is a fun way to enjoy a nature walk and have a chance to win prizes.

A button-making booth will also be available. Bring ideas or photos and $1. All proceeds benefit Herland.

Meals will once again be available at the retreat at a price ot determined later.

Boiling Springs offers hiking trails where you might meet a few deer or wild turkeys. Alabaster Caverns is just 16 miles away.

Send in your registrations with ideas and comments. I plan on another wonderful weekend for all.

Pre-registration is $17-$20 and on-site is $25. Scholarships are in limited supply. If you can offer to pay a scholarship, it would be of great help to those who can share the fun yet cannot afford it. If you have any questions, give me a call at 672-4141. See you there!

AIDS STUDY PARTICIPANTS NEEDED

New Haven, CT — A study being conducted at Yale University's Department of Psychology by Dr. Christian S. Crandall and his associates is looking for participants who have tested positive for HIV. The study aims to determine the social and psychological outlook of PWA's, and their effects on physical and psychological well-being. The goal is to change the application of medical and support services in a more effective manner.

Persons with AIDS, ARC and HIV seropositive are needed. Confidentiality is strictly enforced.

To participate, or for further information, please contact the Yale Project on the Psychology of AIDS, Elizabeth Tse, Director, at P.O. Box 7172 Yale Station, Yale University, New Haven, CT, 06520, or call collect at (203) 436-0805. ■

DYKES, DISABILITY AND STUFF

This newsletter is only in its third issue but is quickly becoming an invaluable national network. They created a stir by saying they wanted to live their lives with lesbians at the center, but using the word separatist rang people's bells. They are clear about wanting to do anti-racist, anti-class, anti-ablism. Items include practical information, such as Zana's suggestions for do-it-yourself wheel chair comfort. Contact them at:

LESBIANS TO KEYNOTE STATE CONFERENCE

Houston — The second annual Texas Lesbian Conference (TLC) will take place on June 2-4, 1989 at the Astro Village Hotel. The emphasis of the conference will be on "celebrating diversity" by bringing together women of all races, economic backgrounds, political identities, spiritualities and ages to share in our lives as women who love women.

Two native Texas lesbians will keynote the event and over 1000 women are expected to attend. Gloria Anzaldúa, chicana, tejana and co-editor of This Bridge Called My Back: Writings by Radical Women of Color, will keynote the Saturday morning session. Her address will focus on the borderland experience: caught between two cultures, an alien in both.

Capturing the social diversity of Texas communities, Sunday presenter and lesbian novelist, Antoinette Azolakov explores the contrasting views of the feminist and the non-feminist and of the women in traditional versus non-traditional occupations. Her published works include Cass and the Stone Butch, Skiptrace, and the Contactees Die Young.

The objectives of the conference are to create a network of lesbians to facilitate communication, promote grass root organizations and increase visibility.

The conference is being produced by All Mujeres Interested in Getting Active (AMIGA) and Womynspace of Houston. AMIGA is a lesbiana latina organization committed to increasing the visibility of latinas and which works toward civil rights for all. Womynspace of Houston is a non-hierarchical feminist organization founded to create an alternative space for womyn in a chemical free, women only, supportive environment.

For more information on TLC '89 write: PO Box 980134, Houston, TX or call (713) 520-5667. A TLC volunteer orientation is scheduled for Saturday, May 6; all interested women should call or write. A press conference is tentatively scheduled for Sunday, June 4 at 4:00 p.m., in the Texas Lesbian Conference Hospitality Suite at the Astro Village Hotel. ■

LITERARY AWARDS

Washington, DC — Lambda Rising BOOK REPORT has announced the finalists of the 1st Annual Lambda Literary Awards.

Multiple finalists include Dr. Betty Berzon's Permanent Partners, a finalist in both Lesbian Nonfiction and Gay Men's Nonfiction; Trash by Dorothy Allison in Lesbian Fiction and the Lesbian Small Press Book Award; Swimming-Pool Library by Alan Hollinghurst in Gay Men's Fiction and Gay Men's First Novel; Why Can't Sharon Kowalski Come Home? by Karen Thompson in Lesbian Nonfiction and the Lesbian Small Press Award; Mundan'e World by Judy Grahn in Lesbian Mystery/Science Fiction and Lesbian First Novel; and Michael Nava's Goldenboy in Gay Men's Small Press Book Award and Gay Men's Mystery/Science Fiction. Paul Monette placed with Love Alone: 18 Elegies for Rog (Gay and Lesbian Poetry) and Borrowed Time in both Gay Men's Nonfiction and the Special AIDS Category.

The finalists represent 53 different titles, 58 authors and 31 publishers. "During the nomination process, support of the Awards program came from the entire gay and lesbian reading community," said Jane Troxell, editor of the sponsoring publication. "Now a panel of 60 judges from across the country will have the difficult task of selecting a single book in each category from among the finalists."

The public is cordially invited to attend the gala Awards banquet (black tie optional) to be held June 2nd, 1989, at the Hyatt Regency Washington on Capitol Hill in Washington, DC, to coincide with the American Booksellers Association Convention. At that time, the recipients of the 1st Annual Lambda Literary Awards will be announced. Emcee for the evening's events will be author Armistead Maupin.

For further information about the awards program or the banquet, please contact Will Williams: BOOK REPORT, 1625 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Washington, DC, 20009-1013 or Phone (202) 462-6965. ■

NGLTF HIRES IVY YOUNG AS DIRECTOR OF NEW PROJECT TO SECURE RECOGNITION OF LESBIAN & GAY RIGHTS

The National Gay & Lesbian Task Force launches the only national organizing project on behalf of lesbian and gay families on May 1, 1989 with the hiring of veteran feminist and black activist Ivy Young as Project Director. The Lesbian & Gay Families Project was formed through a unique collaboration between the D.C.-based National Gay & Lesbian Task Force (NGLTF) and the San Francisco-based National Center for Lesbian Rights (NCLR—formerly known as the Lesbian Rights Project).

The Lesbian & Gay Families Project will educate, advocate and organize for full societal recognition of lesbian and gay relationships and for the protection of lesbian and gay families. The Families Project will confront barriers facing lesbian and gay partners and parents and will tackle issues such as: securing equal benefits for gay and lesbian partners; fair and equal treatment for gay and lesbian parents in custody, visitation and co-parenting arrangements; passage of non-discrimination laws regarding adoption, foster care, and artificial insemination; securing survivors' rights and the right to be involved in medical decisions and treatment for our loved ones.

Families Project director Ivy Young joins the Task Force with a strong background in media, grassroots organizing, and politics. She is the former General Manager of WWOZ-FM in New Orleans and served as the Director of Public Affairs for WBAI-FM in New York City from 1986 to 1988. Ms. Young was editor and anchor of daily newscasts at WHUR-FM in Washington DC from 1978 - 1982. She was Communications Director for the Center for Black Education in Washington from 1969 - 1973.

Ms. Young's political organizing work involved her in the 1988 Presidential election campaign during which she helped organize Lesbians & Gays For Jesse Jackson in NYC. She was Editor of Pacifica Radio's coverage of the Democratic National Convention in July 1988. In October of 1987, she served as consultant to organizers of the People of Color Stage (morning rally) of the National March on Washington For Lesbian and Gay Rights.

Ms. Young also has extensive grassroots organizing experience in the women's political culture movements. From 1982-1985, Ms. Young was a staff member of Roadwork, Inc., the D.C. based non-profit women's culture production company. In 1984 and 1985, she was the producer of Sisterfire, Roadwork's multi-cultural, open-air festival of women in the arts held annually in Washington DC. She has worked with the Program in Black American Culture at the Smithsonian Institution, the National Conference for Women In Radio, and served as a U.S. Delegate to the Third International Festival of New Song held in Ecuador in 1985.

The National Center For Lesbian Rights was founded in 1977 as the Lesbian Rights Project of Equal Rights Advocates and is a non-profit public interest law firm dedicated to preserving and increasing the rights of lesbians and gay men. NCLR is the only national lesbian organization dedicated to expanding the legal and political rights of all gay people.

The National Gay & Lesbian Task Force is the leading political advocacy and educational organization of the lesbian and gay movement. Founded in 1973, NGLTF lobbies, organizes, educates and acts to secure full civil rights for lesbians and gay men. NGLTF organizing projects focus on violence, sodomy law repeal, media advocacy, passage of gay and lesbian rights protections and lesbian and gay families. ■

Meet the Board

MEET SISTER 50!

By Sondra Metzger

This month's board member is Margaret C., who calls herself "Sister 50" because she just turned 50 years old last year.

Margaret has been an integral part of Herland since 1985 when Barbara Cleveland convinced her to join the board. Being involved with a volunteer organization is nothing new to Margaret. She is the most politically active member of the board, and has been very active with the National Organization for Women for seven years.

"My father was career Army, and I was born at Ft. Sill," she said. "An Army family life is very patriarchal, and when I found out at the age of 10 that I couldn't go to West Point, I decided to buy into that type of family life. For the next 20 years I tried to be a model of what the traditional woman was thought to be."

Margaret began working for women's rights at the end of those 20 years and while doing so discovered she was crazy about women.

"I'm philosophically bi-sexual," she said, "politically radical lesbian and specifically, I'm straight."

Margaret is presently the entire staff of what she calls one of the state's smallest agencies. She spends her time in her house in OKC with two dogs and a cat when she's not working for NOW or Herland.

"One of my first impressions of Herland," she said, "was that they would talk about something at the board meeting and then I would see it done. I don't think Herland has a reputation among the sisters for getting things done or following things through, but it was better than NOW or any other organization at that time. The women are the best thing about Herland. They're fun, dedicated, hard-working, competent and very daring."

Like all of us, Margaret has her dreams for Herland. She would like to see Herland be the core of a real women's resource center that has offices available for women lawyers, a health practitioner and a psychologist.

"I'd like to see us buy the church building next door, she said. "I'd also like to see NOW and the Women's Political Caucus share office space and rent the back room each month. I'd also love to see someone staffing the store seven days a week."

Margaret knows quite a bit about staffing the store. As head of the Volunteer Committee, it is up to her to make sure someone is there to work on the weekends, which is sometimes not easy.

Margaret enjoys a wonderful relationship with her 20-year-old daughter, Malika, who lives in Washington, D.C.

"She's named after Malcolm X," she said. "Her father and I thought it was a beautiful name, and we were quite radical at the time. We're divorced now, but we're still good friends. I feel very, very lucky to have the relationship I do with my daughter. She's really a great kid."

Margaret had one word of advice for those who haven't become involved with Herland: "Working for the volunteer committee is the best way to meet women!" ■

Oops—The Editor Goofs Again!

As some have noticed, B.G. Canis's article in the April issue of the HSR Newsletter is missing something. Page 6, Column 3, 3rd line should read: "I'm not condoning 'sneakiness.' If you're 'out' be out when you infiltrate. Being out is a personal decision and no one has any right to interfere with your personal life."

My apologies to B.G. for this paste-up goof.

Chatterbox

by Sondra Metzger

A BIG THANK YOU to those ambitious women who cleaned up in and around the Resource Center and the old building on April 9. The place looks great and your time and energy are greatly appreciated...

we also tremendously appreciated the response we got from our plea for $1 donation per subscriber. Thank you all for coming through!...

pamphlets on this year's Michigan Women's Festival are available at the Resource Center (see ad this issue). It has everything you need to know about the festival if you are planning to go...

don't forget to mail in your reservations for Herland's Spring Retreat. By registering early you can save a few bucks...

is there a specific performer you would like to see at one of Herland's coffeehouses? If so, let us know...

Herland now has an answering machine thanks to a very generous sister. It's on duty 24 hours a day and can be utilized by calling 521-WMYN...

studio work is finished on the tape being created by Friendships United. They are hoping to have it available for sale at the Quilt display on May 5-7. After that, tapes may be purchased at Herland, through ASP (525-6277) or Friendships United (Friendships United, c/o Peggy Johnson, P.O. Box 75842, OKC, 73147). Cost of the tape was not available at press time...

we have not received the update on Sharon Kowalski that was promised in the last newsletter...

did anyone go to the retreat in Arkansas April 21-23? If so, drop us a line and let us know how it was...

did you know that Herland won an award at the GALA banquet? It was for best community event, which was the Gay Pride Parade, and we shared the award with Oasis Community Center. How's that for networking...

be aware that at the April board meeting, the board decided that smoking would not be allowed in the Resource Center during a coffeehouse or other event where there are a large number of people, but is allowed in the area of the front door. "Recreational" drugs are not allowed anywhere on the property at all, which includes the building, the yards and the parking area...

the West Coast Celebration and Conference by and for Old Lesbians II will be held at the conference center at San Francisco State University on August 4-6. Write P.O. Box 31787, San Francisco, CA 94131 for more info...

also for older women, there is a newsletter out called "Visible" that will be produced three times a year. Yearly subscriptions are $10. Write to Vashte Doublex, Editor, P.O. Box 1494, Mendocino, CA 95406...

a bimonthly magazine called "December Rose" is available for "fledgling writers and artists 62 years and older." Features include articles on creative aging, senior artists, music and travel. Subscriptions are $9 a year and are available by writing to 401 E. Ocean Blvc., #300, Long Beach, CA 90802...

and last but not least, there is a vacancy on Herland's board. If anyone is interested, please come to our next board meeting. You must have some volunteer hours under your belt before you are eligible to join.

OBSIDIAN

My heart is small today
black, shiny and hard
My heart is an Apache tear, obsidian, polished smooth by the abrasion of pain.

Today in a journey
I let my heart grow
And it cracked its obsidian shell like an egg.

That hurts, my friends
and black tears fell from my eyes
As I tried vainly to collect the smoking pieces of my protection.

This new heart is raw dark red, pulsing with life blood
At its center I keep the obsidian seed maybe one day I won't need it.

HERLAND IS . . .

A non-profit corporation composed of a collective of wimmin — open to any womyn who wants to be a part of it — which works to maintain a feminist library and bookstore, sponsors workshops, retreats, concerts and other events for YOU. Herland's reason for being is to provide a framework for a variety of projects for the support and enjoyment of the area wimmin's community. It is a place to learn and grow, meet other wimmin, develop lasting friendships, receive support and nurture the positive self-image that societal attitudes sometimes make illusive to us. Herland exists to serve YOU.

Your donations are used to pay the mortgage and utilities on the resource center, and printing and postage for the monthly HSR Newsletter and Friend of Herland cards.

All of Herland's services are free, including the Newsletter. This is why your donation is so important. It is Herland's lifeblood.
