Thank you Max.

Yes, Nurjanah and I do give full permission to the SMV Project to include our 2015 Interdisciplinary Moral Forum presentation, "The Transformation of the Self: Competing Moral Repertoires in Modern Java," handouts and slides in the Moral Self Archive.

Could you please use the attached pdf ("Javanese Self Slides.pdf") rather than what I sent to you yesterday ("Javanese Morality Slides.pdf")? As the presentation is to be archived, I double-checked the quoted material and references. I found and corrected a mistake, the page reference to Hildred Geertz's work.

Regards
Christopher

Dear Christopher,

The slides came through fine. We'll plan to use the PDF, to insure it appears exactly as you saved it. I believe you will be able to use the hand-held clicker to advance the PDF when set to Full Page mode.

We will be archiving Interdisciplinary Moral Forum presentation materials in our Moral Self Archive, which will be launched one or two weeks after the IMF. The archive will be freely accessible to all moral self researchers and to the general public. It will not be password protected.

Here's how our permissions process works.

- Proposal title, author information and abstract – This already appears on our website and will also appear in the IMF program. So no special permission is needed before putting this information in the archive.
- Audience handouts, slides, and any materials meant only for reviewers – These will appear in the archive only if the PI gives explicit written permission. We prefer to post these materials when the archive first launches. If requested, however, we can postpone archiving the materials until after final award decisions have been made.
- Video of the presentation – Presentation videos are a standard part of Templeton-funded projects. One of Susan Berntson's recent emails included a note saying participants will be expected to sign a photo/video permissions form. This will be a 1-2 line statement giving permission to the SMV Project to use for (non-profit) promotional purposes images and footage that may include your likeness, and to post the video of your presentation on the Moral Self Archive.

With this in view, are you comfortable agreeing to the following statement?

I give full permission to the SMV Project to include our 2015 Interdisciplinary Moral Forum (IMF) presentation ("The Transformation of the Self: Competing Moral Repertoires in Modern Java") handouts and/or slides in the Moral Self Archive.

Please let me know.

Yours,
Max

Thank you very much. Attached are a .doc version and a .pdf version of the same file with seemingly identical pagination. I hope to show either in full page view / in show whole page view. Do please let me know if you have any trouble opening these. Thank you Max.

Dear Christopher,

No problem. I'll keep an eye out for the Word doc.

Status Report

Dear Max

I have abandoned Powerpoint (which I officially detest), am placing visuals in a Word document, and hope to send it within a couple of hours. I am sorry for the delay. It must be quite a headache to assemble 30 presentations, even without people like me.

Thank you, Max, for the reminder. Would tomorrow be too late. It's a powerpoint presentation.

Dear Interdisciplinary Moral Forum Presenters,

A brief reminder: if you plan to use visual aids, but have not yet sent them to me, you must do so as soon as possible!

It's looking like we'll have some nice weather for our conference. See you in town later this week.

Yours,
Max
