

Figure D-2. Thorium (Th) vs. potassium (K) cross-plot for two wells located in Beckham County (blue) and Washita County (red). Th and K values are from spectral gamma ray log. On the west side potassium content is found to be higher than on the east side.