Hi Max,

Of course! Putting together receipts too. Are electronic copies okay?

Best,
Jesse

Hi, Jesse,

Our videographers are finalizing their video footage of the Interdisciplinary Moral Forum. Looking through my paperwork, I see I have no record of receiving permission from you to post your slides in our Moral Self Archive, or to have them appear in video of your presentation, which will also be posted in the archive. Do you agree to let us post your ppt. presentation in the archive, and include portions of your slides in the video of your presentation?

Please let me know as soon as possible.

Yours,
Max

Jesse -

We will be archiving Interdisciplinary Moral Forum presentation materials in our Moral Self Archive, which will be launched one or two weeks after the IMF. The archive will be freely accessible to all moral self researchers and to the general public. It will not be password protected.

Here's how our permissions process works.

- Proposal title, author information and abstract – This already appears on our website and will also appear in the IMF program. So no special permission is needed before putting this information in the archive.
- Audience handouts, slides, and any materials meant only for reviewers – These will appear in the archive only if the PI gives explicit written permission. We prefer to post these materials when the archive first launches. If requested, however, we can postpone archiving the materials until after final award decisions have been made.
- Video of the presentation – Presentation videos are a standard part of Templeton-funded projects. One of Susan Berntson's recent emails included a note saying participants will be expected to sign a photo/video permissions form. This will be a 1-2 line statement giving permission to the SMV Project to use for (non-profit) promotional purposes images and footage that may include your likeness, and to post the video of your presentation on the Moral Self Archive.

With this in view, are you comfortable agreeing to the following statement?

I give full permission to the SMV Project to include our 2015 Interdisciplinary Moral Forum (IMF) presentation ("The Neuroscience of Habituated Motivation") handouts and/or slides in the Moral Self Archive.

Please let me know.

Yours,
Max

Hi Max,

Thanks so much! We don't have a handout. Thanks for asking. I have the slides on a flash drive. They are attached here too, in case that's easier.

We are definitely having a great time. You've been truly amazing. We are all in your debt. I've organized many conferences, and I know what a burden it is. You have carried that weight with amazing grace. I hope you've had some moments to enjoy too.

Yours,
Jesse
